EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

CATHOLIC BURIAL -Sacred Heart Cemetery, 605-225-7065

Adoration in the Church-Wed. 6-9pm

From the Parochial Vicar

Christ is Risen! He is Risen indeed! Today is the most triumphant day of history, the moment when Christ conquered sin and death and stands victorious. It is because of this day that we can have hope, receive forgiveness, and walk in Christian joy. It is because of this day that we can stand with St. Paul and say: "Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting (1 Cor 15:55)?"

Today is also a day to ask the question: "How is it that I can enter more deeply into the Resurrection of Jesus Christ?" If the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead is the moment where sin and death are defeated, then I should passionately want to dive into that moment and receive everything I can from it.

One way that we enter into the Resurrection of Christ is through the Mass. In the Mass, the passion, death and resurrection is made present, thus the reason why we acclaim: "We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection, until you come again." Every time we go to mass, we encounter this mystery, the mystery that forgives us our sins and raises us to new life.

It is because of this supreme importance of coming to mass that on March 27th, Bishop DeGrood reinstated our Sunday obligation to go to Sunday mass for all Catholics of the Diocese of Sioux Falls. The letter from March 11th reinstating this obligation for all Catholics can be found on the diocesan website at sfcatholic.org. Sometimes serious reasons arise and the obligation to attend Sunday mass doesn't apply to us (for example: illness, care of infants, weather). We can also be dispensed from the Sunday obligation by our local pastor when circumstances won't allow for us to attend mass. If you'd like to know more about what is a serious reason to miss mass or a reason to get dispensed from the Sunday obligation, please reach out to Fr. Andrew or myself.
