Dear Brothers and Sisters,

At this Easter time, Christ's Resurrection is at the heart of liturgical texts. They invite us to deepen the presence and action of the Risen Lord in our midst. We are not content to affirm that Christ overcame death. We're interested in discovering what this means for our lives.

Catholic doctrine teaches us that we will partake of the fruits of the Resurrection in heaven. But this new life begins already on this earth. The new man and woman in God that we are to become, Saints among Saints, is already occurring on this earth.

How do you recognize the Saint? They are recognized for this new spirit. And that new spirit is nothing but the spirit of love that Christ speaks of to us in today's gospel: "This is my commandment: that you love one another as I have loved you."

Faced with the wide variety of precepts and laws of the Old Testament, Christ gives us a compendium, a brief synthesis of all the commandments: LOVE. It is the first commandment, it is the alpha and omega, it is the perfect fulfillment of the whole law.
The characteristic hallmark of Jesus' disciple, of the Saint, is love for one's neighbor. But that love for our fellow man springs up and feeds endlessly on a true love for God.

And if we wonder why love is so important in human life, then St. John gives us a brief and clear answer, in today's second reading: "God is love".

This means that the main reason for every divine work is his love. All other attributes - such as justice or power are driven truthfully by love. Finally, it means that God does everything for love, love, and love.

Out of love he created us, and out of love he sent us the Redeemer: "God so loved the world, that He gave him his only Son" (Jn 3:16). Out of love, he sent us to the Holy Spirit. All the events of our lives, it is He who finally wants them, sets them up or allows them, out of love for us.

Love is the universal law. And Jesus Christ, who is the love of God incarnate, more perfectly represents and interprets that universal law. Because love is throughout His life, the great force that keeps incessantly moving all the energies of His body and soul.

When Jesus Christ asks us for love as the hallmark of those who want to follow Him, then it means: love must also become the great basic law of our lives and our growth. And we always have a lot of opportunities to live that specifically. There are so many brothers and sisters who suffer from economic problems, marginalization, poverty, injustice, corruption, disease, loneliness, and many other evils.

The Virgin Mary teaches us that love impels us, leads us to be supportive and compassionate. She shares her life and devotion with St. Joseph her husband. Share her mission with her beloved child Jesus. With her cousin Elizabeth, pregnant and in need, Mary takes care of her. With the Bride and Groom at Cana, her concern and advocacy toward Jesus brings forth the first miracle of water into wine
Her inner solidarity in love has become solidarity in life and tangible in her good actions toward others, solidarity in their journeys and tasks, solidarity in times of work and in affliction.

Dear brothers and sisters, as in St. Mary's life, solidarity must also grow in us and be expressed in effective dedication and service to others. It should lead us to help those we love, to be part of the solutions with regards to feeding the hungry, caring for those afflicted with illness, housing the homeless, and employing the indigent. All of this deepens our love for all and makes of us and our lives a foretaste of perfect and total communion in heaven.

Gratefully yours in Jesus,

Fr. Paul Ybarra, C.S.C.
Pastor

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

En este tiempo de Pascua, la Resurrección de Cristo está en el centro de los textos litúrgicos. Nos invitan a profundizar en la presencia y la acción del Señor resucitado en medio de nosotros. No nos conformamos con afirmar que Cristo venció a la muerte. Nos interesa descubrir lo que esto significa para nuestra vida.

La doctrina católica nos enseña que participaremos de los frutos de la Resurrección en el cielo. Pero esta nueva vida comienza ya en esta tierra. El hombre nuevo y la mujer nueva en Dios, en los que nos convertiremos, santos entre los santos, ya está ocurriendo en esta tierra.

¿Cómo se reconoce al Santo? Se les reconoce por ese espíritu nuevo. Y ese espíritu nuevo no es otra cosa que el espíritu de amor del que nos habla Cristo en el evangelio de hoy: "Este es mi mandamiento: que os améis unos a otros como yo os he amado".

Frente a la gran variedad de preceptos y leyes del Antiguo Testamento, Cristo nos da un compendio, una breve síntesis de todos los mandamientos:
EL AMOR. Es el primer mandamiento, es el alfa y omega, es el cumplimiento perfecto de toda la ley.
El sello característico del discípulo de Jesús, del Santo, es el amor al prójimo. Pero ese amor al prójimo brota y se alimenta sin cesar de un verdadero amor a Dios.

Y si nos preguntamos por qué el amor es tan importante en la vida humana, San Juan nos da una respuesta breve y clara, en la segunda lectura de hoy: "Dios es amor".

Esto significa que la razón principal de toda obra divina es su amor. Todos los demás atributos, como la justicia o el poder, son impulsados verdaderamente por el amor. Por último, significa que Dios lo hace todo por amor, amor y amor.

Por amor nos creó, y por amor nos envió al Redentor: "Tanto amó Dios al mundo, que le entregó a su Hijo único" (Jn 3,16). Por amor nos envió al Espíritu Santo. Todos los acontecimientos de nuestra vida, es Él quien finalmente los quiere, los establece o los permite, por amor a nosotros.

El amor es la ley universal. Y Jesucristo, que es el amor de Dios encarnado, representa e interpreta más perfectamente esa ley universal. Porque el amor es a lo largo de Su vida, la gran fuerza que mantiene incesantemente en movimiento todas las energías de Su cuerpo y de Su alma.

Cuando Jesucristo nos pide que el amor sea el distintivo de los que quieren seguirle, entonces significa: el amor debe convertirse también en la gran ley básica de nuestra vida y de nuestro crecimiento. Y siempre tenemos muchas oportunidades de vivirlo específicamente. Hay tantos hermanos y hermanas que sufren problemas económicos, marginación, pobreza, injusticia, corrupción, enfermedad, soledad y muchos otros males.

La Virgen María nos enseña que el amor nos impulsa, nos lleva a ser solidarios y compasivos. Comparte su vida y su devoción con San José, su esposo. Comparte su misión con su amado hijo Jesús. Con su prima Isabel, embarazada y necesitada, María la cuida. Con los novios en Caná, su preocupación y defensa hacia Jesús hace que se produzca el primer milagro de convertir el agua en vino
Su solidaridad interior en el amor se ha convertido en solidaridad en la vida y tangible en sus buenas acciones hacia los demás, solidaridad en sus viajes y tareas, solidaridad en los momentos de trabajo y en la aflicción.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, como en la vida de Santa María, la solidaridad debe crecer también en nosotros y expresarse en la entrega efectiva y en el servicio a los demás. Debe llevarnos a ayudar a los que amamos, a ser parte de las soluciones en lo que se refiere a alimentar a los hambrientos, a cuidar a los afligidos por la enfermedad, a alojar a los sin techo y a dar empleo a los indigentes. Todo esto profundiza nuestro amor por todos y hace de nosotros y de nuestras vidas un anticipo de la comunión perfecta y total en el cielo.

Agradecidamente vuestro en Cristo,

Padre Pablo Ybarra, C.S.C.
Párroco

Veneremur Cernui Discussion Group

On this year's Holy Thursday, 4/1/2021, our Bishop Thomas Olmsted issued a new Apostolic Exhortation on the Eucharist, titled Veneremur Cernui - Down in Adoration Falling. Our Bishop has issued this not just for Priests, Deacons, Religious, but also all the Lay Faithful of the Diocese of Phoenix about the most important and central teaching of our faith. As Bishop Thomas encourages us in the opening paragraph: "This is not a teaching that can be dumbed down or oversimplified. This is a truth that we need to be clear and certain about. Be bold, then! Take up and read, drink in the truth, discuss and share it with others and allow Jesus, truly present in the Eucharist, to conform you further to Himself and fulfill the deepest longings of your heart." With that in mind, here at St. John Vianney Parish Fr. Brian and Fr. David will be offering two sessions of discussion on Veneremur Cernui and invite all parishioners to join! We will not be live streaming these discussion events, but we will be making a more concise video in the future for our YouTube channel that will incorporate points of discussion brought up at our sessions. Reading the exhortation for these sessions is highly encouraged, and you can find a link to the complete document here:

https://dphx.org/veneremur-cernui/.

Veneremur Cernui Grupo de Discusión

En el Jueves Santo de este año, nuestro Obispo Thomas Olmsted publicó una nueva Exhortación Apostólica sobre la Eucaristía, titulada Veneremur Cernui - veneremos inclinados. Nuestro Obispo ha publicado esto no sólo para Sacerdotes, Diáconos, Religiosos, sino también para todos los Fieles Laicos de la Diócesis de Phoenix sobre la enseñanza más importante y central de nuestra fe. Como el Obispo Thomas nos anima en el párrafo inicial: "No es una enseñanza que pueda ser simplificada. Es una verdad que debemos tener clara y segura. ¡Sean audaz! Decídanse y léanla, beban la verdad, dialoguen sobre ella y compártanla con los demás. Permitan que Jesús, realmente presente en la Eucaristía, los conforme aún más a Él y colme los anhelos más profundos de su corazón."Teniendo esto en cuenta, aquí en la Parroquia de San Juan Vianney el P. Brian y el P. David ofrecerán dos sesiones de discusión sobre Veneremur Cernui e invitan a todos los feligreses a unirse. No transmitiremos en vivo estos eventos de discusión, pero haremos un video más conciso en el futuro para nuestro canal de YouTube que incorporará los puntos de discusión presentados en nuestras sesiones. Se recomienda leer la exhortación para estas sesiones, y puede encontrar un enlace al documento completo aquí: https://dphx.org/veneremur-cernui-veneremos-inclinados/.
