MISSION STATEMENT

"We, the community of St. Gregory Barbarigo, are called forth in Baptism to follow the mission of Jesus to teach, to love, and to serve."

From the Pastor's Desk

I am gone from the parish this week until the evening of May 6. The weekend of May 8-9 is a busy one. There is a blessing of the high school seniors at the 5 PM Mass on Saturday. Since there is no Baccalaureate this year, each church is on its own to do something for the seniors. We will also have a Blessing of the Child in the Womb for those who are pregnant and their families. Please sign up for the Blessing of the Child in the Womb so that we know how many roses to order (call the office). Since this is Mother's Day weekend, we will want to honor the Mothers in the congregation as well. These are the things which make May so hectic, yet so joyful.

At the same, 5 PM Saturday Mass all the men (and many of their wives) who are training to become permanent deacons for the K.C. – St. Joseph diocese will be there for Mass, then for the Baptism after Mass of Mike and Jaime Casteel's new baby, Cate. One of the formation leaders, Deacon Ken Albers, will be functioning as a Deacon at all the Masses. If Mike Casteel and Randy Holtman continue in formation, a little over a year from now they will be ordained and assigned here. If that happens, we would have a Deacon on the altar regularly, which has not happened since Deacons Martin Schieber and Roy Seipel were functioning as Deacons. I welcome the prospect of working with these men. By the way, Deacon Albers plans to be here for all three of the Masses that weekend.

This week's Gospel is about Jesus as the vine, the Father as the vine grower, the disciples as the branches which bear fruit in attracting others to the vine. Those who bear no fruit are cut off and burned; those who bear fruit are pruned so as to become more fruitful. Apart from the vine (Jesus), a branch cannot be fruitful. The key: "Remain in me, as I remain in you." How does that happen? Traditionally there are three ways: 1) immerse yourself in the Word of God, which will challenge you to grow, change, focus on passing on the Word and getting out of the way yourself, a sort of pruning. 2) Keep God's grace (love) flowing through yourself by staying close to the sacraments. Especially after receiving Baptism and Confirmation, Eucharist and Reconciliation are the primary means by which we abide in Christ. Especially the Eucharist, where we receive the fruit of the vine which is turned into the Blood of Christ, are we abiding in Christ and He in us. 3) Avoiding sin is the final way to abide in Christ. Sin kills our relationship with Christ, and our resemblance becomes to that of the branch separated from the vine. Reconciliation is the sacrament which allows us to remove obstacles keeping us from abiding in Christ. St. Augustine presented it as either the vine or the fire (it rhymes in Latin: aut vitis aut ignis). We are here as a Church, as a community, to offer one and all the opportunity to "abide in Christ," i.e. to remain on the vine and bear much fruit. Let us seek to make our parish community a place where all abide in Christ.

It is a privilege to play a role in our remaining in Christ.

Father Albert, O.S.B.

Weekend Mass Attendance: 359

This Easter season I have been trying to focus on recognizing and appreciating the joy in my life. In one of the last sessions of our Best Lent Ever small group on "I Heard God Laugh" we were asked to share a time when we heard God laugh. A time when we felt we were sharing in God's joy. This sweet story was shared in the group: When my niece was a little girl, one evening she asked her mother "What are we having for dinner?" Her mother responded "lasagna". My niece paused and thought for a bit then asked "In the highest?"

This undoubtedly reassured her parents that she was paying some attention in church and has provided joy each time it has been shared. I think all of our parish families experience joy like this,. Let us share these with each other as our parish prayer instructs us. If you have a story of joy to share, email it to me chriskuhlsg@gmail.com and I will put it in the bulletin, anonymously of course. Please take the time to recognize the joy in your life and share it with our community.

Thank you for sharing your gifts. –Chris Kuhlemeyer

Catholic Charities KCSJ will move Out Pace Poverty to the fall this year. We encourage you to save the date and plan to help Outpace Poverty on September 18, 2021 when we host a 5K Walk/Fun Run and Family Festival that benefits our work in addressing poverty. We will be back at Theis Park and there will also be a virtual component. More information and registration will be available in the coming months. Contact Brooke Hilst, Major Gifts Manager, with questions at bhilst@ccharities.com or 816-659-8274.

The Diocese seeks to fill our Associate Director, Catechesis and Faith Formation position. This position provides catechetical and discipleship leader training and mentoring services that equip parishes to evangelize/form parishioners and increase ministerial leadership capacity. The position is fulltime, benefits eligible. Please visit Job Openings at www.kcsjcatholic.org for a complete job description and to apply.

Youth Ministry

Epic News

Wow, what a year! April wraps up our weekly youth group for the school year. We will do monthly social events this summer, so stay tuned!

We Need Your Help!

We have 15 middle schoolers going to Camp Savio this summer! If you are able and willing, we are taking donations to help offset the cost. Any amount is appreciated! Send your check to the St. Gregory's church office and in the memo write 'Camp Savio Kids'.
Thank you for supporting our youth.

Little Saints

Little Saints

Last week, the Little Saints were introduced to Mary and Martha, friends of Jesus. These twin girls did an excellent job writing a play to show us how these two saints lived! Food for thought: are you more like Martha, always working and wanting things to be just right, or like Mary sitting and reflecting at the feet of Jesus?

Many thanks to the parents who helped with our end of year celebration at Little Saints last week! A good time was had by all.

Manna Kitchen Needs Your Help!

Manna Kitchen is looking for volunteers in several areas:

1. Packing meals for delivery.
   - This takes approximately an hour, from 4-5pm, on Mondays.
   - If you can help, contact Janet Smith at 660-582-8232.
2. Back up drivers for meal delivery.
   - This takes about an hour from 4:30-5:30pm, on Mondays.
   - If you are interested, call Les Smith at 816-679-4135.
3. Food Preparation Helpers
   - The volunteers would use the Manna Kitchen budget to buy necessary food items, not their own money.
   - This entails a limited commitment of time, perhaps every couple months.
   - We suggest possibly families and/or friends grouping together.
   - If you can volunteer, call Janice Falcone at 660-541-0431.

Any help would be greatly appreciated! Thank you!
