Who was Baptized at
St. Paul's

OCTOBER 17, 2021:
"Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized . . . ?
" . . . whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all." Mark 10: 35-45

In today's Gospel, Jesus challenges us to embrace a greater vision of our world and our place in it. The earth does not exist to serve us; others were not created by God to do our bidding or fill our needs. Understanding that we are all of the same substance, that we are trustees of the world and responsible for the good of one another, is the core of humility that Jesus calls his followers to embrace. The word "humility" comes from the same root as the word "humus" — "of the earth." Humility recognizes that we are all "of the earth," that we are all equal before God. Authentic faith is centered in such humility: humility that begins with valuing life as a gift from God, a gift we have received only through God's mysterious love, not through anything we have done to deserve it.
To follow Jesus is to put ourselves in the humble, demanding role of servant to others, to intentionally seek the happiness and fulfillment of those we love regardless of the cost to ourselves.

What, then, is a Synod? There are many ways to define the word. Literally, it means "journeying together." The Vademecum, which is the official handbook for preparation for the Synod, states: "While the Synod of Bishops has taken place up until now as a gathering of Bishops with and under the authority of the Pope, the Church increasingly realizes that synodality is the path for the entire People of God.
Hence the Synodal Process is no longer only an assembly of Bishops, but a journey for all the faithful, in which every local Church has an integral part to play" (Vademecum, #1.3).
The journey begins now. On Sunday, Oct. 10, the Holy Father will celebrate a liturgy in Rome opening the General Assembly of the World Synod of Bishops. On the following Sunday, Oct. 17, Bishop Lucia will celebrate a liturgy at 5:10 p.m. at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Syracuse, opening our Diocesan Synod.
As a first step, throughout the fall, winter and early spring, listening sessions will be held throughout the Diocese, inviting all the People of God in the Diocese of Syracuse to engage in the synodal process. The results of this diocesan consultation will be shared with the Bishops of the United States and become part of their preparation for the World Synod of Bishops.

Prayer for the Synod
We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen. Second Vatican Council Prayer

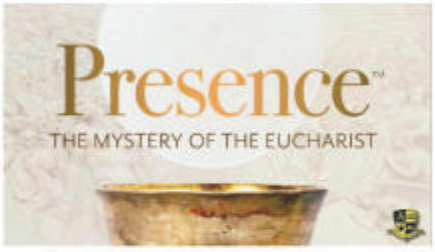
The Mystery of the Eucharist



This is a 6 week self-study That you can find on Formed.org

Although the Eucharist appears to be simple bread and wine, it is actually the "source and summit" of the Christian life Presence. The Mystery of the Eucharist explores the truth and beauty of Christ's real presence in the Eucharist, from its origins in Sacred Scripture, to its profound role in the life of Church and her members. It is the crescendo of the entire story of salvation.

Word of the Week: Synod The English word "synod" comes from two Greek words, syn hodos, which literally mean "a way together." The Church of God in the world is embarking on a synod or journey in which will share a path or process along which the People of God all walk together, abiding in the presence of Jesus Christ and allowing the Holy Spirit to guide us. The next several weeks, we will explore how YOU will be part of the synod as the first phase begins in the Diocese of Syracuse on October 17.
