A Prayer for Our Priests

Jesus, Eternal High Priest,
you came to us to save us from our sins and to open heaven for us.
Before you died for us, you gave us the holy priesthood and the Eucharist at the Last Supper.
We thank you for our priest, who is your minister to help us grow in holiness and to attain heaven.
We are grateful for the many gifts that he brings to our community:
for leading us together in Eucharistic worship,
for baptizing our children,
for visiting us in our homes,
for comforting us in sickness,
for blessing our marriage,
for forgiving us our sins,
for supporting us in sorrow,
for helping us to grow in faith,
for inspiring us to be saints.
We want to be always be attentive to our priest, and never to take him for granted.
He needs our friendship and love, kind words and acts of thoughtfulness,
and our prayers and sacrifices.
Dear Lord, we ask you to bless our priest and confirm him in his vocation.
Give him the gifts that he needs to shepherd us in holiness, strength and joy.
We offer to you this prayer for our priest, who is our father, brother, and friend. Amen.

St. John the Baptist Food Bank News

"Whoever brings blessing will be enriched, and one who waters will himself be watered."
~ Proverbs 11:25

The Food Bank has been very fortunate to have many giving souls willing to serve in the ministry. Some of our volunteers have been with us for more than a decade! It speaks highly of the selfless spirit of our Parish community and the fulfillment found in serving those in need, even in this small way.

While our ranks have been reasonably stable of late, we are still looking to build up a cadre of "on-call" volunteers that can help us with warehouse duties and delivery runs when our regular volunteers are out sick or on vacation (especially with the onset of summer). If you have considered helping us at the Food Bank but can't commit to a regular weekly shift, this might be a good option for you. If you are one of our "on-call" volunteers, we would schedule a time to bring you in and train you in the basic procedures and work here at the warehouse. Then when we know of an upcoming gap in the volunteer schedule, I would send out an email call for anyone available or interested in filling the opening temporarily. There is no expectation or requirement - just offer to help only when you can.

If this is of interest to you, please reach out to me at MichaelM@johnthebaptist.org or call the Food Bank at (303) 678-1469. Please give me your name, your phone and email, and what you imagine your availability would be like. Remember that the Food Bank is open Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays only - and Thursdays are just a half day in the morning and early afternoon.

Thank you for considering helping out with the ministry. And a huge thank you to all our current volunteers who give so much to serve the struggling in our community.

-Michael J. Merrell, Coordinator

Elizabeth Ministry "My soul does magnify the Lord: And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior!"

Happy Feast of the Visitation on May 31st! Elizabeth Ministry is here to share in the joys and hardships of women's childbearing years, visiting one another as Mary did to Elizabeth. Our volunteers bring prayer and resources to the women they visit in order to be a witness of Our Lady's joy in her beautiful hymn of praise and thanksgiving. To set up a visit for yourself or a loved one, contact Sarah Pelster at elizabethministry@johnthebaptist.org, register through the church's website, or visit the church office for more information. Following the example of Mary and Elizabeth, we visit and celebrate the sacredness of all life!

SAINTS AND SCHOLARS: MAKE THE WORLD BETTER

Originally published on Aleteia.org, by Tom Hoopes

God has a master plan to change the world, and we each have a place in it. All we need to do is live the basic vocation of every Christian: Love Jesus Christ as God and love our neighbors as Jesus Christ.

We know the way Jesus put it: "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me." Here are some ways great saints and thinkers put it.

C.S. Lewis put it this way: We live in a society of "possible gods and goddesses."

"The dullest and most uninteresting person you talk to may one day be a creature which, if you saw it now, you would be strongly tempted to worship," he said in his essay The Weight of Glory, "or else a horror and a corruption such as you now meet, if at all, only in a nightmare. All day long we are, in some degree, helping each other to one or other of these destinations."

In fact, "There are no ordinary people. You have never talked to a mere mortal," he said. "Next to the Blessed Sacrament itself, your neighbor is the holiest object presented to your senses."You live surrounded by icons of Christ, waiting for you to serve him through them. That means the key to fulfilling God's will on earth is loving our neighbor as we love ourselves.

Start by loving yourself — because you, too, are an icon of Christ. St. Thérèse of Lisieux said that when we hear that we are worthless or unlovable, we are listening to demons. "Do you realize that Jesus is there in the tabernacle expressly for you — for you alone? He burns with the desire to come into your heart," she said. "Don't listen to the demon, laugh at him, and go without fear to the Jesus of peace and love."

St. John Paul II said even when we feel small, we are great. "Compared to the immensity of the universe, man is very small, and yet this very contrast reveals his greatness: 'You have made him little less than a god, and crown him with glory and honor.'" That includes you.

St. John Henry Newman pointed out that, no matter who you are, God needs you in his plan to reach others. "God has created me to do him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission," he said. "I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons."If that makes you freeze up with fear, don't let it.

St. Edith Stein, the Carmelite nun who took the name Benedicta of the Cross, saw the same thing — but said not to worry if your vocation seems to have gone unfulfilled today. "And when night comes, and you look back over the day and see how fragmentary everything has been, and how much you planned that has gone undone, and all the reasons you have to be embarrassed and ashamed: just take everything exactly as it is, put it in God's hands and leave it with him."

The more you love, even in a small way, the brighter the world becomes. Your smallest service will have enormous results. Our small words and gestures can bring great change. We each know from personal experience that hurtful words or actions can wound for a lifetime — it is all the more true that loving words and actions can change lives.

"Look around us," said Pope Francis. "It is enough to open a newspaper ... we see the presence of evil, the devil is acting. However, I would like to say out loud: God is stronger! Do you believe this, that God is stronger? Let us say it together, let us say it all together: God is stronger! "Our times, dark and marked by evil, can change, if we first bring the light of the Gospel especially through our lives." In an enormous stadium, he said, "if someone turns on a light, you can barely see it but if the other 70,000 spectators turn on their own light, the whole stadium shines. Let our lives together be the one light of Christ; together we will carry the light of the Gospel to the whole of reality."

DINNERTIME DIALOGUES

OUR BODIES ARE MEANINGFUL

Central to all of the Church's teachings concerning bodily morality is the truth that God created our bodies intentionally, and that because of this Divine creative act, they are sacred. Our bodies are not little vehicles for our souls to drive around according to our whims; they are not mere tools to be used to maximize pleasure in this life; and they are not evil prisons to be escaped from through death.

God gave us our bodies as gifts that we might give our bodies away as gifts to God and other humans. Our bodies were given to us in the self-gift of love, so that we might participate in God's Divine love by making ourselves a self-gift of love to others through our bodies.

But we must remember that love is not a warm feeling, it is not a sexual attraction, it is not a passionate obsession. Love is the choice to lay down our lives, and our bodies, for the good of another.

This self-gift of love however is not accomplished in any manner, but instead takes specific forms according to the relationships we are giving ourselves in. In each way that we give ourselves as a self-gift to others, we mirror in part the divine self-gift of love found in the Holy Trinity.

Within families and friendships, we make ourselves gifts to others by caring for one another, by giving of our physical time and energy to one another.

Within marriages, spouses give themselves to one another in the deepest way possible through the marital embrace, which most closely mirrors the Divine Love of the Trinity by participating in the creative nature of the Trinity. Just as the Divine Love of the Trinity is so powerful, the Holy Spirit proceeds from it, in the same way the love of spouses in marriage and the marital embrace is so sacred, new human life can proceed from it.

We also use our gifted bodies to give ourselves to Christ, by living our life for Him. In doing so, we respond to His initial self-gift of His body, which He gives us every day in the Holy Eucharist.

God created our bodies and gave them to us for a purpose, and that purpose is so much more meaningful than to be simple pleasure factories or utilitarian machines for our souls to control. Our bodies were given to us by God out of love, that we might give them away to others in love.

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

1. God gave you the gift of your body for the purpose of self gift to others. How do you use your body?
2. Our world today often proclaims the message that nothing has any meaning, including our body, and the Church strongly disagrees with this. Our body is meaningful, given to us with intentionality and love. How do these differences in viewpoint create differences in how people act with their bodies?

Faith Direct (Ofertorio Semanal)

Con nuestras vidas tan ocupadas y familias activas, a veces se nos olvida la ofrenda semanal. Les invito a unirse a mí y a muchos otros en St. John the Baptist para establecer eGiving recurrente a través de Faith Direct. Gracias a eGiving, su ofrenda semanal será atendida automáticamente, lo que le ahorra tiempo y dinero a nuestra parroquia, al eliminar todos los sobres de ofrenda no utilizados.

¡Comenzar es fácil! Visite faith.direct/CO509.
Gracias por su contínuo apoyo a nuestra familia parroquial.

Oremos por la santificación de nuestros sacerdotes este 11 de junio

Jesús, Sacerdote eterno, tú viniste a salvarnos de nuestros pecados y abrirnos las puertas del Cielo.
A ti que, antes de morir, en la última cena, nos diste el santo sacerdocio y la santa Eucaristía, te damos gracias por nuestros sacerdotes, los ministros que nos ayudan a crecer en santidad y llegar al Cielo.
Te damos gracias por los grandes dones que ofrecen a nuestra comunidad:
por guiarnos en la adoración eucarística,
por bautizar a nuestros hijos,
por visitarnos en el hogar,
por traernos consuelo en la enfermedad,
por bendecir nuestro matrimonio,
por perdonar nuestros pecados,
por apoyarnos en la aflicción,
por ayudarnos a crecer en la fe,
por inspirarnos a la santidad.
Ayúdanos siempre a ser amables con ellos y a valorarlos, pues también necesitan de nuestra amistad y de nuestras oraciones y sacrificios.
Señor, te pedimos que bendigas a nuestros sacerdotes y los confirmes en su vocación. Dales los dones necesarios para cuidar de su rebaño con santidad, fortaleza y alegría.
Elevamos a ti, Señor Jesús, nuestras oraciones por los sacerdotes, que son para nosotros padres, hermanos y amigos.
Amén.
