Jesus Calling

How is Jesus calling me to accept the gifts of the Spirit and integrate them into my everyday encounters?

OF MANY THINGS...

"Lord, send out your Spirit,
and renew the face of the earth."
(Psalm 104)

Today we celebrate the feast of Pentecost, the gift of the Spirit to the church as a community of faith, and to each one of us who seek to live our lives in peace and harmony with one another.

It is the gift of the Spirit that changed those first disciples who were lost and afraid and in hiding after the death of Jesus. They were mourning the death of Jesus, they were confused about who they were now and how they were to go forward. The Spirit gave them all they needed to come out of hiding and preach with courage and passion, finding words they did not know they had!

It is this same Spirit that gifts us with courage as we face the challenges of our day: living through a pandemic, the death of loved ones, a divided nation, and violence at home and in our world. It is the same Spirit that will lead us and guide us through the present restructuring of our two parishes – unifying us as one community of faith – one in the God who loves each one of us – with no exceptions.

Some of our spiritual writers tell us that today we are in a spiritual crisis. We have lost our center, our foundation, our moral compass. We have in a sense "a hole in our soul." We need to remember the power of the Spirit who is alive and well in each one of us!

Each of us who been confirmed has been sealed with the gift of the Spirit, who offers us seven gifts. As you read through this list below, you might want to ask yourself: with all that is going on in my life, in our nation and world, in our church today which gift of the Spirit might I need to awaken within?

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit:

Wisdom: opens our eyes to the beauty and presence of God in our world. Wisdom offers us a deeper knowing of God's dream for us.

Knowledge: encourages us to enter into the Mystery of who God is through contemplation and meditation. It is a time of quiet 'being with' the presence of God.

Understanding: uses self-knowledge as a way to God-knowledge. By being attentive to our human and spiritual development, we grow into the image and likeness of God.

Courage (Fortitude): supports us as we live the hard moments of our lives when our faith and our world collide and we are called to be 'counter cultural'.

Counsel (Right Judgment): reminds us to develop a deeply committed and rightly formed conscience that can guide us through the moral dilemma that we face.

Piety (Reverence): teaches us respect for life, all life, from womb to tomb, and all people, those we love and those who are difficult to love.

Wonder and Awe (Fear of the Lord): helps us to realize us that the God who created us, and all that is, is the God whose life flows through our very selves.

We know that these gifts of the Spirit are not separate gifts but an integrated way of life. How can these gifts enable you to live a life of peace and harmony, compassion and care, forgiveness and reconciliation?

May we become more conscious of the power of the Spirit to transform our lives and to enable us to confront the challenges of our world today.

Come, Spirit of God, Come
Rest upon me
Open my eyes to see
My heart to respond
To the challenges and injustices
Of our nation, our world, our church today.
May we always be Peaceful and Joyful Followers of the One who calls to us each day ~
Jesus the Christ!

New changes and next steps for our community of faith:

As of Saturday, May 22, 2021, the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass in person on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation will no longer be in force. However, since the risk of infection, though diminished, still remains, the following individuals may very legitimately decide not yet to attend church: those suffering from serious pre-existing conditions making them more susceptible to COVID-19; those who are ill or homebound or who are caregivers in close contact with someone who is; those who have tested positive for any contagious disease, including COVID-19; and those who are in quarantine due to exposure to any contagion, or who reside with someone who is quarantined.

NEW DIRECTIVES AS OF MAY 19, 2021

General Guidelines:

1- 100% capacity with no need for any specific social distancing. Please be aware personal space and of the comfort of others as we adjust to this change.

2- Masks required for all who enter the church and during all Masses

3- Holy water font will remain empty. If you need Holy Water please let us know.

4- Hymnals have been ordered and can be used during the liturgy.

5- bulletins will be available at the conclusion of Mass at the exit doors.

6- Pew barriers and tape, signs, etc. will be removed.

7- We will provide ventilation by periodically opening doors and as weather conditions permit.

8- People can use all meeting areas of the church, gather in the atrium but all should take care to consider the space and well-being of others in their vicinity.

9- Reservations or signing in for Mass are no longer required.

Liturgical Guidelines:

1- One adult may serve as an altar server. Youth may not serve at this time.

2- No offertory procession.

3- Congregational singing is allowed but with masks that must remain on during the entire liturgy.

4- Choirs can sing when it is determined appropriate to resume their ministry

5- Offertory collections will be held at entrance or exit areas. Baskets will be placed near the Baptismal font and exit areas. Please sign up for Online Giving or text to GIVE (See page 6 for instructions).

6- The Sign of Peace can be exchanged without touching.

7- The COVID-19 procedures for distributing Holy Communion will remain in place for now:

- Ministers of Holy Communion sanitize their hands prior to distributing.
- Both the ministers of Holy Communion and those receiving are to wear masks.
- Communicants will receive the consecrated host in their hand, step to the side, lower their mask, consume the host, replace their mask, return to their pew.
- Communion on the tongue should continue to be discouraged for the sake of the health of others. Those who receive in this manner should receive only after everyone else has received.
- There is still to be no distribution of the Precious Blood.

8- Eucharist to the homebound in private homes will resume. Contact Sr. Pat: spt@shcsby.org 203-264-5071 for information.

Thank you Fr. Joe! We will miss you.

If you would like to share a favorite memory, quote or thought in the next two bulletins and Friday email blasts, email ami@shcsby.org.

He's the best, without a doubt he'll be missed!!! -Linda Rubino

We always felt a sense of excitement when we saw Father Joe approach the altar to begin Mass. -Mary Lou and Jack Wohlhieter

Estee & I are going to miss you. Thank you especially for your very well prepared sermons. Of all the Catholic Churches that I've been to, by far, you have distinguished yourself as the best preacher, so easy to understand!!! -Dennis Lacilla

I got married in the Monastery Church of the Sacred Heart in Yonkers, NY 52 years ago and I was delighted when I moved to Heritage Village 6 years ago, that the church I would be attending in this stage of my life would also be Sacred Heart. My husband and I have always enjoyed Fr. Joe's homilies and his wonderful sense of humor. He makes the Gospel very clear and understanding and you come away really knowing more about your faith. Thank you Msgr. Donnelly and good health in whatever you do in your retirement. Peace, Joy, Love.
-Dorothy and John Kowalski

Fr. Joe, We have loved every word of your homilies, especially when you get "in the weeds"! We were lifted and comforted by your message at personal events and cheered when you confronted the world's social issues. Bravo, Amigo! You guided our faith and hope through the pandemic like no other person ever could. Wishing you every good thing for your future. With love and gratitude. -Margie and Bob Smith

Knights of Columbus Council 5066 would like to thank Father Joe for all of his years of service to Sacred Heart Parish, its parishioners and the greater Southbury Community. Thank you Father Joe. We wish you all the best!

Our God is a God of Love not fear. Now... go spread the Word, we are all disciples of Jesus. The Bible is full of love stories from Our Lord. Favorite messages Fr. Joe -Joan Geise

When I think of Fr Joe quotes, two come to mind. 1) we should exert a different kind of presence. And 2) (he's said this to my kids a lot) "Follow the question." When they are questioning their faith. Don't give up your faith because you have questions. Follow through question. -Marion Manzo

Thank you Fr. Joe for all your devotion and beautiful sermons. You will be greatly missed. Hope you enjoy your golden years.
-Robert Marzinotto

Best wishes to Fr. Joe. -Arthur Walsh

I am very sad that you are retiring. You are a wonder and have led the parish to do things that are involving us in society. But you deserve to retire. Enjoy your retirement, knowing you have left a legacy which will live on. -Denise Linden

Our 1964 SHHS yearbook read about Father Joe "The smile on his face is but a reflection of the feeling in his heart" - Father Joe you knew then how to guide & challenge us - what a privilege it has been to be part of your journey. -Kate McGuinness Hartley

I will always be grateful for Father Joe's validation and naming of my God sightings. -Carole Baldassano
