Blessed in Christ

Dear community, this Sunday, let us remember that even when we face criticism or challenges for our faith, we are never alone. Jesus calls us blessed and reminds us that His love gives us strength, courage, and lasting hope.

Let us walk together in faith, respond with love, and shine Christ's light wherever we go. Stand firm, rejoice, and let your faith be a blessing to others!

Bendecidos en Cristo

Querida comunidad, este domingo recordemos que, aun cuando enfrentemos críticas o dificultades por nuestra fe, nunca estamos solos. Jesús nos llama bienaventurados y nos recuerda que Su amor nos da fuerza, valentía y esperanza eterna.

Caminemos unidos en la fe, respondamos con amor y llevemos la luz de Cristo dondequiera que vayamos. ¡Permanezcamos firmes, alegrémonos y seamos una bendición para los demás!

PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

ORACIÓN POR LOS DIFUNTOS

It may seem strange to pray for someone who is already dead and who, according to our earthly reckoning of time, has already undergone judgment. But God is not subject to the constrictions of time as we understand them. Our prayers for the dead are, like our prayers for the living, an expression of charity and the unity that exists between all members of the Body of Christ.

Prayer for the dead is a practice which not only predates Catholicism but predates Jesus Christ, as we see in the Second Book of Maccabees (2 Maccabees 12:42-45).

"By virtue of the 'communion of saints,' the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers, especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf," says the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 1055).

Puede parecer extraño orar por alguien que ya está muerto y que, según nuestro cálculo terrenal del tiempo, ya ha recibido el juicio. Pero Dios no está sujeto a las limitaciones del tiempo como lo entendemos. Nuestras oraciones por los difuntos son, al igual que nuestras oraciones por los vivos, una expresión de caridad y de la unidad que existe entre todos los miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo.

La oración por los difuntos es una práctica que no solo precede al catolicismo, sino que precede a Jesucristo, como vemos en el Segundo Libro de los Macabeos (2 Macabeos 12:42-45).

"Por virtud de la 'comunión de los santos,' la Iglesia encomienda a los difuntos a la misericordia de Dios y ofrece sus oraciones, especialmente el santo sacrificio de la Eucaristía, en su nombre," dice el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica (CCC 1055).

THE MOST COMMON CATHOLIC PRAYER FOR THE DEAD:

"Eternal rest grant unto them, o Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace."

LA ORACIÓN CATÓLICA MÁS COMÚN POR LOS DIFUNTOS:

"Concédeles, Señor, el descanso eterno; y brille para ellos la luz perpetua. Que las almas de los fieles difuntos descansen en paz."

REFLEXIÓN DOMINICAL

Una vida de oración y amor

SOLEMNIDAD DE TODOS LOS SANTOS

En esta solemnidad de Todos los Santos, la Iglesia nos invita a reflexionar sobre la hermosa vocación que todos hemos recibido: llegar a ser santos y vivir eternamente en la presencia de Dios. En el libro del Apocalipsis contemplamos una gran multitud de todas las naciones, razas, pueblos y lenguas, de pie ante el trono de Dios. Esto nos recuerda que la santidad no está reservada para unos pocos; es un don y una vocación ofrecidos a toda persona que busca al Señor con un corazón sincero. En el Evangelio, Jesús nos presenta las Bienaventuranzas y nos muestra el camino de la santidad mediante la humildad, la misericordia, la pureza de corazón, la búsqueda de la paz y la fidelidad en las dificultades. Como nos recuerda sabiamente un autor desconocido: «La santidad no es privilegio de unos pocos, sino deber de todos». Estamos llamados a descubrir la santidad en los momentos cotidianos de nuestra vida, en la familia, el trabajo, el servicio y el amor a los demás.

Los santos nos enseñan que una vida agradable a Dios comienza con la oración, crece por la fe y da frutos en obras de amor y caridad. No fueron personas sin luchas ni debilidades; fueron personas que confiaron en la gracia de Dios y volvieron continuamente su corazón hacia Él. Como comunidad parroquial, perseveremos en la oración y dediquemos cada día un tiempo para hablar con el Señor, meditar su Palabra, participar fielmente en la Eucaristía y orar unos por otros. No nos desanimemos cuando el camino sea difícil; pidamos al Espíritu Santo que purifique nuestras intenciones y guíe nuestras decisiones, para que nuestros pensamientos, palabras y acciones sean agradables a Dios. Cada oración sincera, cada acto de perdón y cada gesto de compasión nos acercan a la santidad a la que hemos sido llamados.

Al honrar a todos los santos, renovemos nuestro compromiso de caminar juntos por el sendero de la fe. Oremos con perseverancia por nuestras familias, nuestra parroquia, quienes sufren y un mundo necesitado de paz y reconciliación. Pidamos a los santos que intercedan por nosotros, para que tengamos la valentía de vivir las Bienaventuranzas y permanecer fieles a Cristo en toda circunstancia. La santidad no se alcanza en un solo día; se construye mediante decisiones diarias de amar a Dios sobre todas las cosas y al prójimo como a nosotros mismos. Que nuestra parroquia sea una comunidad de oración, misericordia y esperanza, donde cada persona encuentre aliento para crecer en la fe y la santidad. Que el Señor nos fortalezca en nuestro camino para que, un día, también nosotros podamos unirnos a la gran multitud de los santos y alegrarnos eternamente en su presencia. Amén.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

A Life of Prayer and Love

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

On this Solemnity of All Saints, the Church invites us to reflect on the beautiful calling we have all received: to become saints and to live forever in the presence of God. In the Book of Revelation, we see a great multitude from every nation, race, people, and tongue standing before the throne of God. This reminds us that holiness is not reserved for a select few; it is a gift and a calling offered to every person who seeks the Lord with a sincere heart. In the Gospel, Jesus gives us the Beatitudes, showing us the path to holiness through humility, mercy, purity of heart, peacemaking, and faithfulness in times of difficulty. As an unknown author wisely reminds us, “Holiness is not the privilege of a few, but the duty of all.” We are called to discover holiness in the ordinary moments of our lives, through our families, our work, our service, and our love for others.

The saints teach us that a life pleasing to God begins with prayer, grows through faith, and bears fruit in acts of love and charity. They were not people without struggles or weaknesses; rather, they were people who trusted in God's grace and continually turned their hearts toward Him. As a parish community, let us persevere in prayer, making time each day to speak with the Lord, meditate on His Word, participate faithfully in the Eucharist, and pray for one another. Let us not become discouraged when the journey is difficult, but ask the Holy Spirit to purify our intentions and guide our decisions so that our thoughts, words, and actions may be pleasing to God. Every sincere prayer, every act of forgiveness, and every gesture of compassion brings us closer to the holiness to which we are called.

As we honor all the saints, let us renew our commitment to walk together on the path of faith. May we pray with perseverance for our families, our parish, those who are suffering, and a world in need of peace and reconciliation. Let us ask the saints to intercede for us, that we may have the courage to live the Beatitudes and remain faithful to Christ in every circumstance. Holiness is not achieved in a single day; it is built through daily choices to love God above all things and to love our neighbors as ourselves. May our parish become a community of prayer, mercy, and hope, where each person is encouraged to grow in faith and holiness. May the Lord strengthen us in our journey so that one day we, too, may join the great multitude of saints and rejoice forever in His presence. Amen.

Modesty, Explained!

One of the 12 fruits of the Holy Spirit is modesty, related to the cardinal virtue of temperance, or moderation of passions. It means "refusing to unveil what should remain hidden" and in doing so "protects the intimate center of the person" (CCC 2521). This virtue is a guide for how we interact with others in a way that honors their inherent dignity.

Christ notably said that those who look upon others with lust commit adultery in their heart (Matthew 5:28), indicating that modesty is concerned not just with action but with thoughts and interior disposition. Parents are obliged to instruct their children in the ways of modesty as part of teaching respect for others.

"The forms taken by modesty vary from one culture to another," we read in the Catechism. "Everywhere, however, modesty exists as an intuition of the spiritual dignity proper to man. It is born with the awakening consciousness of being a subject" (CCC 2524).

¡La modestia, explicada!

Uno de los 12 frutos del Espíritu Santo es la modestia, relacionada con la virtud cardinal de la templanza, o moderación de las pasiones. Significa "negarse a desvelar lo que debe permanecer oculto" y, al hacerlo, "protege el centro íntimo de la persona" (CIC 2521). Esta virtud es una guía para cómo nos relacionamos con los demás de una manera que honra su dignidad inherente.

Cristo dijo notablemente que aquellos que miran a otros con lujuria cometen adulterio en su corazón (Mateo 5:28), lo que indica que la modestia no solo se preocupa por la acción, sino también por los pensamientos y la disposición interior. Los padres están obligados a instruir a sus hijos en los caminos de la modestia como parte de la enseñanza del respeto por los demás.

"Las formas que adopta la modestia varían de una cultura a otra", leemos en el Catecismo. "Sin embargo, en todas partes, la modestia existe como una intuición de la dignidad espiritual propia del hombre. Nace con la conciencia del despertar de ser un sujeto" (CIC 2524).
