32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!' But he said in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.'"
- Mt 25:11-12

Be Ready, Keep the Faith

This Sunday, let us remember that faith is more than words—it is a living relationship with Jesus. Keep your heart close to Him, let His love guide your steps, and never take His presence for granted.

May we live each day with faith, hope, and joyful hearts, always ready to welcome the Lord. Keep your faith alive, your hearts prepared, and your eyes fixed on Jesus!

Estemos Preparados y Mantengamos la Fe

Este domingo, recordemos que la fe es mucho más que palabras: es una relación viva con Jesús. Mantengamos nuestro corazón cerca de Él, dejemos que Su amor guíe nuestros pasos y nunca demos por sentada Su presencia.

Vivamos cada día con fe, esperanza y alegría, siempre preparados para recibir al Señor. ¡Mantengamos viva nuestra fe, preparado nuestro corazón y nuestra mirada puesta en Jesús!

Keeping Our Lamps Burning

A Life of Faith and Hope

As we approach the Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings invite us to reflect on the importance of being spiritually prepared and keeping our faith alive. In the Gospel, Jesus shares the parable of the ten virgins, reminding us that the wise ones brought extra oil for their lamps while waiting for the bridegroom. Their wisdom teaches us that faith requires more than simply believing; it calls us to remain faithful, attentive, and prepared to welcome the Lord each day. As the Book of Wisdom reminds us, wisdom is readily found by those who seek her with sincere hearts. We are encouraged to seek God daily through prayer, the Eucharist, and the choices we make in our everyday lives.

The responsorial Psalm expresses the deepest desire of every believer: “My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.” In a world filled with distractions, worries, and uncertainty, it is easy to allow the oil of our faith to run low. Yet our relationship with God must be continually nourished through prayer, Scripture, acts of kindness, forgiveness, and love for one another. Saint Paul also reminds us that even in the face of death, we are people of hope because we believe that Jesus died and rose again. Our Christian hope gives us the strength to persevere, knowing that God's promise of eternal life is greater than any difficulty we may encounter.

There is a beautiful reminder in the words: “Faith is like a lamp; it must be continually filled with the oil of prayer, love, and good deeds to keep shining in the darkness.” (Author unknown.) May this message inspire us to examine our hearts and ask ourselves whether our lamps are burning brightly. Let us not wait for tomorrow to deepen our relationship with God or to become instruments of His love. May we remain watchful, faithful, and generous, ready to welcome Christ whenever He comes. May our lives shine with the light of faith, bringing hope, peace, and encouragement to everyone we encounter.

REFLEXIÓN DOMINICAL

LA PARROQUIA CATEDRAL

Mantengamos nuestras lámparas encendidas

Una vida de fe y esperanza

Al acercarnos al Trigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, las lecturas nos invitan a reflexionar sobre la importancia de estar preparados espiritualmente y mantener viva nuestra fe. En el Evangelio, Jesús comparte la parábola de las diez vírgenes y nos recuerda que las prudentes llevaron aceite de reserva para sus lámparas mientras esperaban al esposo. Su prudencia nos enseña que la fe exige algo más que creer: nos llama a permanecer fieles, atentos y preparados para recibir al Señor cada día. Como nos recuerda el Libro de la Sabiduría, la sabiduría se deja encontrar por quienes la buscan con un corazón sincero. Se nos anima a buscar a Dios diariamente mediante la oración, la Eucaristía y las decisiones que tomamos en nuestra vida cotidiana.

El salmo responsorial expresa el deseo más profundo de todo creyente: «Mi alma tiene sed de ti, Señor, Dios mío». En un mundo lleno de distracciones, preocupaciones e incertidumbre, es fácil dejar que se agote el aceite de nuestra fe. Sin embargo, nuestra relación con Dios debe alimentarse continuamente con la oración, la Sagrada Escritura, los actos de bondad, el perdón y el amor mutuo. San Pablo también nos recuerda que, incluso ante la muerte, somos personas de esperanza porque creemos que Jesús murió y resucitó. Nuestra esperanza cristiana nos da la fuerza para perseverar, sabiendo que la promesa de Dios de la vida eterna es mayor que cualquier dificultad que podamos encontrar.

Hay un hermoso recordatorio en estas palabras: «La fe es como una lámpara; hay que llenarla continuamente con el aceite de la oración, el amor y las buenas obras para que siga brillando en la oscuridad». (Autor desconocido). Que este mensaje nos inspire a examinar nuestros corazones y preguntarnos si nuestras lámparas brillan intensamente. No esperemos hasta mañana para profundizar nuestra relación con Dios o convertirnos en instrumentos de su amor. Permanezcamos vigilantes, fieles y generosos, dispuestos a recibir a Cristo cuando venga. Que nuestras vidas resplandezcan con la luz de la fe, llevando esperanza, paz y ánimo a todas las personas que encontremos.
