In Loving Memory

We extend our heartfelt prayers and condolences to the family and friends of Amanda Roussel who passed away recently. May she rest in peace!

From the Pastor

Love is very often described as a feeling or emotion. When one is strongly attracted to someone or something, they "love it." But is this really love? Is this love in the truest sense? Love certainly will have an emotional element to it, but it will not be based on emotions or feelings.

So what is love? Love, as Jesus identifies in the Gospel, is a choice to "lay down one's life for one's friends." (John 15:13). Love is "the complete giving of oneself for the good of another." We see the most perfect example of love in the person of Jesus Christ who gave everything, even His life for us on the Cross.

Laying down our lives indicates a number of things. First, it shows that the nature of love is a total gift of self. Laying down your life cannot be done in parts. Either your life is laid down or not. This reveals that love, in order for it to be love in the truest sense, is a total commitment of 100% of your life.

Love is also sacrificial. Laying down your life clearly shows that love requires a sort of death to self. It requires we look to the other first, putting their needs before ours. This requires true sacrifice and selflessness.

We lay down our lives for others in so many ways. Some small, some big. Most importantly, we must foster an attitude of deep concern for the good of every person. When we turn our eyes and hearts toward others, we will begin to discover countless ways to lay our lives down for them. Small acts of kindness, words of affirmation, a listening ear, help with a chore, etc. are a few of the small ways we give of ourselves every day. Greater acts may include a heroic forgiveness, love when we do not feel like being loving, giving mercy when it appears undeserved, and going out of our way to be there for a person when we do not have time in our busy schedule.

The bottom line is that giving of ourselves until it hurts, turns any small or large sacrifice we give into a blessing for them and a glorious reward for us. Living a sacrificial life is fulfilling on many levels and is ultimately what we are made for. Do not hesitate to commit yourself to this depth of love. By giving yourself completely away, you find yourself and discover the presence of our Divine Lord. God bless each one of you, especially our Mothers, this week!

Reverend Christopher Monturo

Thursday, May 13th is the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord.

We will celebrate Mass at 8:30AM and 12:10PM in Sacred Heart Church.

CHOIR

Soon we will be resuming our Adult Choir and beginning our Children's Choir. Any members of the parish who have been part of our Adult Choir over the years or who would be interested in joining the choir are asked to please contact Dr. Sándor Szabó at the Parish Office as soon as possible so he can be in touch with you to let you know about an important meeting that will be scheduled soon and also to begin to plan for the Installation of Father Chris on June 10th.

Any children, grades 1-12 who would like to join our Children's Choir are also asked to contact Dr. Szabó at the Parish Office. He will be in touch with you in the near future as we commence this exciting new addition to our Music Ministry.

Young people or adults who play musical instruments are encouraged to speak with Dr. Szabó about the possibility of adding your musical abilities at Mass. Additionally, anyone interested in participating in our handbell choir should let Sándor know as well.

May the blessing of the Divine
Be an especially bright benediction
