GOSPEL MEDITATION

October 17, 2021
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It's an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today's Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God's attention. That's not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

What we need from God is a relationship. It's a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God's kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God's Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words "thy will be done" will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God's eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God's definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflections - October 17, 2021

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." (MARK 10:45)

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share". This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

St. Joseph Food Pantry report

Thank you to:
a monthly $100.00 for August and September each
$50.00. $20.00. $40.00
$100.00 in honor of Jim and Doreen Choquette's
51st wedding anniversary
$100.00 from a friend
$100.00 in memory of Ronald Blain

Thanksgiving and Christmas are in our sights especially at the Food Pantry. We have begun purchasing items we will need for the boxes. We have ordered 65 turkeys. We need 120. We count on the drives from the State Police and other organizations and the generosity of the parishioners to make up the rest. God always sends us an abundance. We thank Him and you for your kindness. Also again this year, for those of you who love to help us procure what we need, here is the list of things we provide in the boxes. Besides the 50 boxes for each holiday we prepare for TEEG, we also provide for 10 families we serve in our own Pantry.

Turkey Stuffing 5lb. bag of potatoes 1lb. butter
Cranberry sauce 6-8 cans vegetables. Lg can of fruit Gravy
1/2 gal juice Bunch carrots Squash. Onions.
Candy Cookies Jello Pie crust and filling Desserts

If you bring produce please wait until one or two weeks before Thanksgiving or Christmas. Those items don't hold up well even refrigerated. We have limited refrigeration. Lots of freezers, though. If we have an abundance of any one thing, we add that to the boxes as well. Lots of these items can be purchased at Aldis, Walmart or Dollar Store. Table Talk donates over 200 individual fruit pies. One couple brings cookies for the kids. So whatever you feel you want to do we will be grateful. We usually box the Friday or Monday before Thanksgiving or Christmas. I will get an actual date and let you know in a further report. God bless you all. This is an act of love for our fellow neighbors. "Whatever you do to the least of these, you do unto Me" saith the Lord. Also know that we at the Food Pantry are praying for you. If you have questions regarding donations or are in need of food, you can contact the Food Pantry, located in the ministry building next to St. Joseph church at 860-923-9470 - Monday Wednesday and Friday.
