Background on the Gospel Reading

This week's Gospel and the one for next week describe how Jesus sent the disciples to minister in his name and the disciples' return to Jesus afterward. These two passages, however, are not presented together in Mark's Gospel. Inserted between the two is the report of Herod's fears that Jesus is John the Baptist back from the dead. In Mark's Gospel, Jesus' ministry is presented in connection with the teaching of John the Baptist. Jesus' public ministry begins after John is arrested. John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus, who preached the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God.

While we do not read these details about John the Baptist in our Gospel this week or next week, our Lectionary sequence stays consistent with Mark's theme. Recall that last week we heard how Jesus was rejected in his hometown of Nazareth. The insertion of the reminder about John the Baptist's ministry and his death at the hands of Herod in Mark's Gospel makes a similar point. Mark reminds his readers about this dangerous context for Jesus' ministry and that of his disciples. Preaching repentance and the Kingdom of God is dangerous business for Jesus and for his disciples. Mark wants his readers to remember that we, too, may find resistance as we choose to be disciples of Jesus.

Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus sent out the Twelve. These twelve were selected from among Jesus' disciples and named by Mark in chapter 3. Mark notes that these twelve are also called "apostles." The word apostle means "one who is sent." The number twelve is also a symbolic number, representing the twelve tribes of Israel. By naming twelve apostles, Jesus shows his mission to be in continuity with the mission of God's people, Israel.

Jesus' instructions to the apostles are very specific. He repeats the mission that they are sent to preach and to share his authority to heal and to drive out demons. Jesus sends them in pairs, establishing his mission as a communal endeavor. Jesus also instructs them to travel lightly, without the customary food, money, and extra set of clothes. These instructions mean that the Twelve will be dependent on the hospitality of others, just as Jesus depended on others to provide for his needs.

Jesus continues to send us into the world as his disciples. But like the first disciples, we are not sent alone. Jesus has given us the community of the Church, which strengthens our life of discipleship. The Christian message can only authentically be proclaimed in and through the community of faith that is the Church. In our work with others, we build this community of faith and can invite others to share in it..

Why do Catholics bless themselves before and after entering Church?

Old Testament Jews washed with water before entering the Temple precincts. Building on a ritual familiar to the Jews, John the Baptist used water to represent repentance of sin and purification.

So when we cross ourselves with holy water entering and leaving the church, we recall that history. But we also refer to our Baptism when the priest used water to symbolize the washing away of our sins and to protect us from evil.

MOST HOLY REDEEMER CRAFT FAIR IS BACK!!

Date: Saturday, November 13, 2021 Time 9:00am—3:00pm
Location: 120 Russell St., Hadley, MA 01035
Cost $30.00 for two 6 foot tables and a donation of an item for our church raffle table, valued at $20.00
We are using a first come, first served basis for the craft fair and have room for approximately 12 Vendors, each with 2 tables.
Please contact us ASAP if you wish to participate. We already have 4 spaces sold.
You may call the church office at 413-584-1326 or email at mhrchurch@yahoo.com and I will send you an application.
We are looking for crafters only, no businesses.

We are going to have a baked goods table, if anyone would like to donate a baked good to sell.

We are also going to have a used book room. If you have books that are in good condition and would like to donate them, please contact me at the office as soon as possible. We will accept children's books, paperbacks and hardcover books. 413-584-1326.

We are very excited to restart this tradition, and look forward to seeing you there!

If you would like to volunteer some time, the day of the craft fair, please call.

We are also going to have a white elephant table. If you have those treasures at home that are clean and in good condition and you want to find a new home for them, please think about donating them.
