CONSIDER THIS!

Life's Sanctity

The position of the Catholic Church against capital punishment has caused soul-searching among many of the faithful (CCC 2267). Especially in the United States, where the culture promotes punishment for wrongdoing and vengeance against aggressors, many have found it difficult to reconcile the position of the Catholic Church with their own. For many, the most convincing arguments against capital punishment are not those that the Church puts forward. Some people say there should not be capital punishment because judges and juries make mistakes. Additional evidence might come to light. Others say there should be no capital punishment because it is expensive to keep prisoners on death row for long periods of time while costly litigation continues without ceasing.

But the Catholic Church believes in the sanctity of human life. Even a prisoner on death row, because he or she is human, deserves the respect owed to any human being as a child of God. In the First Book of Samuel, David had the opportunity to kill his enemy, King Saul, and assume the throne. He discovered Saul asleep, his spear nearby, and all the soldiers slumbering. All David had to do was pick up the spear and thrust it into the king. He could not do it. "Who can lay hands on the LORD's anointed and remain unpunished?" he wondered. David slew plenty of other enemies, but in one brief moment he glimpsed the truth about human life: It belongs to God.Written by Paul Turner. Copyright © 2009, Resource Publications, Inc.

ADULT FORMATION

Invitation to adult formation: One way to observe the Year of Jubilee could be joining one of our faith sharing groups. Many have been meeting to strengthen their faith practices of prayer, learning the Bible and service. As we prepare for Lent, which begins on Ash Wednesday, March 5th, how will you spiritually journey during that time? Why not commit to deepening your hope in our Lord by gathering with others to hear God's Word, pray and reflect on what God is saying to you? We have two small Christian "communities", faith sharing groups, which meet weekly. Perhaps you would like to join one? We meet in Room # 1
Mondays, 11:00 AM - Bible Study of the Book of Acts (small fee of $5 for handouts)
Thursdays, 9:30am - Bible Study of the Book of Sirach* (see description below)
 The Book of Sirach? Have you ever noticed a reading from the Book of Sirach? This Book in our Catholic Bibles is similar to the Book of Proverbs. It is a profound and encouraging book with teachings on wisdom, creation, fear of the Lord, social justice and more. Book cost: $15

WE NEED GOOD NEWS! If you have had a "God moment" in your life: a healing, a return to the Church, a conversion experience, a reconciliation or a moment that God has "broken through" in your life, you are invited to write it down or email it to rmd.word@gmail.com or drop it off at the Rectory. We need to hear testimonies of how Jesus is present in our lives with works, wonders, and, yes, even miracles. We hope to have a gathering where we can share stories of faith to uplift one another and pray for our parish community.

Youth Corner

In Luke 6:27-38, Jesus gives us a tough challenge: "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you." It's not easy to be kind to people who aren't nice to us, but Jesus shows us a different way—a way of love, mercy, and forgiveness.
This week, think about someone who's been unkind or difficult. How can you show them love, even in a small way? When we respond with kindness, we reflect God's mercy and make the world a little brighter.

This Sunday, Feb. 23rd, 12:00-2:00pm (cafeteria)
Tickets* sold at the door: $8 per person; $20 per family
Catered food, pizza, games, raffles, 50/50, and BINGO…for all ages.
 Part of proceeds will be donated to our parish food outreach.*

Over the past few years the number of emergency calls for fires, accidents and health issues has skyrocketed. In addition to this the number of VOLUNTEER fire department members as declined. The Grotto of St. John's

A Local Connection to Lourdes.

In the 1940s, members of the local Knights of Columbus Council #928, which serves both St. John's and St. Isidore's parishes, attended an annual retreat in Malverne, Pennsylvania. There, they were so moved by a replica of the Lourdes Grotto on the retreat grounds that they returned to Riverhead with a vision—to create a similar grotto at St. John's Church. They approached the pastor at the time, Monsignor Adam Pfundstein, with this request, and he readily agreed, recognizing the opportunity to deepen the parish's devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. A call went out to parishioners skilled in various trades, including masonry, metalworking, and plumbing, to donate their time and talent to the project. Over several years, a dedicated group of about a dozen men, working primarily on summer evenings and Saturdays, constructed the grotto on the grounds behind the original St. John's Church, which had been built in 1870. The materials for the grotto, including the stones, were even sourced from a farm in Connecticut.

Restoring the Grotto to Its Former Glory

Over the decades, however, the passage of time and the elements began to take a toll on the grotto. The stones and statues fell into disrepair, and plant overgrowth obscured its beauty. In 2023, Grand Knight Bob Fisher of the Knights of Columbus Council 928 took it upon himself to lead a new effort to restore the grotto. With the help of several dedicated individuals, the project was undertaken to bring the grotto back to its original splendor. After several months of work, the grotto has been carefully refurbished. The stones have been repointed and re-grouted to match the original color, overgrown plants and vines were removed and the statues of the Blessed Virgin and St. Bernadette were cleaned and restored. New kneelers and votive candles have been added, and the bench in front of the grotto has been repainted. The site is once again a peaceful, beautiful place for prayer and contemplation. It is the hope of all involved that this renewed grotto will continue to serve as a center of Marian devotion for St. John's parishioners and all who visit, providing a place to seek healing, comfort, and a deeper connection to Our Lady of Lourdes for many years to come. We invite you to visit the grotto, spend some time in prayer, and experience the peace and grace that this sacred space offers. May it continue to be a reminder of the love of the Blessed Mother, who calls us all to faith, prayer, and healing.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal 2025

This year the Diocese will be starting the CMA in Lent as a way to join the concept of Alms' giving and fasting to the sacrificial giving towards the Ministry Appeal. Personally I don't like, nor have I ever done fundraising during Lent; therefore we will begin the appeal here before the diocese begins. It may mean we won't get letters mailed to our homes until late February or early March. I am asking you to start thinking about the appeal now and in a few weeks we will launch the appeal in the parish.

1. Catholic Charities: Thousands of people are assisted each year with counseling, rent, heat, and other necessities of life through programs coordinated by Catholic Charities.

2. The Immaculate Conception Seminary is a center for prayer and learning for the entire diocese. There are many education and ministry training programs too.

3. Residences for the developmentally disabled are provided, along with their professional staffing.

4. Chaplains (priests, religious and laity) provide quality pastoral care in our Catholic and community hospitals. They also bring the ministry of Christ to those who are incarcerated and their families.

5. Ministries for minorities, like Hispanic & Haitian Apostolates, Ministry among our youth (scouting and youth ministry), and the Respect Life Ministry (like the Regina Residence which provides housing and support for unwed mothers who choose life for their child).

6. Diocesan primary grade school and high schools provide a quality "Catholic' education" and have consistently been a major source of vocations to Priesthood and Religious life.

* Our Parish will receive a rebate once we have reached our goal and all pledges are received. This helps us with repairs and upkeep of our buildings.

Our goal has gone up a bit due to your great generosity over the past few years in going beyond our goal.

Will you consider making a pledge, maybe even for the first time this year? We ask that you send your pledge directly to the diocesan CMA Office. If you do not receive a letter, via the diocesan office in February/March, you may consider contacting our office to see if we have you on our mailing list. You may also use the form on this page and place it in the collection basket or mail it to the diocesan office.
