LAST CHANCE!

Help us celebrate your senior at seasparish.org/seniors. This Sunday, May 23, is the last day for photo submissions!

JUST MARRIED!

Congratulations to Javier Mancia and Maggie Jacobson, married at SEAS on May 22. May God bless your marriage and the life you will share together!

One of the things you'll learn about me is that, like Fr. Dave, I'm a fan of The Chosen series. I love how it blends the theological imagination of the Scriptures and the historical realities at the time of Jesus. As I'm praying my way through the readings lately, I hear the voices of the disciples in disagreement with each other, then asking the answer of the Master. Sometimes Jesus is pretty straight-forward, "Come and see." Sometimes his answer is a question, "How many loaves do you have?" And every once in a while his silence means, "We'll talk about that later," and something exciting is about to happen.

This week's Pentecost readings marks the end of Eastertide. We've been walking alongside Peter, James, and John, and all the other disciples who have been hanging on Jesus' every word, watching miracles, healing the sick, sidestepping Sadducees and challenging Pharisees. We saw the disciples go two-by-two to teach and preach and heal on their own. We heard Jesus talk of vines and branches, sheep and Shepherds, narrow gates and open hearts, and how to love each other as he has loved us. We watched the unfolding of betrayal, abandonment, cruelty, and certain death. Then we heard the amazing news from Mary Magdalene, and listened incredulously to the men who recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread. He. Is. Risen! Alleluia!

So where do we find our intrepid disciples in today's reading? Rejoicing on the streets? Shouting from the rooftops? Winning folks for the Lord? Nope. Not yet. You see, they still need something else. They need the presence and peace of the Lord, the grace of confession, and the strength of the Holy Spirit to rock their soul and challenge their world. That's what we need too. We need the Spirit to take hold and take charge, so that we can change this world for the better, each in our own way and using our own gifts. That's what a "Director of Evangelization" helps with.

How might that look here? Well, we can chat about that when I arrive. #adventures seasparish.org/laura

A FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION

Since resuming public worship in May 2020, parishes have taken great care to ensure safety protocols are followed by staff, as well as Mass-goers. With the rise in percentage of the population vaccinated, cases are decreasing and we are starting to see the light at the end of the pandemic tunnel. For these reasons and more, Gov. Walz announced in Executive Order 21:21 that social distancing will no longer be mandated indoors beginning Friday, May 28 – meaning that SEAS will open at full capacity at that time. Masks are now optional at SEAS and we stand ready and eager to welcome back the faithful for in-person worship.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

MAY 23, PENTECOST SUNDAY

First Reading: The descent of the Holy Spirit onto the disciples, which marked the beginning of the Church, was a transformative experience for the followers of Jesus. What have been some transformative experiences for you in your faith journey?

Second Reading: Paul speaks to the Galatians about our universal struggle between the Spirit and the flesh. Paul even lists examples of the "works of the flesh" and the "fruits of the Spirit." How would you measure you own success in this spiritual battle?

Gospel: Jesus assured his disciples that his Father would send the "Spirit of truth" to believers offering guidance and divine gifts. Where do you see the Holy Spirit active in your life?

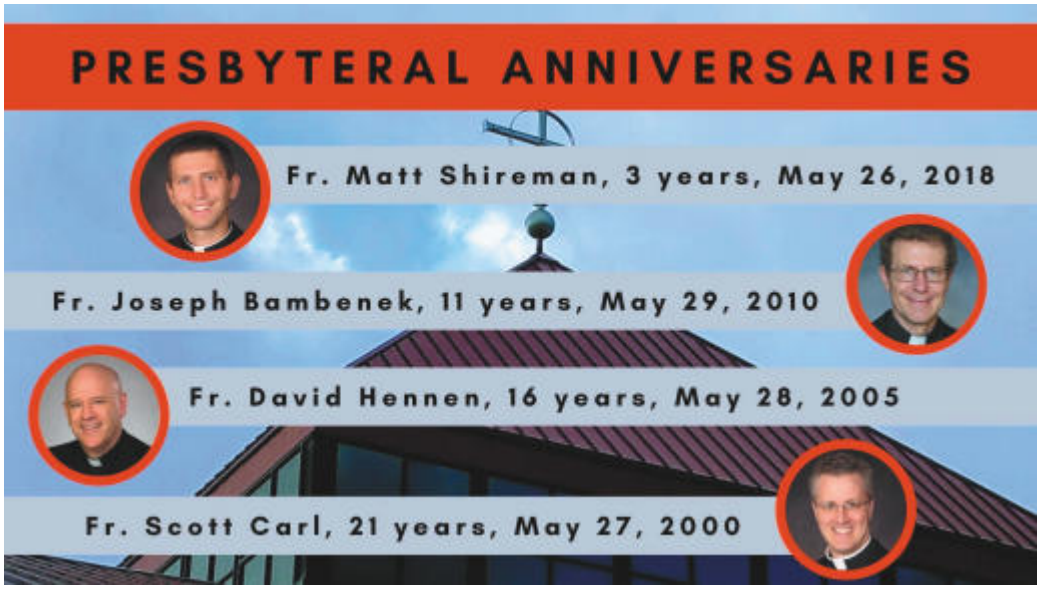
Summer time is prime time for school maintenance and we need some help getting things back in shape at SEAS school!

Summer is the time to catch up on cleaning and maintenance projects that had to be put off during the school year. This work will pay off, as studies indicate that well-maintained facilities have a positive impact on student achievement! On the agenda: floors, windows, painting, and deep-cleaning of surfaces.

This job is perfect for someone looking for a summer job because these tasks have to be completed before classes begin in September.

Please contact Dan Kohler at 651-437-4254 x235 or email dkohler@seasparish.org. Recent high school graduates 18 years of age (and older) are encouraged to apply.



Congratulations to our local, beloved priests on their upcoming presbyteral anniversaries!

A Prayer for Priests:
O Jesus, our great high priest, hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priests. Give them a deep faith, a bright and firm hope, and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of their priestly life. Amen.
