SAINT MARTHA

Saint Martha is the patron Saint of homemakers and cooks. She is our patroness for whom Jesus was like family. She is, therefore, one of the most powerful patron saints in the presence of God for intercession with home duties related to hospitality. Feast Day is July 29.

CHILD PROTECTION TRAINING:

Attention all members of various organizations that serve in the church. If you are 18 and older you are required to take the online course Abuse Awareness Training; Creating a Safe Environment for Our Children Workshop, sponsored by the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. Visit archdiosf.org; first click "Links", then click VIRTUS online Training. At the end of the Training download a Certificate of completion and send it to the Parish Office. Workshops are good for five years. If you are not sure if you are up to date, call the Religious Education Office at (505) 455-2267 to check your status.

MEDITATION ON TODAY'S READINGS

God calls us to communicate with him often. How do we talk to God? In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that God our Father always hears our prayers. What did one of the disciples ask Jesus to teach them? Jesus tells us to pray often. God loves us and reaches out to us. We respond by praying to him. We can tell God our hopes, fears, and needs. We can pray to him anytime and anywhere, in good times and in hard times. We can thank him for loving us and sending his Son, Jesus, to save us. In this Sunday's Gospel Jesus teaches us that God our Father is always accessible and that prayer is one of the most important ways that we can communicate with him. Jesus even gave us the words we can use to talk to God in prayer. Amen

FAMILY CONNECTION

When someone in our family is going through a hard time, we can't just sit by and watch. We try to do everything we can to let him or her know that he or she is not alone. Sometimes we even try to find a special gift for him or her-something that will help that person to understand how important he or she is to us. Talk about times in your family when this has happened. Like a good father, God saw that his children needed help. He decided to offer his beloved children a special gift to reveal his love. What did God give us? Not a thing, but a person-the Father's beloved Son, Jesus. Jesus, in turn taught us to approach God as we would approach a loving father. He gave us the words of a prayer that we call the Our Father, or the Lord's Prayer. Think of times when family members were persistent about something until they were able to achieve a goal or receive what they sought. Talk about what it means to be persistent in prayer. Help your children understand that prayer is not like sitting on Santa Claus's lap, asking for what we want, until we get it. Emphasize that prayer is a way of striving to recognize how God is reaching out to us in love.

NSDG COVID-19 POLICIES

The Archdiocese has given the Parish Priest the discretion to mandate their own COVID-19 Policies. Masks will be Optional while attending Mass. However, they remain strongly recommended for those over 65, with medical conditions that make them more vulnerable to the virus and those that are unvaccinated. If you are serving at the Altar, (Deacon, Acolyte, Lector, Cantor, EM, or any Server) you MUST wear a Mask at All Times. All ministries who participate must be fully vaccinated with proof of card on file and have taken the Child Protection Training ages 18 and above. ASF Policy: Parish Staff must be fully vaccinated with proof of card on file or adhere to weekly testing. Dispensation from attending Mass remains; Spanish and English Videos are recorded so as to serve for the homebound or those fearful. Thank you for your continued cooperation.
UNLESS YOU ARE A SCHEDULED MINISTER FOR THE WEEKEND, Father Frank has asked that everyone stays out of the Sacristy. This is to protect Father, Monsignor and the Deacons or Ministers that may be present in the Sacristy before or after Mass.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Abraham pleads with God to save the innocent people of Sodom and Gomorrah.
Responsorial Psalm: Lord, on the day I cried for help, you answered me.
Second Reading: You were buried with Christ in Baptism and also raised with him.
Luke 11:1-13

Luke gives more attention to Jesus's teachings on prayer than any other Gospel writer. He also mentions Jesus at prayer more than the others. In today's reading, from the beginning of Chapter 11 of his Gospel, Luke presents the core of Jesus's teaching on prayer. It consists of Jesus teaching a prayer to his disciples, a parable on the persistent neighbor, and assurances that God hears our prayers. The disciples notice Jesus praying "in a certain place." They ask him to teach them to pray just as John the Baptist had taught his disciples. Jesus teaches them a simple version of the most famous Christian prayer, the Our Father, or the Lord's Prayer. Matthew's version shows signs of being shaped by the public prayer. Luke's version is probably closer to the original form that Jesus taught. Stripped of much of the language we are used to, Luke's version seems simple and direct. We pray that God's name will be recognized as holy and that his rule over all will be established. This is followed by petitions for our needs for bread, for forgiveness, and for deliverance. Luke uses the more theological language of "sins" rather than "debts," which is used in Matthew's version. This teaches us that if we seek, we will get a response. If a human father, with all his family, with all his faults, knows how to give good gifts to his children, how much more will our heavenly Father give us? Jesus teaches in his model prayer, which rules over all things.
