Diocese of CROOKSTON

Letter from bishop Richard e. pates
june 3, 2021

Dear Friends,

The Diocese of Crookston will join the other five Minnesota dioceses in re-instating the Sunday obligation to attend Mass on July 1 and thus will be effective the weekend of July 3 and 4.

The decision is made in line with the guidance of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Minnesota Department of Health. Especially noteworthy is that as of June 1, the percentage of adults vaccinated in the state of Minnesota was 65%. Heartfelt thanks are to be expressed to those who have taken this step. Because of vaccination, the country has experienced a significant decline in the incidence of COVID-19.

Many may have legitimate reasons to continue wearing masks and other mitigation practices. I ask that our churches make seating accommodations for them. In the same vein, the dispensation from Sunday obligation remains in force for those in special circumstances. A list of these is found in the statewide announcement. In any case, the operative consideration is sound judgment.

Returning to our long-cherished tradition is welcome news. When citing obligation, perhaps the most important is the obligation of the heart. The Eucharistic gathering originated at the beginning of the Church and has continued without interruption to this day. It manifests our relationship with God through Jesus and with one another. We experience God's direction for our lives in the Liturgy of the Word, we become one with Him as his death and resurrection are made present in the Eucharistic Prayer, and we are united with Him through partaking in His Body and Blood.

Under the leadership of Janelle Gergen and Deacon Mark Krejci, a diocesan taskforce has been assembled to work with committees in each parish facilitating "re-uniting in Christ." In each parish, the committee will reach out to encourage and warmly welcome those returning to our Eucharistic community. In a spirit of evangelization, the outreach will not only be to those who have joined us in the past, but also those who are not often among us. Ultimately, this role of encouragement and invitation falls upon all of us. Can we think of a greater gift to extend?

Heartfelt thanks are in order to all who have brought us to this happy moment to "reunite in Christ." My best wishes and prayers are with every member of our diocesan community.
Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

MOST REVEREND RICHARD E. PATES
Apostolic Administrator

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:
And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD,
bring low the high tree,
lift high the lowly tree,
wither up the green tree,
and make the withered tree bloom. (Ez 17:24)

PSALM:
Lord, it is good to give thanks to you. (Ps 92)

SECOND READING:
We are always courageous,
although we know that while we are at home in the body
we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. (2 Cor 5:6-7)

GOSPEL:
"It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground,|
is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth.
But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants
and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade." (Mk 4:31-32)

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 13, 2021

Sunday:	11th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday:	Flag Day
Saturday:	St. Romuald, Abbot; BVM
Next Sunday:	12th Sunday in Ordinary Time; World Refugee Day; Father's Day

REFLECT

FIRST READING
The prophet Ezekiel's image of God growing Israel into a mighty majestic cedar tree bearing fruit, with birds nesting in its branches was intended to be words of comfort for the exiled Israelites in Babylon. How do you find God's comfort in times of distress?

SECOND READING
Paul encourages the believers in Corinth to be courageous in knowing one day all will appear before "the judgment seat of Christ." How confident are you in reflecting on judgment day?

GOSPEL READING
Mark tells us that Jesus often spoke in parables to the crowds about the kingdom of God. Today's parables speak to the often unseen and subtle growth of the kingdom of God in our midst. How might you better observe the kingdom of God at work in your life?

Returning to Liturgical Ministries

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Praise God from whom all blessings flow! Our Eucharistic ministries are reviving slowly but surely. And we certainly give thanks to all who have faithfully ministered to us during this time of pandemic. To realize "full strength" we invite all who are confirmed Catholics to consider becoming liturgical ministers in an area discerned by you through prayer. This invitation goes out to those of you who have considered becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. Training and formation is provided for this ministry that is officially commissioned. Please contact Mary Dahl, Deacon Denny, or Fr. Vincent for more info and to schedule a training/formation appointment.
