Gospel Meditation

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

When we see God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, it is only then that we will be able to cry out, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me!" We have to truly want to be healed by, and in union with, God in order for us to reach out to him. If God is only an abstract idea, theory, or someone found in the pages of a book, there is no motivation for a relationship and no desire to seek him. God needs to be real in order for faith to be real. It's all about the journey.

St. Augustine reminds us that "to fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement." We strive after many things and mercy is not always one of them. We think that we can find fulfillment and healing in other things only to discover that we are still short and empty. From the moment human beings were created, God has been calling us and seeking us. He has been walking right beside the human story from the minute He first breathed life into the first human soul. Are we able to recognize God as He walks with us? At some point we have to realize that there is only one way to satisfy the deepest longings of the human heart and that is in relationship with our Creator. We are called to this. However, we make the huge error of thinking that what we are hearing is coming from somewhere else. We become confused. Every human being would certainly profit with wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong.

Then and only then will we realize that it is only our Divine Master who can give us true vision and heal us. Once we recognize and reach out for the merciful presence of our loving Maker, we will be able to see with our soul, understanding the true nature and depth of all things. God's mercy is always available. It doesn't matter how far we have strayed or how blind we become, God patiently waits to console us, guide us and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him. Once we reach out, we also realize that there is no greater love to be found than God's, no human adventure that comes even close to the thrill of a spiritual search, and no human achievement even remotely as satisfying as union with Him. This is where we belong. This is salvation. ©LPi

Catholic Appeal

The Catholic appeal funds crucial ministries in our diocese. Because of your generosity over the past year, ministries across Maine have continued to thrive—from five-day, in-person education in our schools to in-person and virtual faith formation. In addition, ministries focused on service, from hospital ministries to food security programs, become more vital than ever, and as the needs increased, so did the outreach. In the coming year, these ministries will continue to engage the faithful and serve those most in need. Your support in 2021 is critical to ensuring that th ministries are able to accomplish our mission and bring Maine together in Christ!

To date 458 Corpus Christi parishioners have donated or pledged $143,613 toward our goal of $155,754. Thank you so much for your generosity!

If you have not yet made a pledge, please prayerfully consider supporting the Appeal by making a donation online at https://portlanddiocese.org/give or by filling out an envelope available at church.

Annulment Presentation and Discussion Tuesday, November 16

The Diocesan Tribunal will lead a presentation and discussion on the annulment process in the Catholic Church on Tues., Nov. 16 at 6:30PM. The information session will be held at Saint Augustine Parish Hall (24 Washington St., Augusta). The presentation will cover the steps of the process, grounds for marriage nullity, and related practicalities. There will be a question and answer period and an opportunity to speak privately to a canonist. All are welcome. The Office of the Tribunal is part of the Department of Canonical Services in the Diocese of Portland and handles cases and trials that are subject to the canon law of the Catholic Church. Among the responsibilities of the Tribunal staff is examining petitions for marriage nullity/dissolution. The Tribunal always works to process the requests it receives for a declaration of nullity in a just, compassionate, and expedient manner. If you should have any questions about the gathering on Nov. 16 or if you need assistance, please contact the Tribunal at (207) 773-6471 or tribunal@portlanddiocese.org.
