From Our Associate Pastor, Fr. Matt Barone

Happy New Year! Well, at least Happy New Year's Eve! The Church celebrates the Feast of Christ the King this week, which marks the end of our Liturgical or Church Year. With the start of Advent next week, we begin a new Liturgical Year. So, for Catholics this really is our New Year's Eve.

The other day, I went into CVS to pick up a few things and upon entering the store I was greeted by a half dozen life-size Santa Claus figures. I think they were the kind that move and play music. Aside from being a bit startled by their size and life-like appearance, I was reminded that Christmas seems to come earlier and earlier each year.

The store shelves are now stocked with lights, trees, decorations and extra toys. Radio stations are already playing Christmas music. We are being told that if we don't start shopping now, there will be nothing left to buy for our loved ones! And yet, it's still early November. All of this can be overwhelming and discouraging.

As disciples of Christ, we know the real reason we celebrate Christmas, Jesus' birth. And although this idea is sometimes used as a tool against the commercialization of Christmas and a cliché bumper sticker, it's true. We believe that "Christmas Time" begins after December 25, not the days from now until December 24. So, don't let it all overwhelm you. Take Advent as a true time to prepare and reflect on Jesus' coming into our world on Christmas.

Fr. Matt

LIVE THE LITURGY—INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God is wonderfully and surprisingly creative! He turns the tables on our understanding of what it means to be a king by sending us a king who embraces poverty, insults, suffering, ridicule, rejection, and even death. This is our king. Jesus is not the king of prestige or grandeur but the king who brings light to darkness, hope to despair, sinners to mercy, and new life out of death. God dances on, around, in and through all of the silliness and ugliness of the world bringing all of creation to the eternal dance of new life and hope. Whether we accept it now or hope that we one day do, Christ is king of the universe. Christ is the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end. Every human being, even those who scorned and rejected him and failed to see him in the least of our brothers and sisters will look upon him. Only those who understand truth will understand that we are on this awesome universal journey to Christ. It is a journey of surprises but also a journey of enlightenment when we will one day see and experience with the deepest joy our being in Christ. We will be restless until we are all one day together united in Christ our King.

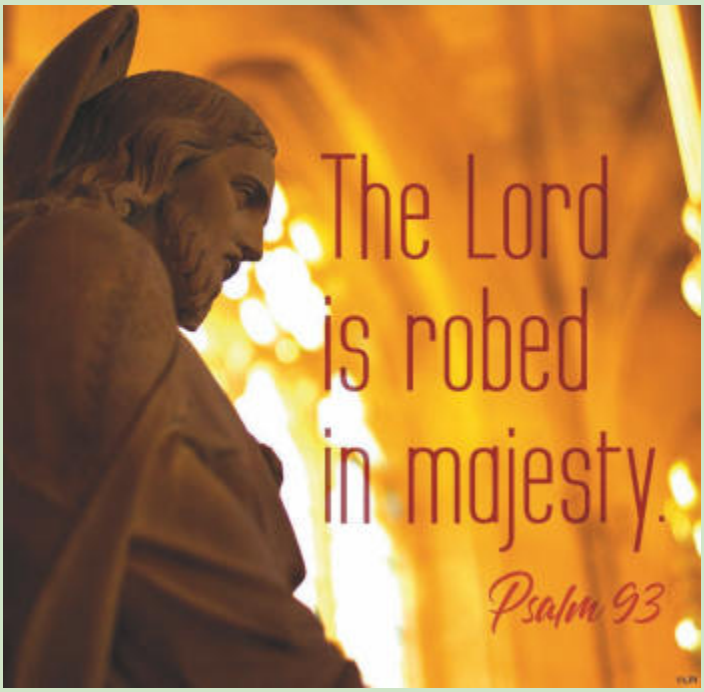
Gospel Meditation - November 21, 2021
Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

We often come to life expecting all of the pieces of the puzzle to nicely fit together. We want and expect harmony, order, and fairness, the achievement of rewards for good behavior, good health, and happiness. We can more easily accept death when it comes naturally after a good long life, but have a real difficulty comprehending the meaning of it all when it is cut short. Willing to put in a good measure of effort, we desire positive results. When things go wrong and life gets hurtful, unjust, and downright ugly, we become unsettled and can quickly fall into despair. This is especially true if we are people of faith who believe in a God who sees things on our terms and works in favor of our life agenda. What happens to our faith when we find ourselves sitting in a mess?

Does it help to know that God understands and that hardship, failure, disappointment, injustice, confusion, and all of life's ugliness do not make faith irrelevant or irrational? God is wonderfully and surprising creative! He turns the tables on not only our understanding of life, but of what it means to be a king. God sends us a king who is not exempt from life's ills but embraces them. The king that God gives to us knows what it means to be poor, suffer insults, be ridiculed, face rejection, endure suffering, be betrayed, and face a most unjust and horrific death. This is our king. Jesus is not a king of prestige or grandeur but a king who brings light to darkness, hope to despair, sinners to mercy, and new life out of death. Christ dances before us pleading with us to hold on, cling to love, avoid being negative, stop feeling cheated, and be strong in faith! There may be hardship and disappointment now but there are more surprises to come.



Once we understand this truth, we will also understand that we are on a most incredible and awesome universal journey to Christ and becoming one in Christ. We all carry within us the image of God, the image of our suffering king. The One who lives in us also lives in all of our brothers and sisters. Failing to see this universal Divine Presence in all is one of the greatest mistakes we can make, for we also fail to see God, our king, as well. There are many things that can bring hardship to life. If we keep our head about us and do not lose hope, we can persevere and strive for the greatest degree of justice possible. Even though there are ample things that can challenge our faith, we also know that our deepest joy comes from union with God and our brothers and sisters. One day, the fullness of that joy will be ours to have when we are all eternally one with Christ our King forever. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - Long Live the King

Did you know that you can become royalty, for the right price? It's true — for the low, low cost of $50, you, too, can purchase a 12-square-inch souvenir plot of Scottish land and call yourself "Laird So-and-so." Now, this lordship or ladyship doesn't come with the ability to boss anyone around, but maybe your friends will be impressed enough to bend the knee.

My point is, we've all got our own little fiefdoms — folks or communities for which we have a feeling of responsibility. Maybe we're not their "king," but most of us have those we think of as "our people."

Now, in this world, people lay themselves down for their kings. History is riddled with the bodies of men, young and old — and plenty of women and children, too — who were casualties of wars waged by men in power, men who never had to shed their own blood. But in the next world, the King dies for his people. This is leadership par excellence — the leadership of someone whose love is greater than his ambition.

We are all leaders of a sort. On the parish level, you have the obvious roles — serving on pastoral council, spearheading the capital campaign, leading the Altar Guild. But you also have the quiet ones who lead from the wings — the janitor who can always be relied upon to do his job, or the volunteer librarian who puts in extra hours on the weekends.

There is a saying — find your people. I say, find your people, and find a way to lay yourself down for them, in imitation of the greatest King that ever was.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

VETERAN'S CELEBRATION: Tears were brought to many eyes during an extraordinary tribute to our veterans through our annual Veteran's Day Program. Each class performed a song or poem for those who have served our country. There are no words to thank Miss Maiorano, Mr. Garrity and our 8th grade class enough. An immense amount of work went into this program, from sending invitations, to choosing songs, choreographing dances, and orchestrating the schedule.
