Dear brothers and Sisters,

Today we continue to read from Mark's Gospel, Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. Last Sunday we heard Jesus talking about the challenges that possessions pose to those intending to enter the Kingdom of God. Then He predicts his passion to the Twelve, who are amazed and afraid. Here, Jesus' words seem to be intended to prepare his followers for the events that will occur in Jerusalem.

Now we are ready to see James and John asking to be given seats of honor when Jesus enters his glory. Once again, the disciples seem to be disoriented about what Jesus is trying to tell them. They do not get that Jesus' glory will be preceded by his suffering. So, he tells them that the honor they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear what James and John have asked, they are indignant, and Jesus takes the opportunity to teach them one more time about the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple. In particular, he seems to be preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles in the emerging Christian community.

How often, you and I have, even unconsciously, expected public recognition for some good work or service that we have done? And how have we felt when our expectations have not been fulfilled? Frustrated, sad, or even tempted to give up. As human beings we need to be rewarded and recognized and when we do not get it, then we feel undervalued. Jesus is presenting us the other way around, namely, to work for the sake of the Kingdom out of love, not moved just by a human desire of being recognized. It is not easy, but it is possible. May He give us the strength we need to carry our crosses and follow Him till the end.

May God bless you all.

Desde el escritorio del Pastor

Hermanos y Hermanas,

Queridos amigos: Hoy seguimos leyendo en el Evangelio de Marcos el viaje de Jesús a Jerusalén. El domingo pasado escuchamos a Jesús hablar sobre los desafíos que presentan las posesiones a quienes pretenden entrar al Reino de Dios. Luego predice su pasión a los doce, que están asombrados y asustados. Aquí, las palabras de Jesús tienen la intención de preparar a sus seguidores para los eventos que ocurrirán en Jerusalén.

Con esto en mente, ahora estamos listos para ver a Santiago y Juan pidiendo que se les otorguen asientos de honor cuando Jesús entre en su gloria. Una vez más, los discípulos parecen estar desorientados sobre lo que Jesús está tratando de decirles. No entienden que la gloria de Jesús será precedida por su sufrimiento. Entonces, les dice que el honor que buscan no le toca a él darlo. Cuando los demás escuchan lo que Santiago y Juan han pedido, se indignan y Jesús aprovecha la oportunidad para enseñarles una vez más sobre la importancia del servicio y el sacrificio en la vida de un discípulo.

¿Con qué frecuencia nosotros esperamos, incluso inconscientemente, el reconocimiento público por algún buen trabajo o servicio que hemos realizado? ¿Y cómo nos hemos sentido cuando nuestras expectativas no se han cumplido? Frustrados, tristes o incluso tentados a rendirnos. Como seres humanos necesitamos ser recompensados y reconocidos y cuando no lo conseguimos, nos sentimos infravalorados. Jesús nos motiva a hacer lo contrario: trabajar por su Reino por amor, no movidos sólo por un deseo de ser reconocidos. No es fácil, pero es posible. Que Él nos dé la fuerza que necesitamos para llevar nuestras cruces y seguirlo hasta el final.

¡Que tengan una semana bendecida!
