SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that Thou art really present * in the most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love Thee above everything else, * and I long to receive Thee into my soul. * I cannot now receive Thee in Holy Communion, * but I beg Thee * to come to me at least spiritually. * I embrace Thee as already here, * and unite myself entirely to Thee. * Grant that I may never be separated from Thee!

Plenary Indulgence—Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe

A plenary indulgence associated with the celebration of the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe has been proclaimed formally by Cardinal Mauro Piacenza, head of the Apostolic Penitentiary—the Vatican tribunal that deals with matters of conscience and indulgences. An indulgence is the remission of the temporal punishment one deserves for one's sins. Noting that the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe is closed for her feast to prevent the spread of COVID-19, Pope Francis said Catholics still can receive a plenary indulgence Dec. 11 and 12 for their Marian devotion if they follow certain conditions.
To receive the indulgence the following conditions must be met.

-- Prepare an altar or place of prayer to Our Lady of Guadalupe at home.

-- Watch a livestream or televised Mass at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City Dec. 12, "actively participating ... with devotion and with exclusive attention to the Eucharist." It said Masses could be accessed at www.youtube.com/user/BasilicadeGuadalupe at midnight or 12 p.m. CST.

-- Complete the usual conditions for an indulgence by praying for the pope's intentions, being in a state of grace after confession, attending a full Mass and receiving Communion.

The letter said the last three conditions "can be fulfilled when public health guidance allow."

Una Indulgencia Plenaria asociada con la celebración de la fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe ha sido proclamada formalmente por el cardenal Mauro Piacenza, líder de la Penitenciaría Apostólica - el tribunal del Vaticano que se ocupa de asuntos de conciencia e indulgencias. Una indulgencia es la remisión del castigo temporal que uno merece por sus pecados. Señaló que la Basílica de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe está cerrada y para evitar la propagación del COVID-19, el Papa Francisco indicó que los católicos aún podrán recibir una indulgencia plenaria el 11 y 12 de diciembre por su devoción mariana si siguen ciertas condiciones.
Para recibir la indulgencia deben cumplirse las siguientes condiciones.

- En su hogar preparar un altar o un lugar de oración a Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe.

- Vea una transmisión en vivo o una Misa televisada desde la Basílica de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe en la Ciudad de México el 12 de diciembre, "participando activamente ... con devoción y con atención exclusiva a la Eucaristía". Se puede acceder a las misas en www.youtube.com/user/BasilicadeGuadalupe a la medianoche o a las 12 p.m. CST.

- Cumplir las condiciones usuales para una indulgencia rezando por las intenciones del Papa, estando en estado de gracia después de la confesión, asistiendo a una Misa completa y recibiendo la Comunión.

La carta decía que las últimas tres condiciones "pueden cumplirse cuando las guías de salud publicadas lo permitan".
