Come, You Who Are Blessed!

This Sunday, Jesus reminds us of the beautiful promise of His Kingdom: "Come, you who are blessed by my Father" (Matthew 25:34). God calls us to live with faith, love, and hearts ready to serve.

May we recognize Christ in one another, share His kindness, and bring hope to those around us. Let us walk together in love, knowing that every act of compassion brings us closer to His Kingdom.

¡Vengan, Benditos de Mi Padre!

Este domingo, Jesús nos recuerda la hermosa promesa de Su Reino: «Vengan, benditos de mi Padre» (Mateo 25:34). Dios nos llama a vivir con fe, amor y un corazón dispuesto a servir.

Reconozcamos a Cristo en nuestros hermanos, compartamos Su bondad y llevemos esperanza a quienes nos rodean. Caminemos juntos en el amor, sabiendo que cada acto de compasión nos acerca más a Su Reino.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

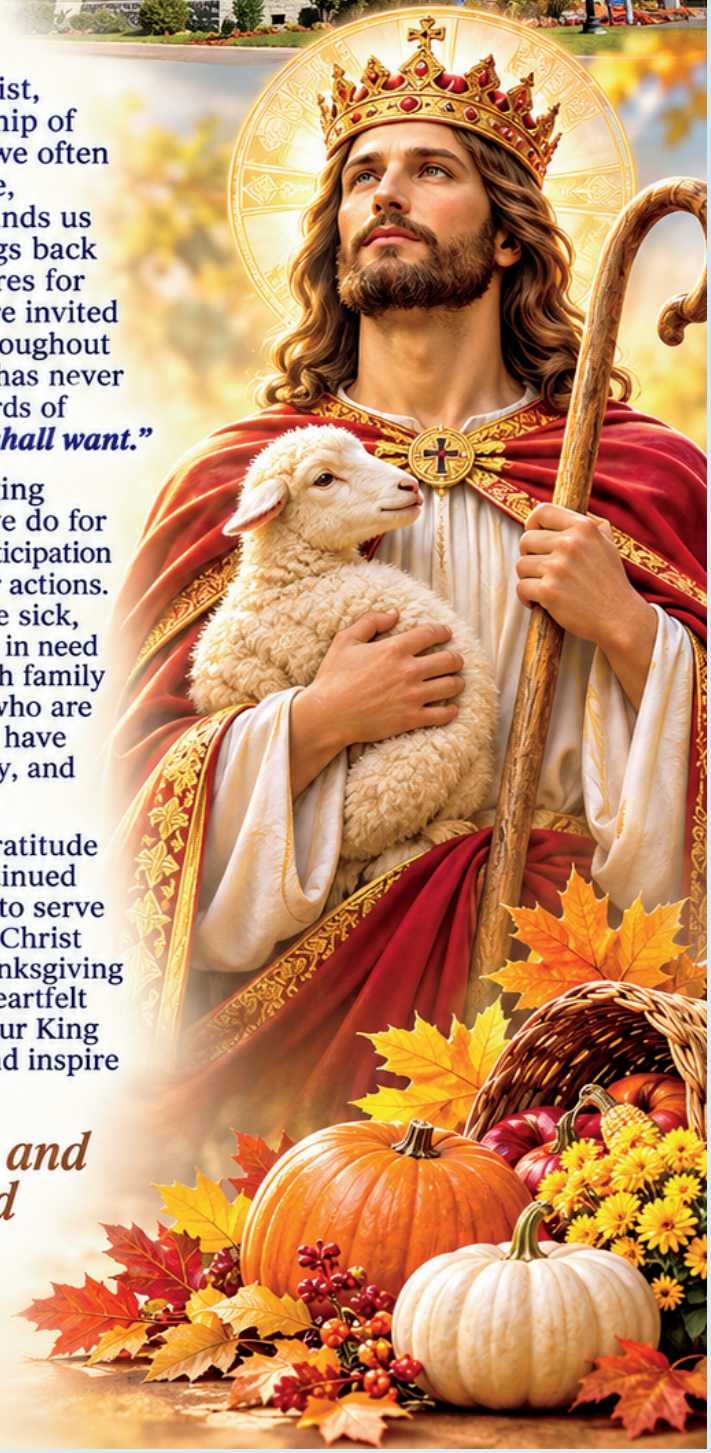
Christ the King Calls Us to Serve

As we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we are reminded that the kingship of Jesus is very different from the power and authority we often see in the world. Christ is a King who leads with love, compassion, and mercy. In the first reading, God reminds us that He is the Good Shepherd who seeks the lost, brings back those who have wandered, heals the wounded, and cares for the weak. As we enter this week of Thanksgiving, we are invited to recognize the many ways God has shepherded us throughout the year. Even during difficult moments, His goodness has never abandoned us. With grateful hearts, we can echo the words of Psalm 23: "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want."

In the Gospel, Jesus gives us a beautiful and challenging reminder that whatever we do for the least among us, we do for Him. Our faith is not measured only by our prayers or participation in Sunday Mass, but also by the love we show through our actions. Feeding the hungry, welcoming the stranger, visiting the sick, comforting those who are lonely, and reaching out to those in need are ways we encounter Christ every day. As we gather with family and friends this Thanksgiving, may we remember those who are struggling, those who are alone, and those who may not have enough to celebrate. Let our gratitude become generosity, and let our blessings become an opportunity to bless others.

I want to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to all of you for your faith, generosity, prayers, and continued dedication to our parish community. I am truly blessed to serve as your pastor and to witness the many ways you make Christ present through your kindness and service. May this Thanksgiving week be a time of renewed faith, joyful fellowship, and heartfelt appreciation for God's countless blessings. May Christ our King continue to guide our families, strengthen our parish, and inspire us to serve one another with love.

From my heart to yours, I wish you and your families a very blessed and Happy Thanksgiving!



Reflexión Dominical

Cristo Rey nos llama a servir

En este Domingo de la Solemnidad de Cristo Rey, la Iglesia nos invita a reconocer a Jesucristo como Señor de nuestra vida, de la historia y de todo lo creado. Él es un Rey diferente, que no gobierna con poder ni con riquezas, sino con el amor, la verdad y el servicio. En el Evangelio, Jesús nos recuerda que la verdadera grandeza consiste en amar y servir, especialmente a los más pequeños, a los que sufren y a los que tienen más necesidad. Servir a los demás es una manera concreta de reconocer y proclamar que Cristo reina en nosotros.

Las lecturas nos enseñan que el reino de Cristo es un reino de justicia, paz y misericordia. Su autoridad se manifiesta en el amor que perdona, en la compasión que se acerca al que sufre y en la entrega generosa que busca el bien de todos. Como comunidad cristiana, estamos llamados a ser signos vivos de ese Reino en nuestras familias, en la parroquia y en la sociedad, llevando esperanza, unidad y consuelo donde haya dolor, soledad o desesperanza.

Una bella enseñanza nos recuerda: "Cristo reina de verdad cuando lo servimos en nuestros hermanos y hermanas." (Autor desconocido). La realeza de Jesús no se impone, sino que se hace presente en cada gesto de amor, en cada obra de caridad y en cada acto de servicio humilde. Cuando acogemos a los pobres, visitamos a los enfermos, escuchamos al que necesita ser escuchado y acompañamos al que está solo, hacemos visible el reino de Dios en medio de nuestro mundo.

En esta solemnidad, pidamos al Señor la gracia de vivir bajo su reinado, dejando que Él guíe nuestras decisiones, nuestras relaciones y nuestros proyectos. Que Cristo Rey transforme nuestro corazón para que sepamos servir con alegría, amar sin límites y construir una comunidad más justa, fraterna y solidaria. Que su Reino, que es de amor y de paz, crezca en nosotros y, a través de nosotros, se haga presente en el mundo.

Confidence, Explained!

Confidence, in its virtuous aspect, describes the hope that man has in himself when he is under God's care and inviting the direction of the Holy Spirit. Its very name is derived from the Latin noun fides, which means faith.

Confidence is connected with the virtue of fortitude, but also with the virtue of hope, writes St. Thomas Aquinas, who quoted the Book of Job: "And you shall be secured, because there is hope; you shall look round you and lie down in safety" (Job 11:18).

It is confidence that Abraham exhibits when he petitions God to spare the righteous of Sodom (Genesis 18:25). Though he knows he is "only dust and ashes," Abraham has learned enough of the ways of God to be able to articulate them in prayer. This is the same confidence we have when we pray, entrusting our needs to God (1 John 5:14).

Confidence Explained!

¡La confianza, explicada!

La confianza, en su aspecto virtuoso, describe la esperanza que tiene el hombre en sí mismo cuando está bajo el cuidado de Dios y acogiendo la dirección del Espíritu Santo. Su mismo nombre se deriva del sustantivo latino fides, que significa fe.

La confianza está relacionada con la virtud de la fortaleza, pero también con la virtud de la esperanza, escribe Santo Tomás de Aquino, quien citó el Libro de Job: "Y estarás seguro, porque hay esperanza; mirarás a tu alrededor y te acostarás en seguridad" (Job 11:18).

Es la confianza que Abraham muestra cuando ruega a Dios que perdone a los justos de Sodoma (Génesis 18:25). Aunque sabe que es "solo polvo y ceniza", Abraham ha aprendido lo suficiente sobre los caminos de Dios para poder expresarlos en la oración. Esta es la misma confianza que tenemos cuando oramos, encomendando nuestras necesidades a Dios (1 Juan 5:14).
