Greetings!
Maybe you've received a text message, or an email, that goes something like this:
"Hey. This is Father. I need a favor."
"It's very urgent. Can you help with Google Play cards?"

Sure, Father's name did not pop up on the caller id (even though his number is saved in your phone). Sure, Father has never asked you for Google Play cards (whatever those are). Sure, you called the number and nobody answered (yikes!). But maybe, just maybe, Father does need my help in this matter.

If this happens to you, then I am going to place my bets and say: IT IS A SCAM!!!

Because of our parish websites and weekly bulletin, both of which are online, the email addresses and phone numbers of some parish activity coordinators can also now be found there. These coordinators have been the primary target of these phishing scams.
Three rules to avoid being scammed:
Identify anything unusual about the request (e.g. – the right name with a wrong number, available by text message but not by phone call, etc.).
Resist the pressure to act immediately.
Stop and talk with someone you trust: this can even include calling the priest who allegedly requested the funds, via the phone number or email address which they have provided in the parish bulletin, to confirm it was them.

This is NOT the first time we have had to address this. It seems there are new scam attempts ever few months. Please be cautious and wise. Because, and this is the key part: People asking for help will not always be a scam, and they will need your help one day. It is not a sin to be cautious, inquisitive and wise in your giving.
May God bless! Father Mitchell

TODAY, JUNE 20TH IS FATHER'S DAY
Fathers are someone special. They may not always let you have your way in things, because they love you and want you to be safe, as well as learn. A father is one who is proud of your triumphs, he is also patient and helpful and strong. He is someone who listens, suggests, and defends, but wants you to accept when you are wrong. As the years pass, you will find you are even more grateful to call him your dad. Thank your dad for listening, caring, and sharing, especially thank him for helping you be who you are.

Some good advice - 1) Always pray to have eyes that see the best in people, a heart that forgives the worst, a mind that forgets the bad, and a soul that never loses faith in God! 2) Vision without action becomes only a dream. Action without vision can be a waste of time. But Vision with action together can change the world! Use your vison and action to change the world to be a better place!

What do the colors of the priest's and deacon's vestments mean?

In the Roman Rite of the Catholic Church, the colors of the vestments evolved over the course of several centuries and there was wide variation both in the colors used, and in the feasts and seasons associated with particular colors. It was Pope Innocent III (d. 1216) who gave us the basic outline that was later prescribed by Pope Saint Pius V in 1570. The various colors remind us of the dominant themes of a particular season or celebration.

White: Used for the seasons of Christmas and Easter and in celebrations of the Lord, of Mary, the angels, and saints who were not martyrs. This color is also used in Masses for the dead, at baptisms, weddings and other festive celebrations.

Red: As the color of both blood and fire, red is used on Palm Sunday and Good Friday, as well as Pentecost and special celebrations of the Holy Spirit. Moreover, red is used on the feasts and memorials of the Apostles and those saints who died as martyrs.

Violet: The color for Advent and Lent. Violet may also be used in Masses for the dead and on All Souls Day (November 2).

Green: A color of life and hope, green is used throughout Ordinary Time.

Other colors: Rose may be used on the Third Sunday of Advent and the Fourth Sunday of Lent, black may be used in Masses of the dead and on All Souls Day, gold or silver may be used on solemn occasions in place of white, red, or green.

"Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even the wind and sea obey?" Mark 4:38c-39.41

From Bishop Kettler: As the COVID-l9 pandemic continues to subside, the bishops of Minnesota have made the decision together to reinstate the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation in all of our dioceses beginning the weekend of July 3-4. The document from the Minnesota Catholic Conference, posted at https://it.ly/3w0zJW1.
explains the importance of attending Mass in person and outlines the circumstances under which Mass attendance will still not be required for the time being. It is with great joy that we return as parish communities to the celebration of the Eucharist, the source and summit of our faith. It is an obligation rooted in our love for the Lord and our desire to celebrate this love together as one body in Christ. I join your pastor and fellow parishioners in welcoming you back to Mass. May God bless you and your loved ones. Further information can be found at:
