Thirty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time November 7, 2021

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:
She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.
(1 Kgs 17:15-16)

Psalm:
Praise the Lord, my soul! (Ps 146)

Second Reading:
But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. (Heb 9:26)

Gospel:
"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."
(Mk 12:43-44)

Greetings!

I am grateful to all who attended the two recent "Town Hall" meetings -10/14 at OLMC and 10/21 at SR. Ann Marie Cawley from the Office of Parish Life in the Diocese of Scranton has worked with our parish communities over the years and did a great job of facilitating our prayer and discussion. Both meetings were important to share information and dialogue about the ongoing "blueprint process". We face significant challenges in the diocese and need to do our level best at the local level to provide our head shepherd, Bishop Bambera, with feedback that will be helpful in the process of pastoral planning. At the meetings we looked at issues of demographics, finances, clergy personnel and deanery dynamics.

In the dialogue, we also heard concerns about Mass schedules, financial reporting and transparency, parish/office staff availability and support, lack of youth/young adult ministry, fundraising etc. As a follow up to the 10/14 Town Hall meeting, the combined Parish Council processed their reactions to the meeting and will do so again - processing the 10/21 SR Town Hall at the 11/17 Parish Council meeting. I think we all have to admit, being "Church" is sometimes messy! There is not always agreement on issues and people have different takeaways from the same experience. What is always most important is to maintain a degree of respect and an openness to work and pray through difficulties.

We are two parishes with wonderful and faith filled parishioners who have lived side by side in Carbondale/Simpson for generations. While we have unique histories and historically ethnic affiliations that should always be honored, we are striving to build bridges and read the signs of the times. The Church has always adjusted to realities "on the ground". Fr. Arun reminds us of his experience of Church in India where certain villages had Mass once a year. We pray we never have to face that reality, but we should keep it in mind. Christ and his life communicated through the sacraments are still readily available to us and we have to keep Christ at the center of all pastoral planning. The blueprint process will continue to unfold, trusting in God and the good will of our fellow parishioners. Another round of Town Hall meetings will be held in the Spring. In the meantime, as usual, feel free to contact me or anyone on the parish/finance councils with helpful ideas or concerns.

Peace,

Fr. Walsh

STATEMENT ON ARREST OF DIOCESAN PRIEST

On October 22, 2021, the Diocese of Scranton learned that Father Gregory F. Loughney, pastor, Most Holy Trinity Parish, Cresco, was arrested by members of the Pocono Mountain Regional Police Department. Four criminal charges – all connected to alleged inappropriate contact with a minor – were filed against Father Loughney on Saturday, October 23, 2021.

Under its longstanding zero-tolerance policy, the Diocese of Scranton immediately removed Father Loughney from active ministry pending the outcome of the investigation. The Diocese of Scranton will cooperate fully with law enforcement officials in their investigation. Father Loughney will need to retain his own legal counsel, at his own expense.

Anyone who might have relevant information is urged to call the Pocono Mountain Regional Police Department at (570) 895-2400, the Monroe County District Attorney's Office at (570) 517-3052, or any local law enforcement agency. Information regarding any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor can also be reported to the Diocese of Scranton's Victim Assistance Coordinator, Mary Beth Pacuska, at (570) 862-7551.
