THE MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY May 30, 2021

STATEMENT OF THE NEW JERSEY BISHOPS
Reinstating the General Obligation to Attend Mass

At this time, due to the observance of public safety protocols and the increase in the availability of vaccines, we have begun a return to some sense of normalcy in various sectors of our society.

Therefore, we the Catholic Bishops of New Jersey, are lifting the dispensation of the Sunday and Holy Days Mass obligation beginning on Saturday, June 5, 2021, and Sunday, June 6, 2021, Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We welcome the Christian faithful to return to the regular participation in the Sunday Eucharist, the source and summit of our Catholic faith (cf. Code of Canon Law canon 1247 and Catechism of the Catholic Church, n. 2180).

This obligation does not apply to those who are ill; those who have reason to believe that they were recently exposed to the coronavirus or another serious or contagious illness; those who are confined to their home, a hospital, or nursing facility; or those with serious underlying health conditions. One should consult the local pastor if questions arise about the obligation to attend Mass (canon 87).

Finally, safety protocols (such as wearing masks, social distancing, etc.) and liturgical directives (communion in the hand, communion under one species, etc.) in each New Jersey Diocese remains in place until modified or revoked by the respective Diocesan Bishop.

Relaxing of New Jersey Restrictions

Recent executive orders from Governor Murphy have significantly relaxed some of the restrictions imposed to control the spread of COVID-19. The following are some guidelines issued for the Diocese of Metuchen.

Effective May 19, 2021, indoor religious services and celebrations may be held at 100% of the room's capacity with appropriate social distancing. There will no longer be a cap for the amount of people permitted in the church.

At the discretion of pastors, all pews may be opened for seating. A section of pews should be designated for those who would prefer to keep a distance.

Again, at the pastor's discretion, altar servers, lectors, ushers, greeters and Extraordinary Minsters of Holy Communion can be returned to service. Procession to present the gifts of bread and wine may be resumed.

CARTA APOSTÓLICA PATRIS CORDE DEL SANTO PADRE FRANCISCO

CON MOTIVO DEL 150.° ANIVERSARIO DE LA DECLARACIÓN DE SAN JOSÉ COMO PATRONO DE LA IGLESIA UNIVERSAL

Con corazón de padre: así José amó a Jesús, llamado en los cuatro Evangelios «el hijo de José»[1]. Los dos evangelistas que evidenciaron su figura, Mateo y Lucas, refieren poco, pero lo suficiente para entender qué tipo de padre fuese y la misión que la Providencia le confió.

Sabemos que fue un humilde carpintero (cf. Mt 13,55), desposado con María (cf. Mt 1,18; Lc 1,27); un «hombre justo» (Mt 1,19), siempre dispuesto a hacer la voluntad de Dios manifestada en su ley (cf. Lc 2,22.27.39) y a través de los cuatro sueños que tuvo (cf. Mt 1,20; 2,13.19.22). Después de un largo y duro viaje de Nazaret a Belén, vio nacer al Mesías en un pesebre, porque en otro sitio «no había lugar para ellos» (Lc 2,7). Fue testigo de la adoración de los pastores (cf. Lc 2,8-20) y de los Magos (cf. Mt 2,1-12), que representaban respectivamente el pueblo de Israel y los pueblos paganos.

Declaración de los Obispos de Nueva Jersey: Restablecimiento de la obligación general de asistir a Misa

A partir del fin de semana del 5 y 6 de Junio, en la Solemnidad del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, los Obispos de Nueva Jersey levantan la dispensa sobre la obligación de participar en la Misa los domingos y los días santos obligatorios; y dan la bienvenida a todos los católicos para que participen de la Misa en las parroquias.

Están exentos de esta obligación las personas que se sientan enfermas, aquellos que hayan estado expuestos recientemente al Coronavirus o alguna otra enfermedad seria, los que se encuentran confinados en sus casas, hospitales o residencias, y aquellos que tienen una condición de salud delicada. Si tiene dudas sobre si debe o no atender a la obligación consulte con su párroco. (canon 87).

Los protocolos de seguridad (el uso de máscaras, distanciamiento social etc...) y las directivas litúrgicas (comunión en la mano, comunión bajo solo una de las especies, etc...) se mantienen vigentes hasta nueva orden.

Question for Children: Why do you think Catholics make "The Sign of the Cross" when we pray?
Question for Youth: How often do you think about God as Trinity? How do you relate to each member of the Trinity?
Question for Adults: As each of us is called and sent by Christ how have you incorporated this into your own life, whether married, single, in religious life, or ordained?

Amoris Laetitia: Some Resources

230. It is true that many couples, once married, drop out of the Christian community. Often, however, we ourselves do not take advantage of those occasions when they do return, to remind them of the beautiful ideal of Christian marriage and the support that our parishes can offer them. I think, for example, of the Baptism and First Holy Communion of their children, or the funerals or weddings of their relatives or friends. Almost all married couples reappear on these occasions, and we should take greater advantage of this. Another way of growing closer is by blessing homes or by bringing a pilgrim image of Our Lady to houses in the neighbourhood; this provides an opportunity for a pastoral conversation about the family's situation. It could also be helpful to ask older married couples to help younger couples in the neighbourhood by visiting them and offering guidance in the early years of marriage. Given the pace of life today, most couples cannot attend frequent meetings; still, we cannot restrict our pastoral outreach to small and select groups. Nowadays, pastoral care for families has to be fundamentally missionary, going out to where people are. We can no longer be like a factory, churning out courses that for the most part are poorly attended.

New Contemplative Prayer Group!

"Centering Prayer" is a receptive method of silent prayer in which we experience God's presence within us, closer than breathing, closer than thinking, closer than consciousness itself. This method of prayer, based upon traditional methods developed by Catholic monastics and contemplatives, is both a relationship with God and a discipline to foster that relationship. A new Centering Prayer group is forming in our parish and will meet regularly to learn this method, to pray together, and to support each other on our spiritual journey. Church Humor:

One day, a little girl is sitting and watching her mother do the dishes at the kitchen sink. She suddenly notices that her mother has several strands of white hair sticking out in contrast to her brunette hair. She looks at her mother and inquisitively asks: "Why are some of your hairs white, Mum?" Her mother replied: "Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me cry or unhappy, one of my hairs turns white." The little girl thought about this revelation for a while and then asked: "Mumma, how come all of grandma's hairs are white?"
