Year of the EUCHARIST

Did you Know?

How many Rites are there to receive Communion outside of Holy Mass?

The Catholic Church has two basic Rites for receiving Holy Communion outside of the Holy Mass. They are: The Rite for receiving Communion when Mass is not available. For example, when a priest is unavailable and the Deacon gives a Eucharistic service. We also have the Rite when bringing Holy Communion to those who are unable to attend Holy Mass due to their age or infirmity. We have many homebound in our parish, and this is a wonderful Rite to bring them Holy Communion.

While both Rites are similar to each other, they differ in the prayers and texts that are provided. The general structure of both Rites is: The greeting, the penitential rite, the Liturgy of the Word, on some occasions homily and prayers of the faithful, the Communion rite with the Our Father, the sign of peace, the words "This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world happy are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb." and its response "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.", the Communion, the concluding prayer, and the final blessing.

In both situations, the entire Rite should be performed each time. The Liturgy of the Word may be shortened when it involves the aged or infirm who are weak. It is the minister's discretion.

FORMED

THE CATHOLIC FAITH. ON DEMAND.

This movie documents the apparitions of the Virgin Mary to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal, from May through October 1917. These incredible events were witnessed by tens of thousands of people and are considered the most prophetic revelations of the 20th Century, including the greatest miracle to have occurred on earth at the exact time predicted. The movie conveys this epic story through historic details and insightful interviews with leading Fatima experts: Father Andrew Apostoli, CFR, Father Benedict Groeschell, CFR, Father Luis Kondor, Father Robert J. Fox and family members of the Fatima seers. Learn the importance of Mary's message that is more relevant now than ever before.

The Day the Sun Danced is the inspiring true story of Lucia, Francisco, and Jacinta, whose great faith and courage brought the message of Our Lady of Fatima to the entire world

When the children tried to share the joyous news of Our Lady of Fatima, no one believed them, until the day the sun seemed to dance in the sky. It soon became clear that they had been chosen by the Blessed Mother to share her message.

Setting Our Hearts Aflame

Theology of Spring!

This past Monday I crawled out of bed wishing it was still the weekend (like many of us do!). The sun was shining, a gentle breeze was blowing and the forecast is for a warm spring day (who wouldn't want to just stay at home with a second cup of coffee?). I got up and dressed and began to trudge out to my car when a gentle breeze hit me giving me a reminder that this IS the day the Lord has made and I should rejoice and be glad! I looked around me to gaze upon God's work.

Looking down I saw two dandelions- one old, gray and absent half of her seeds the other just below her, young, and bright yellow and I mused: The grey hairs of old age get tossed in the wind and fall to the ground bringing new life into being… just as we live life, grow old and give new wisdom and life to our young… just as Jesus grew up from a tiny babe and died to give us new life and wisdom.

Going more to my car I noticed our flowering bushes have come into full bloom– bright purples, pinks and reds. God's paintbrush at work. In the distance I hear birds chirping their morning hymn. And lo… there is a rustling among our red azaleas and I catch a glimpse of a fluttering hummingbird going from flower to flower gathering nectar. In the span of ten minutes in my front yard God showed me truly that this was the day he had made and I should rejoice and be glad.

When you get up this coming Monday morning pause a few minutes on your front step or back porch— look around— what do YOU see? What do YOU hear? See that this is the day the Lord has made, rejoice and be glad!

Peace be with you, Holly Clark, Pastoral Associate
