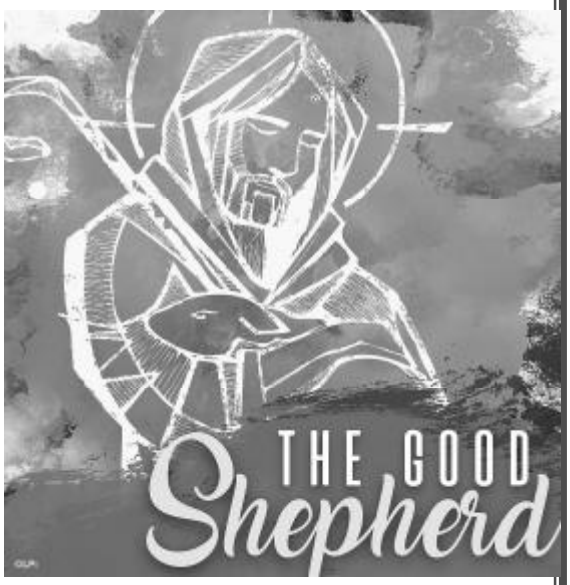
FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 25, 2021

Dear Holy Name-St. Gregory the Great Family,



There are some weekends in the life of a priest that are simultaneously beautiful and exhausting. Last week I had one of those. On Saturday I was in Maryland presiding at the wedding of a young woman who I have had the privilege of being the spiritual director for over the last five years. Before the Mass myself and the priest that I was with went to pray with the bride and groom individually. In talking with the groom he said that the thing he loved most about his wife is that she wants to be a saint and he wants to be a better man and better husband for her. During the exchange of vows the intentionality and seriousness with which he said his vows was inspiring. A beautiful Catholic couple beginning their life together in love with each other, Jesus and the Church. What a gift to be with them.

Then on Sunday back here at Holy Name-St. Gregory the Great I had the honor of baptizing two little children. The parents bringing their little ones to the font of baptism were giving them the greatest gift possible, eternal life, entering the family of God. It is always a great blessing for me to be able to preside at a baptism and be the minister who imparts that gift of new life and sanctifying grace to God's beloved children.

We hear sometimes about the loss of faith among young people and while this is a serious issue and one we should not overlook, it is good to be reminded of the fact that there are young adults who love their faith and take it seriously. They are an inspiration to me and a sure sign of the hope we can have that the Church, no matter the challenges we face, will continue to be present in our world as a sign of God's grace and love.

Fr. Chris Argano

IV DOMINGO DE PASCUA
25 DE ABRIL DE 2021

VA CON NOSOTROS

El símbolo de Jesús como pastor bueno produce hoy en algunos cristianos cierto fastidio. No queremos ser tratados como ovejas de un rebaño. No necesitamos a nadie que gobierne y controle nuestra vida. Queremos ser respetados. No necesitamos de ningún pastor.

No sentían así los primeros cristianos. La figura de Jesús buen pastor se convirtió muy pronto en la imagen más querida de Jesús. Ya en las catacumbas de Roma se le representa cargando sobre sus hombros a la oveja perdida. Nadie está pensando en Jesús como un pastor autoritario dedicado a vigilar y controlar a sus seguidores, sino como un pastor bueno que cuida de ellas.

El "pastor bueno" se preocupa de sus ovejas. Es su primer rasgo. No las abandona nunca. No las olvida. Vive pendiente de ellas. Está siempre atento a las más débiles o enfermas. No es como el pastor mercenario que, cuando ve algún peligro, huye para salvar su vida abandonando al rebaño. No le importan las ovejas.

Jesús había dejado un recuerdo imborrable. Los relatos evangélicos lo describen preocupado por los enfermos, los marginados, los pequeños, los más indefensos y olvidados, los más perdidos. No parece preocuparse de sí mismo. Siempre se le ve pensando en los demás. Le importan sobre todo los más desvalidos.

Pero hay algo más. "El pastor bueno da la vida por sus ovejas". Es el segundo rasgo. Hasta cinco veces repite el evangelio de Juan este lenguaje. El amor de Jesús a la gente no tiene límites. Ama a los demás más que a sí mismo. Ama a todos con amor de buen pastor que no huye ante el peligro sino que da su vida por salvar al rebaño.

Por eso, la imagen de Jesús, "pastor bueno", se convirtió muy pronto en un mensaje de consuelo y confianza para sus seguidores. Los cristianos aprendieron a dirigirse a Jesús con palabras tomadas del salmo 22: "El Señor es mi pastor, nada me falta... aunque camine por cañadas oscuras, nada temo, porque tú vas conmigo... Tu bondad y tu misericordia me acompañan todos los días de mi vida".

Los cristianos vivimos con frecuencia una relación bastante pobre con Jesús. Necesitamos conocer una experiencia más viva y entrañable. No creemos que él cuida de nosotros. Se nos olvida que podemos acudir a él cuando nos sentimos cansados y sin fuerzas o perdidos y desorientados.

Una Iglesia formada por cristianos que se relacionan con un Jesús mal conocido, confesado solo de manera doctrinal, un Jesús lejano cuya voz no se escucha bien en las comunidades..., corre el riesgo de olvidar a su Pastor. Pero, ¿quién cuidará a la Iglesia si no es su Pastor?

Fr. D'Angelo Jiménez. Biblio: A Pagola

DIMANCHE 25 AVRIL 2021

4e dimanche de Pâques

MESSAGE DE PERE CHRIS

Il arrive, dans la vie d'un prêtre, que certaines fin de semaine soient aussi agréables que fatigantes. La semaine dernière en est un exemple. Samedi j'étais dans le Maryland ou je co-participais à la célébration du mariage d'une jeune femme dont j'ai eu le privilege d'etre le conseiller spirituel pendant plus de cinq ans. Avant la Messe, avec le prêtre que je secondais, nous sommes allés prier avec les futurs mariés séparément. Le futur mari nous dit que ce qu'il aime le plus chez sa future est qu'elle veut être une sainte et que lui il veut être une meilleure personne et un parfait époux. Au moment de l'échange de vœux sa détermination et son sérieux étaient saisissants. Un beau couple Catholique commençait leur vie ensemble amoureux, amoureux de Jésus et de l'Eglise. Quel beau cadeau pour moi d'avoir été présent !

Dimanche j'étais de retour ici à Holy Name-St. Gregory the Great, j'avais l'honneur de baptiser deux petits enfants. Les parents amenant leurs petits aux fonds baptismaux leur donnaient le plus beau cadeau possible : la vie éternelle, l'entrée dans la famille de Dieu. C'est toujours pour moi une grande bénédiction de célébrer un baptême et d'être le prêtre qui transmet ce cadeau d'une nouvelle vie et de grâce sanctifiée aux enfants adorés de Dieu.

Il arrive que nous entendions parler de manque de foi chez les jeunes, mais bien que ce soit un problème sérieux, que nous ne devons pas ignorer, il est bon de nous rappeler qu'il y a aussi de jeunes adultes qui aiment leur foi et le font sérieusement. Pour moi ils sont une inspiration et un message certain que l'Eglise, quels que soient les obstacles que nous confrontons, sera toujours présente dans notre monde comme un témoignage de la grace et l'amour de Dieu.
