—MESSAGE FROM FATHER TIM—

Have you been following the news reports over the last week or so about Hurricane Ida? The devastation brought by Ida – though now no longer a hurricane but a tropical storm – has been truly awful. I don't remember a time when our part of the country has had so many "flash flood" warnings.

Ida was the second most intense hurricane to strike the state of Louisiana on record. The most intense was Hurricane Katrina in 2005.

As I write (on September 3) over 1 million homes and businesses in Louisiana have no power. But with many roads impassable and cellphone service out of commission in many places, the true extent of the damage has yet to be determined.

I know that you join me in praying for those who lost their lives in this storm. We pray, as well, for those whose homes and businesses were destroyed.

It sometimes seems that as experience a new disaster we can easily forget the last one. By "the last one" I am referring to the 7.2 magnitude earthquake that struck Haiti on August 14. It was more powerful than the devastating quake that hit that country in 2010. The death toll in last month's earthquake was over 2,000 people. Over 12,000 were injured and nearly 53,000 homes were destroyed. The human suffering is simply terrible!

In the Gospel today, Jesus asks his followers: "Who do others say that I am? And more to the point, who do you say that I am?"

These are important questions for the disciples and for us. It really comes down to the image that you and I have of Jesus. I mean, who is the Jesus that lives in our hearts and souls?

Considering the devastation experienced by those in Haiti and in Louisiana and other states (including devastation that is close to us here in Connecticut), I believe that part of our response could be to say: "Jesus, you are Our Lord. And an important part of following you is to help those in need."

And so, my friends, I would like to encourage you to support Catholic Relief Services, the Red Cross, and other good charitable organizations who are helping those who have suffered so much from this earthquake and hurricane.

The second collection this weekend will go to Catholic Relief Services to help those in Haiti who have been so severely affected by the earthquake. Whatever you can do, please know that I am very grateful. And what you do will make a difference in the lives of those whose own lives have been turned upside-down. It is, my friends, simply a part of being a disciple of our compassionate Lord Jesus.

APPRECIATION RECEPTION FOR MONSIGNOR O'GRADY

An Appreciation Reception will be held for Monsignor O'Grady on Sunday, September 26, 2021 from 1:00 to 4:00 PM at St. Robert Bellarmine Church Hall with light refreshments.

We are looking for pictures within the last 25 years with Msgr. O'Grady. Email the pictures to MaryAnne Danyluk, danyluk@cox.net, or you can call her at (860) 254-5492.

The deadline for pictures is September 20th. MaryAnne will also accept hard copies and digital pictures. The pictures will be returned.

SECOND COLLECTION—NATION OF HAITI

The Archdiocese of Hartford is asking that all parishes take up a second collection to support the nation of Haiti, which experienced a major 7.2-magnitude earthquake on August 14, 2021 that has led to many deaths, injuries and devastation.

Our parish will take up this second collection next weekend, September 11th/12th

PLEASE SUBSCRIBE TO OUR PARISH YOUTUBE ACCOUNT

We have been live streaming our 9:30 Sunday Mass for over a year now. A lot of parishioners enjoy having Mass from St. Mary's Church when they are not able to come to church themselves. But, a recent change in how things work requires us to obtain 1,000 subscribers to continue live-streaming the same way. So, Please help us. We have over 614 subscribers now and need 386 more!

Please go to the Mary, Gate of Heaven website. Partway down the front page, you will see: "Mary, Gate of Heaven Mass will be available every Sunday for live viewing on YouTube." What follows is a link that will take you to the parish's YouTube page. In the upper right-hand corner of the page, you will see "Subscribe." Please activate that link. It will not cost anything. You do not even have to commit to watching our live-streamed Mass. But, you will support us in making a Sunday morning Mass from our church available to every parishioner.

Thank you.

Father Tim
