MISSION STATEMENT
"We, the community of St. Gregory Barbarigo, are called forth in Baptism to follow the mission of Jesus to teach, to love, and to serve."

From the Pastor's Desk

I have been meaning to thank you for the way that you have stepped up and contributed, first for the ACA, then for our collection plate. Initially giving was down after COVID-19 limited people's participation in liturgy, but it has rebounded especially since Christmas. I cannot thank you enough. Our employees have been receiving the same salary now for almost two years, so we dearly hope to give them raises. Your generosity, especially in this pandemic situation, will make it possible to give them raises that they dearly deserve. You are truly a blessing! Many, many thanks!

There are certain things which only I can do in Maryville, with the exception of the Newman Chaplain when he is in town. These are to celebrate the sacraments of anointing, reconciliation, and Eucharist. Today on Divine Mercy Sunday, in the gospel the risen Jesus appears to the disciples, breathes on them telling them to receive the Holy Spirit, and then gives them the power to forgive and retain sins. It is a great gift! In fact, every time we pray the Our Father, which should be several times a day, we pray that God will "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who have trespassed against us." At the heart of the ministry of a priest is to reconcile and unite. Oh, there are times when a priest will have to challenge people to live up to the high ideal of the gospel, but for the most part, a priest is walking with you in your difficult times, your times of struggle with living the Christian life, the times when you fall and need encouragement and forgiveness. I want to do that. We also celebrate joyful times – Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation, weddings come to mind – I love those occasions. I will continue to offer confession Monday before the 5:30 PM Mass, Tuesday before the noon Mass, and Saturday before the 5 PM Mass. This Sunday I will be hearing Confessions during Adoration from 3-4pm. I am also willing to hear confessions after those Masses if that is convenient – just ask – or by appointment. If you are having an operation or have become ill, please call the office or notify me so that we can do an Anointing of the Sick, praying for healing. I want to walk with you at these times in your lives.

We are in a time of transition with respect to capacity and protocols for attending Mass. The large crowds at Easter indicate that people are ready to return to the past when you did not have to sign up for Masses, did not have to physically distance, and did not have to wear masks. People are getting vaccinated, getting out, and congregating more normally. I think that the next two weeks will be important in what protocols we will have going forward – if there is a spike in COVID-19 cases, then we will have to take a step back; if the cases remain low, then we will move forward. For now, we are not going to expect people to sign up for Mass. I would ask those who want to distance and be more cautious to sit on the far left as you come in. The rest of the church can sit as comfortably spread out as numbers permit – first with an empty pew between, but as it becomes more crowded to fill those in as well. We still want everyone to wear masks until we see the effects of opening up. So stay tuned!

Let us share the joy of the Resurrection in this Easter Season!

Father Albert, O.S.B.

Weekend Mass Attendance: 641•

Wonderful News!

Now that the diocese and our community have eased restrictions, we can activate several outreach ministries that we had to put on hold last year. We need volunteers to help with these much needed ministries.

One is the prison ministry. Each Wednesday members of this ministry visit the Maryville Treatment Center. Two weeks of each month, there is a Mass said by priests from the Abbey, the other weeks there is a communion service. Volunteers are needed to teach, guide, and encourage inmates in their spiritual growth as well as give resources to inmates. The prison administration trains volunteers so they can follow the prison and Missouri state laws for their protection and safety.

We are also excited to restart the homebound, sick and nursing home ministries. These ministries involve calling and visiting members of our parish who are not able to come to church. We need Eucharistic Ministers to take communion to these parishioners weekly and others who are willing to give time and attention to those who are sick or isolated.

If you have a family member that would benefit from this outreach, please call the office so we can add them to our list. Nursing homes will require permission from family members in order to visit them. So please, tell the nursing home if you would like for ministers from St. Gregory's to visit your loved one.

Ada Mae Wilmes has selflessly served as coordinator of the homebound ministry for many years, she is ready for someone else to take the reins. Thank you Ada Mae for sharing your time and talent with those who need it most!

I will send out Flocknote messages soon asking for volunteers. Please consider serving in these rewarding ministries. There is more information available on our website and feel free to call the office with any questions.

Thank you for sharing your gifts – Chris Kuhlemeyer

Other Information

Catholic Charities recently opened its first Food Pantry, "Lift Up—Kansas City" at our temporary site in St. Catherine of Siena Parish. The Pantry is available to anyone in our diocese and includes an online shopping portal for clients to choose groceries. Our plan is to have mobile outreach deliver food and emergency services across the diocese. We continue to seek capital support in the form of a building, shelving, box trucks, vans & forklifts and also search for a permanent home to serve the southern portion of our diocese and a location in our northern counties. If you have knowledge of or access to any of these items, please let us know. For more information, contact Jessica Gant at 816-882-4781 or to volunteer, contact Linda Hopkins at 659-8205.
