CATHOLIC APPEAL REOPENED

CONGRATULATIONS to all three parishes of the Blue Hills Catholic Collaborative for all that they have given to Catholic Appeal in this very difficult financial climate. This past week many of you may have received a letter asking your support of the 2021 Catholic Appeal. Over the last year, we have witnessed just how important Central Ministries are in supporting not just our parish, but all parishes and schools within our Archdiocese. As we move forward through this pandemic, we are so grateful to have a team of experts that help us ensure your safety. Every gift makes a difference. Please consider making your gift today by visiting bostoncatholicappeal.org or by scanning the QR code above. Your gift has an immediate impact on our parish and the work of our Church. Thank you for your generosity. . Please consider making your gift today by visiting bostoncatholicappeal.org . Thank you for your generosity.

We are in need of Lectors and other Liturgical ministers at each parish. If you can help please contact Anna Cote @ 857-342-9500 ext. 15 or Acote@bluehillscollaborative.org

PRAY for Vocations to the priesthood and the Religious life..

Starting at the beginning of the Liturgical Year (Start of Advent) we would like to have weekly Adoration of the Eucharist for an increase in vocations. We need volunteers who would be willing to commit to spending time with Jesus. The Holy Eucharist can not be left exposed with no one present. We will pick a date that is convenient for the most people. Please atch for further details.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION:

Pope Francis encourages those unable to attend Church during the COVID-19 pandemic to pray for spiritual communion, "a practice that is highly recommended when it is not possible to receive the sacrament" Archbishops and bishops in the U.S. join the pope in inviting the faithful to this practice.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Eucharist, I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I can not at this moment receive you sacramentally , come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.

Influencing the World

Everyone has influence over someone. If we are striving to be great saints, then the people we influence will observe how we live and model themselves after us. Fr. Mike Schmitz encourages us to take St. Paul's advice and imitate Christ, and in the process, we will inspire others to live holy lives. This is the most effective way to influence the world in a positive way.

BOOK OF THE MONTH

Each month we will select a book which we feel you will enjoy reading. We will publish the name of the book and a short description about the book and author. The book is FREE and you can pick it up at the Collaborative Center at 20 Como Road, Hyde Park. You are welcome to keep the book and share it with others. This month is "A Letter to a Suffering Church" by Bishop Robert Barron

"Should some rich and powerful friend enter your home, you would make haste to clean the whole house, lest there be anything to displease the eye of the one who is coming. Let you, then, cleanse the stains of evil-doing from the house of your soul, in preparation for the coming of God."

- Pope Saint Gregory I the Great

OKTOBERFEST

NOVEMBER 6TH

Details to follow

September 5 ~ Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's first reading from Isaiah, we hear: "Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God…He comes to save us." As Disciples of Christ, it is our task to express this message to family, friends and co-workers. Impressed by the action of Jesus, the crowd in today's gospel could not keep what they saw to themselves. They proclaimed the wonderful deeds Jesus had done. Can the same be said of us – that we want to share how Jesus has worked in our lives? Pray for courage to tell someone how Jesus has strengthened and saved you. Your words and gestures of care and compassion may be the reassurance that person needs to turn to Jesus for help.

SEPTEMBER - BOOK OF THE MONTH:

Letter to a Suffering Church

(A Bishop Speaks on the sexual Abuse Crisis)

The sexual abuse scandal has gripped the Catholic Church for the past thirty years, and continues to wreak havoc even today. It's been a diabolical masterpiece, one that has compromised the work of the Church in every way and has left countless lives in ruin. Many Catholics are understandably asking " Why should I stay? Why not abandon this sinking ship before it drags me or my children under?".

AUTHOR: Bishop Robert Baron is the founder of Word on Fire Catholic Ministries and Auxiliary Bishop for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

September 5—Week 1 (Preface & Chapter One)

* How does the Devil work to draw us into cooperating with him?
* What is required of us for the Devil to succeed?
* Bishop Barron believes the abuse scandal is a diabolical masterpiece." Do you agree or disagree?

PRAYER: Lord Jesus Christ, through your Incarnation you accepted a human nature and lived a real, human life. Setting aside the glory of your divinity, you met us face to face in the vulnerability of our humanity.. Grant we pray for healing for all victims of sexual abuse. Amen
