"One" Less Word at Mass

On Ash Wednesday, we began using one word less often at Mass: "one."

We're all used to this formula that ends many prayers in our liturgies and devotions: "...in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever."

That "one" has no equivalent in the original Latin prayers, and the Holy See, through its Congregation for Divine Worship, has directed that the English translations correct this. The American bishops decided that this change was to go into effect on Ash Wednesday, dropping the word "one."

Does this indicate a change in our fundamental Trinitarian theology? Are we all becoming polytheists!? Absolutely not. God is still a Unity in Trinity: one God, three Divine Persons. The word "God" in the formula above refers grammatically to Christ specifically, so it's making a statement about His divinity, not about the unity of the triune God.

Social Justice Corner

Our social teaching on solidarity inform us that we are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers and sisters keepers, wherever they may be. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Pope Paul VI taught that if you want peace, work for justice.

A true champion of justice and equality is the late Sister Thea Bowman. Sister Thea devoted her life to sharing her rich African American Catholic heritage and spirituality in song, prayer, teaching and preaching. In 2018, Bishops in the United States unanimously endorsed the “cause for canonization” for Bowman at their fall assembly in Baltimore.

You can find Sr. Thea's June 1989 address to the U.S. Catholic Bishops on Black Catholic Spirituality by visiting the USCCB's YouTube Channel ("Sr. Thea's Address to U.S. Bishops").

Visit the CTK website to learn more about the Social Justice Commission and their work.

FOCUS at CTK Next Weekend

Next weekend, Father Michael Drea will be visiting on behalf of Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS). Fr. Michael Drea serves at the National Chaplain for Mission Development for FOCUS. He was ordained in 2004 by Sean Cardinal O'Malley for service in the Archdiocese of Boston. Prior to his role at FOCUS, he served for seven years as Senior Catholic Chaplain at Harvard University where he invited FOCUS to serve with him on campus.

FOCUS is a national organization serving college students on more than 180 campuses across the United States and five international locations. Fr. Drea is excited to be with our parish soon to share the hope of the New Evangelization. To learn more, please visit www.focus.org.

Faith & Works Annual Appeal

The Diocese of Tulsa and Eastern Oklahoma Faith & Works Annual Appeal is currently underway. With your generosity, this campaign provides ministry resources and services across our diocese that no single parish could otherwise provide. We hope you will prayerfully consider supporting the campaign at Mass today (envelopes) or you can give online anytime at dioceseoftulsa.org/annualappeal.

"Your support of the annual appeal makes it possible for us to share the love of Jesus Christ in homes, parishes and communities throughout eastern Oklahoma."

-Bishop Konderla

RISE Matching Challenge Grant

Marquette's Religious Inclusive Student Education Program (RISE) has been blessed with a $50,000 matching grant once again. Thanks to our generous community, we've fulfilled every requirement this year EXCEPT for the donor's request to launch a new campaign for recurring monthly gifts. This new component requires us to raise a grand total of $10,000 via monthly gifts made over a 12-month time frame. There are no restrictions on the number of donors or individual gift amounts.

If you are interested in setting up a recurring gift, please visit our website ("Online Giving" then click "Give Now" and select "RISE - Challenge Grant" fund). Thank you in advance for your consideration to help our extraordinary students benefit from an inclusive Catholic education!
