Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day."

Celebrating Sunday Throughout the Week
Continue to raise awareness of Jesus' presence throughout the week. As you drive to various activities, at mealtime, or at bedtime, take a few minutes to ask and answer, "Where did you witness Jesus present today?" and "In what ways did you give witness to Jesus through your words and actions?" As a family, think about someone who needs to witness Jesus' love and care this week, and decide on a way to give witness of that love and care to the person who comes to mind. For example, call the person, send the person a note of encouragement, fix a meal for that person, or invite him or her over for dinner.

Cemetery News

St. Mary's-St. Joseph's Cemetery and St. Paul's Cemetery have opened for the season. The caretakers are doing Spring Clean-Up at each location, raking, trimming trees and other general clean-up. Note that a dumpster is in place at St. Paul's to place any debris from gravesites. Buckets and dumpster are ready to use at St. Mary's-St. Joseph's. Old Christmas and holiday decorations and any other worn or broken items should be removed by April 30th. Also, please note the following: NO in-ground planting; NO glass of any kind (candles, lights, etc.). The Cemetery Board requests your cooperation so that mowing and trimming can take place safely and without obstruction. Please refrain from placing alcoholic cans/bottles and related alcoholic materials as well as tobacco items on gravesites. This is prohibited. Please do not over-decorate gravesites or put items around the monuments as this causes a problem when mowing and trimming (safety). Please note that to keep the cemetery safe and beautiful, the caretakers, at their discretion, will dispose of items that do not meet the cemetery rules/ criteria. The Cemetery Board thanks you for your cooperation and assistance in keeping our cemeteries beautiful, safe and peaceful. Please contact the office for a copy of the Cemetery Rules if you have any questions.
