PALM SUNDAY

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

Llevaron el burro, le echaron encima los mantos y Jesús montó en él. Muchos extendían su manto en el camino, y otros lo tapizaban con ramas cortadas en el campo. - Mc 11, 7-8

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestra defensa contra la maldad y las trampas del diablo; Que Dios lo reprenda, humildemente oramos; Y tú, príncipe de la hueste celestial, por el poder de Dios, arrojas al infierno a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malignos que merodean por el mundo buscando la ruina de las almas. The Mystery of Evil

On Palm Sunday each year, we hear about the passion of Jesus in which we see evil on full display. We see envy, violence, cowardice, injustice, and cruelty. In front of the mystery of evil, the Church continues to assert that God is all good, all powerful and is Love itself. What can we understand about the mystery of evil?

God created everything and saw that it was good. Free will is a part of the created world. Evil is not something that exists by itself; pure evil does not exist. Evil is not something like goodness; rather, evil is the lack of goodness. Evil is a turning away from what is good, using something for a purpose other than what it was intended; evil is preventing growth and fullness of being. The only arena which exists for operating is the created world which is good. The only agents are beings which are also good. Evil is a twisting of good things.

The parable of the wheat and the weeds speaks of allowing the two to grow together; there is no other option. Evil exists with what is good. Whatever evil occurs, good is necessarily present as well. The devil exists who God created as an angel of light. The devil tricks us by presenting lies, presenting something as bringing us happiness when, in fact, it produces harm. The devil has to work with what is good.

We cannot label anyone as 100% evil. Every person God created out of love and continues to exist because God loves him or her. The person may be deceived and may harm others but be convinced that good is being done. When we experience evil, we may become angry or confused but nothing happens outside of God's providence. God has not lost control and there is no chance that evil will be more powerful than goodness.

It is interesting that in front of the injustice, pain, lies, and suffering which Jesus experienced in the flesh, he did not get angry and fight back. He was silent and carried the cross and did not resist being crucified. He was like a lamb brought to the slaughter. We also witness that the Virgin Mary was silent in front of the atrocity of the death of her son. They both saw the deeper reality of evil. They both had a confidence in the goodness of God. They knew that from all the evil that was present, the Father was going to take out a greater good. Jesus prayed, "Father, forgive them, they do not know what they are doing." They both knew that one is not able to fight evil with evil, but the only answer is by responding with love which conquers all things.

Evil is a mystery which we cannot fully comprehend. Let us not doubt the goodness or wisdom of God. Evil is not something of which to be afraid. It is good on this day to reflect some on evil, but in the end, we lift our eyes and focus on God. In Jesus, God has taken upon himself the consequence of all the evil that exists and the resurrection shows us that life is greater than death and love is greater than evil.

May you have a blessed Holy Week. God bless, Fr. Mark

CARTA DE NUESTRO PASTOR

El Misterio del mal

El Domingo de Ramos de cada año, escuchamos sobre la pasión de Jesús en la que vemos el mal en plena exhibición. Vemos la envidia, violencia, cobardía, injusticia y crueldad. Frente al misterio del mal, la Iglesia sigue afirmando que Dios es todo bien, todopoderoso y es el mismo Amor.

¿Qué podemos entender sobre el misterio del mal?

Dios creó todo y vio que era bueno. El libre albedrío es parte del mundo creado. El mal no es algo que exista por sí mismo; el mal puro no existe. El mal no es algo parecido a la bondad; más bien, el mal es la falta de bondad. El mal es apartarse de lo bueno, usar algo para un propósito diferente al que se pretendía; el mal está impidiendo el crecimiento y la plenitud del ser. La única arena que existe para operar es el mundo creado que es bueno. Los únicos agentes son seres que también son buenos. El mal es una tergiversación de las cosas buenas.

La parábola del trigo y la mala hierba habla de permitir que los dos crezcan juntos; No hay otra opción. El mal existe con el bien. Cualquier mal que ocurra, el bien está necesariamente presente también. Existe el diablo a quien Dios creó como ángel de luz. El diablo nos engaña presentándonos mentiras, presentando algo que nos trae felicidad cuando, de hecho, produce daño. El diablo tiene que trabajar con lo bueno.

No podemos etiquetar a nadie como 100% malvado. Cada persona que Dios creó por amor y continúa existiendo porque Dios la ama. La persona puede ser engañada y puede dañar a otros, pero estar convencida de que se está haciendo bien. Cuando experimentamos el mal, podemos enojarnos o confundirnos, pero nada sucede fuera de la providencia de Dios. Dios no ha perdido el control y no hay posibilidad de que el mal sea más poderoso que el bien.

Es interesante que frente a la injusticia, el dolor, la mentira y el sufrimiento que Jesús experimentó en la carne, no se enojó ni se defendió. Él guardó silencio y cargó la cruz y no resistió ser crucificado. Era como un cordero llevado al matadero. También somos testigos de que la Virgen María guardó silencio ante la atrocidad de la muerte de su hijo. Ambos vieron la realidad más profunda del mal. Ambos tenían confianza en la bondad de Dios. Sabían que de todo el mal que estaba presente, el Padre iba a sacar un bien mayor. Jesús oró: "Padre, perdónalos, no saben lo que hacen". Ambos sabían que no se puede luchar contra el mal con el mal, pero la única respuesta es responder con el amor que todo lo conquista.

El mal es un misterio que no podemos comprender completamente. No dudemos de la bondad o sabiduría de Dios. El mal no es algo a lo que temer. Es bueno en este día reflexionar sobre el mal, pero al final, levantamos nuestros ojos y nos enfocamos en Dios. En Jesús, Dios ha asumido la consecuencia de todo el mal que existe y la resurrección nos muestra que la vida es más grande que la muerte y el amor es más grande que el mal.

Que tengan una Semana Santa llena de bendiciones. Dios los bendiga,

Padre Mark .
