Pastoral Notes by Debbie Zane

It's been 2 ½ years since I joined the Catholic Community of Central Fall River as the Pastoral Associate, and it's been a beautiful and challenging experience. I met the pastoral team at Fr. Tom's installation as Rector and Pastor of the collaborative, and that began a whirlwind of dreaming, planning and working with an incredible group of staff members and parishioners that, in spite of a global pandemic, are still going strong.

Many people see me in one of my roles: baptism preparation, funeral planning and bereavement support, retreats, lectoring, distributing meals at Grab and Go, presenting at Whole Community Catechesis, on a short Flocknote video, giving a reflection, coordinating the RCIA program for adults, as a spiritual director… it's rare that parishioners see me apart from my specific role at the moment.

So it was refreshing and funny to have Mary Anne ask me one day (while we were filling bags at Grab and Go distribution) "What the heck is a Pastoral Associate, anyway?" Now Mary Anne is a wonderful example of "missionary discipleship" - she serves our community in numerous ways with devotion to Jesus and this community (and we're friends) - so I knew she wasn't being fresh. It's a legitimate question!

In our modern Church history, this is a relatively "new" role. I certainly never heard of it when I was growing up. There were priests, nuns, deacons, altar boys (yes - only boys then)... but no pastoral associates. So Fr. Tom has asked me to clear up the confusion. This is good timing! We're getting an ECHO apprentice from the University of Notre Dame (Madeleine Vuyk) in August. She is beginning her graduate studies there and will ultimately become a pastoral minister. I'll be mentoring her - so there will be two of us running around!

In its essentials, a pastoral associate is a non-ordained professional lay ecclesial minister who shares with the pastor and other ordained ministers the overall pastoral (spiritual) care of the parish community. That means caring for community members through all phases of life - birth, personal milestones, grief, marriage, job loss, illness, death. I am privileged and blessed by the conversations I've had.

The "professional" aspect refers to the training required for this role. In addition to being a practicing Catholic, a Master's degree in Divinity or Pastoral Ministry is necessary. "Ecclesial" points to work we do in helping to plan or participate in liturgical celebrations (prayer services, sacramental celebrations, special Masses, etc.). Courses in Theology, Christology, Ecclesiology, Sacraments and Liturgy, Biblical studies, Catholic Social Teaching, Pastoral Care, etc. are part of the graduate work we do to prepare for this position.

In my case, I also completed a three-year post graduate certification in spiritual direction (sometimes known as spiritual accompaniment). This is a grace-filled relationship that includes me, the person I meet with (who seeks to discover where God is active in their daily lives) and most importantly, the Holy Spirit - who really does the 'directing'! I will write more about that in the future.

While the role is wide-ranging, the pastor usually determines, along with the associate, the specific areas of concern for any given parish, but what is always part of the role is communion. What I mean is this: we foster unity and collaboration between the members of ministries and the community at large. It is always about building and maintaining relationships, the most important relationship being with Jesus.

None of what I learned in school means anything without a deep love of Jesus Christ, which then 'spills out' into the community I serve. As St. Paul reminds me, without love I am merely a "resounding gong or a clashing cymbal"! I truly love this community, and I'm looking forward to the full re-opening of post-pandemic parish life. There are a lot of exciting things on the horizon!

Blessings,

Debbie

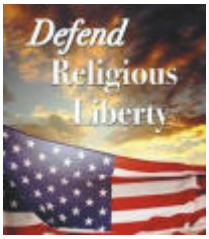
RESPECT LIFE NEWS



Before religious liberty is a political or legal issue, it is first and foremost a matter of innate human dignity – for our religious freedom inheres not on the parchments where laws are written; rather, it is indelibly engraved on the human heart. When we encounter the Risen Lord, no matter how incredulous we have been, no matter how resistant to the Gospel, when we encounter the Lord—this beautiful gift of religious freedom comes alive. It is entangled in the DNA of a response of faith and love to the Lord, to the Church, and to the mission which the Lord has mapped out for each and every one of us. Without truth there is no freedom. Without freedom, there is no love. ~USCCB, Fortnight for Freedom Closing Homily, 2017

Respect Life Prayer Intention

For our nation and our civic leaders; may they respect the right to live out our Faith and support laws and policies that protect human life from conception to natural death.

Our Speaker Series will take place at St. Mary's Cathedral beginning at 6 p.m. with Holy Mass with an extended homily on the topic, followed by a cookout on the lawn. YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH PRAYER

By Pope Francis

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.
