FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DAVE

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PRAYERS

A week and a half ago many of us gathered with family and friends to celebrate the great holiday of Thanksgiving. One of the customs that my brother and his family do before we all dive into the food is that following the meal prayer we go around the table with each person naming one or more things that they are particularly grateful to God for during this past year. It was certainly easy for me to name the top two items on my gratitude list. Number one would be the gift of family. So often it is easy to take family members for granted. I only have the one sibling, and yes as we were growing up my big brother and I didn't always see eye to eye – there is a six year difference, so I was probably seen as the "pest" when he was trying to hang out with his friends. But ours has developed into great relationship, each of us knowing that we can always depend on the other.

The second item on my gratitude list is the gift of health. And here is where you, my St. Bridget's family come into play. As I navigated through the health issues this November, I was keenly aware of the many prayers being offered by so many of you on my behalf. I can honestly say that I tangibly felt you prayer support and I am confident that those prayers aided the doctors, nurses, technicians and medications to do their job. Thank you so much for the prayers, cards, encouragement, and yes sometimes even food to hasten my healing.

I feel that as of last week, the Wednesday before Thanksgiving, things turned a corner and I felt "back to normal" again. Thank you again for your prayers and know that I have offered prayers of gratitude for you as well.

MARY AS OUR ADVENT MODEL

As we move more deeply into our season of Advent, this week and next week the church calendar has placed before us two major Marian feasts. On December 8th we celebrate the feast of the Immaculate Conception - a Holyday of Obligation. Then a few days later on December 12th we encounter what is becoming the increasingly important feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, especially dear to the Spanish speaking community. Is this a season of Marian overkill? Not at all, because Mary is integral to our understanding of what the season of Advent is all about.

Advent has three major figures who play a significant role during the four weeks. The first is the prophet Isaiah. If one were to name the Old Testament prophet who most commonly writes about the coming of the Messiah, surely the name of Isaiah would be at the top of the list. The classic passage which begins, "The virgin will be with child and bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel" (Is 7:14) is a part of the Isaiah writings which we hear each year. Isaiah is the figure who represents the virtue of Hope. It is he who assures his people that God has not forgotten them. The promise of the ideal king who will rule with sense of security, justice and a care for the poor and oppressed would surely have been a source of encouragement to the people of his time as well as ours.

The second of the three major Advent figures whose story appears in the Gospels for weeks two and three is the person of John the Baptist. John, the cousin of Jesus, bridged the gap between the Old and New Testaments. His message was in total harmony with all of the prophets that had gone before him – namely a message of repentance and conversion of heart, as evidenced by a change of behavior. John, from what the scriptures tell us, was a man who cared nothing for the comforts of the flesh, but dressed and preached in such a way as to reinforce his unyielding message – even to the point of sacrificing his life. His influence during these four weeks reminds us that while we wait to celebrate Christ's coming; our posture should be one of self-reflection, repentance, and growth in holiness.

Finally, Mary represents for us the image of a disciple ever attentive to God's voice and ever willing to put her life at the disposal to the Lord's plan – without having to know the details. In the Immaculate Conception we honor her for the great privilege God bestowed upon her in shielding her from all sin from the moment of her conception, by virtue of the merits won for her by her divine son. Under the title of Our Lady of Guadalupe she lives the role of a tender mother who cares for especially the most insignificant and humble of her children. That humility and love are what allowed her to give answer to the angel Gabriel in the words, "I am the handmaid of the Lord, may it be done to me according to your word" when he asked her on God's behalf, if she would consent to bear God's son.

That stance of opening her will and purpose to be shaped by the will of God is perhaps the most challenging way that we can prepare during this Advent season. Mary can help us in this challenge of faith and we need never be afraid to ask for her guidance and intercession as we reflect on the parts of our lives where we still show stubborn inflexibility. Patience, listening and prayer – all qualities of Mary's life – will go a long way toward making our Advent more fruitful and our Christmas more joyous. May Mary show us the way.

Youth Ministry

I am so glad that last weekend is in the rearview mirror. I spoke after all three Masses talking about Mission trips, and Extreme Faith Camp, which is soon to be known as Catholic Youth Summer Camp, because of the Damascus of Ohio influence. I touched on the youth's work and fundraising activities so far this year, such as oiling the pews in our church, helping out at the Knight's of Columbus pancake breakfast, and bagging "donuts to go" after Masses a few weeks back. The big thrust of my spiel centered around the "Youth Future's Board," currently playing in the Narthex. The reasoning behind the Youth Future's Board is to insure the ability of our youth to be able to attend Summer faith trips, because, like everything else, they can be quite expensive, and if you have several children, they could be cost prohibitive. It has been so wonderful to see our parish come together around the youth fundraising events over my two and a half years as Youth Minister. I thank all of you that have participated in their progress, whether it be sharing of your treasures or being the subject of your prayers. Oh yeah, as to being glad last weekend is in the rearview mirror, let's just say that being comfortable speaking in front of two-hundred people will never come easy to me, but if the cause is right, I'm willing to hang it out there.

Next up, tonight, if you're reading this on Sunday, is our second pro-life youth group meeting. It's at 6:00 PM in the Conference Room. This pro-life Ministry is headed up by Krista Lord, who has done a phenomenal job in putting together a comprehensive itinerary designed for pre-teen and teenagers. We try to stay away from the politics of the issue, but what we do discuss are the facts and truth about the pre-natal development of the unborn, various abortion methods, and that as Catholics, one of our highest priorities should be the protecting and defending the lives of God's most innocent of children, unborn babies. Through education and prayer, hearts and minds can be changed. During our first pro-life meeting, eight pro-choice (their words) young adults, were shone videos of what actually takes place during an abortion, and especially later-stage abortions. They had no idea about what actually happens to a baby during an abortion. I won't say that they are now all flaming pro-lifers, but you could see that their new-found knowledge had a tremendous affect on their hearts, and their minds. Everything we talk about at our pro-life meetings is done in a truthful, and age-appropriate way. I hope and pray that our youth will step up, and step out, and give just one pro-life meeting a try, because knowledge truly does hold the power to saving lives.

St. Gianna Beretta Molla, Patron
Saint of unborn children, pray for us.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Everyday Stewardship Gospel Reflection

If you have ever planned a large-scale event, whether it's a musical performance or a religious conference, you may have dealt with someone's personal assistant. Possibly this person would be a representative of the keynote speaker or the master of ceremonies for the local bishop; perhaps it's even the staffer of a local politician or the lackey of a well-known musical act.

Personal assistants are masters of stewardship — overseeing things in their boss' absence. They prepare the way. This person's job is to get everything ready for the person in charge, so that when he or she shows up — whoever he or she is — it's smooth sailing for them to do whatever it is they need to do: sing, speak, pray, mingle, what-have-you. It's usually a big job full of little things, a gig where attention to detail is key.

God is the guest of honor in our life, the keynote speaker, the main event. And what He wants — what He needs — to do is to change our hearts. Constantly, over, and over, and over again.

We are all His personal assistants in this endeavor. We need to prepare the way of the Lord, to make straight His paths. We need to make everything ready so that when He shows up — however He shows up, whether it's in the form of a neighbor in need or a burning bush right in front of us — everything is ready for Him to do His job.

BABY BLANKET GIVING TREE

Last weekend the Giving Tree, benefiting our Baby Blanket guests, went up in the narthex along with a bassinet to place your gifts. Tags can be taken, or to help guide you in your donations, a list of our "GREATEST NEEDS" is included in the bulletin this week. Another option is to make check/cash donations (envelopes are available on the tree) and we will do the shopping for you. As always, our thanks to your for your support of this community ministry.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Next weekend, December 11th & 12th there will be a second collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious. This fund financially helps thousands of senior religious brothers, sisters, and religious order priests who have served many years in Catholic schools, hospitals, and parishes—often for little to no pay. Now, many religious communities do not have enough retirement savings and struggle to provide for aging members. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious collection helps provide medications, nursing care, and more. Please prayerfully consider a generous donation. You may find envelopes and donation handouts on the tables in the Narthex.

FAMILY PATHWAYS

St. Bridget's donated 198 lbs of food to Family Pathways Food Shelf in the month of November. Thank you for your generosity! We are in need of a volunteer to bring the food from our donation bins to Family Pathways Food Shelf the months of January through March. If willing to collect the food from our bins and drop it off at Family Pathways please call Heidi at 651-257-2474 x25.

ADVENT RESOURCES

Resources to guide you through Advent and prepare your hearts for the coming of Christ are available to pick up in the Narthex or on our website at www.stbridgetofsweden.org/adultformation. Keep checking the Narthex throughout Advent to check out what is new.

ENVIRONMENT COORDINATOR

We are in need of a new Environmental Design Coordinator. This volunteer position coordinates all of our seasonal and liturgical décor in the church throughout the year. The role also coordinates the many volunteers to help change over the environment. If interested in volunteering as the Environmental Design Coordinator, please contact Jessica at 651-257-2474 x24.
