St. Matthew's Catholic Community is a place of welcome, worship and deepening conversion centered on Christ in the Eucharist. To cultivate holiness, we proclaim the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments, and accompany one another through life. We invite all to participate in the fullness of the Paschal Mystery, where we are healed and transformed by the life, death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, then sent into the world as living symbols of His presence.

Mass Intentions

The dispensation from the Sunday Mass obligation is still in effect for the Diocese of Cheyenne. St. Matthew's will continue live-streaming the 9 a.m. Sunday Mass for the foreseeable future for those who are not able to be in attendance for the celebration. Due to diocesan protocols, we are still maintaining as much spacing as possible between families and using face coverings. We are also inviting people forward to receive communion by the hand.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

What are the requirements for being a confirmation sponsor?

Answer:

Although many dioceses have specific requirements for who can be a sponsor for the Sacrament of Confirmation, the Code of Canon Law identifies certain requirements that are true for all dioceses and parishes. First, the sponsor should be chosen by the one to be confirmed (or, in some cases, by the parents or even the pastor). Second, a sponsor must be at least sixteen years old (unless the local bishop has chosen another age, or a special exception has been made). Third, the sponsor must be a Catholic who has been confirmed and who has already received the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Beyond this, they must lead "a life of faith in keeping with the function to be taken on." Fourth, they can have no sort of canonical penalty or impediment. Finally, they cannot be either the father or mother of the one to be confirmed (See Canons 893, §1 and 874, §1).

In some cultures, it is customary for one of the confirmand's godparents to act as sponsor, although this is not required by Church law.

To learn about the requirements for your parish or diocese, you can consult your pastor or your parish or diocesan director of religious education or the diocese's office liturgy and worship.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Confidence in Princes

Have you ever confided your problems to a friend, only to get the answer, "have you prayed about it as much as you've talked about it?"

Like all good advice, it can really irritate the recipient at first. Here I am, vulnerable and wounded, unloading my problems, and this joker tries to load them right back up and ship them off to Someone with a higher pay grade.

But again, like all good and irritating advice, it rings true if you sit and think about it.

Sure, venting is helpful. We all need that friend or family member who can listen to our problems. But if we ever start to think that person can solve them, it's a good sign that we're losing perspective.

Are you looking to the world for an answer? Are you looking in the mirror, expecting to find a solution to your problems? Are you expecting happiness, peace, contentment or justice to come from any place other than God?

"It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in princes," the Psalms tell us. Well, I've never put much confidence in princes. But when it comes to problems, I often find myself telling God to take a step back — "I've got this."

It's tough to pray about any problem as much as you talk about it. We want so badly to tackle the issue ourselves. But I'll let you in on a secret: it doesn't matter what the question is, we don't have the answer. Take it to the One who does.

Liturgy

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

4th Sunday of Easter

Acts 4:8-12; Ps 118:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29 [22];
1 Jn 3:1-2; Jn 10:11-18

Any builder worth his or her salt knows the value and importance of a cornerstone. Properly laying and securing this primary unit determines how the rest of the project unfolds and its success. Cornerstones are necessary elements not only of buildings but of lives as well. Many human beings conduct the business of their lives paying little attention to a grounding reference or starting point. Hence, what unfolds is a tapestry of relativism, with few anchors or guideposts and many impulsive choices. Some consider love to be their cornerstone. While this may sound attractive and useful, the pursuit of love without a simultaneous pursuit of its source can be shallow and self-focused. Just because a person chooses to do no harm and love others does not mean that they are living in truth and properly anchored to the real cornerstone.

Jesus is the true and authentic cornerstone and shepherd. It is only in following the Risen One as the way, the truth, and the life that we can move from being well grounded ethical people to properly focused moral ones. Proper conduct, a true sense of justice, wisdom, virtue, moral principles, faith, hope, and love will be difficult to find unless we listen to the right Voice. It is when we learn to listen to the voice of God that we begin our journey on the road to salvation. It is only the Good Shepherd, the authentic and solid cornerstone, who can guide us through life's questions and challenges and bring us to the safe and proper pasture.

A person's life only has meaning when the cornerstone is properly selected and set. Understanding themselves only as random acts of creation, existing without intent or purpose, will color their choices and influence their decisions. The foundation of their lives will be simply a matter of preference and choice, leaving benchmarks of growth and higher ideals optional to pursue. Whereas people who believe that they are fashioned and loved into existence by a God who purposely made them, have this incredible unconditional relationship at their source which has tremendous significance. Their allegiance is not to themselves but to their Creator. Life, then, is an adventure in search of this Creator God and a journey of self-discovery that seeks to unite their will to His. There is a cost. We have to give up our life in order to gain our life. As ironic as that sounds, it is true. It is only when we finally figure this out that the true cornerstone of our lives will be properly laid and we can, with God's help, get about the business of properly constructing a temple that endures.

Diocese of Cheyenne

Bishop Steven Biegler has extended to all the faithful in the Diocese of Cheyenne the dispensation from the obligation to celebrate the Eucharist on Sunday and Holy Days of Obligation through Wednesday, June 30, 2021. To read the full decree, go to: https://dioceseofcheyenne.org/the-living-church-in-a-time-of-crisis-covid-19.

Next weekend, May 1-2, the Diocese of Cheyenne 2021 annual appeal, Living and Giving in Christ: Unity through Diocesan Ministries, will begin. The purpose of the annual appeal is to acquire regular, yearly contributions to generate vital and dependable financial support to secure operational costs of the Chancery Office, which, in turn, provides the infrastructure behind every parish in the Diocese of Cheyenne. The bishop and his staff assist parishes to do what they cannot do alone, by providing critical support to parish leaders and their ministry. Please prayerfully consider making a gift in thanksgiving.

William Heili. 307-682-3319 or w.heili+FFquestions@stjpiics.org

In the Sunday readings for the season of Easter, we hear the bold proclamations of the Apostles and stories of the early Church's lively communion. Why has the wisdom of the Church put these readings at this time? Perhaps it is to remind us of the call of our Baptism, a reality we also recall in the sprinkling rite at the start of mass. Baptism is the first step on our journey into radical new life, a journey made in communion with the Church and strengthened by the sacraments.

With this in mind, I'd like to congratulate all of the confirmandi who have completed their full initiation into the life of Christ; may the grace of baptism be revealed in you through the wonders of the Holy Spirit! I also invite all to pray for the 50+ candidates who will be receiving their 1st Communion this May, thus continuing their baptismal journeys. May we be inspired by the example of so many young witnesses to live the Christian faith and embrace our own baptismal calling!

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Did you know St. Matthews offers ongoing adult ed classes, even during this Covid world, to help you grow in your faith? Did you know these classes are offered at two different times each week? Did you know you don't have to wait until September to start learning about the Catholic faith? Did you know if you attend another church and want to become Catholic you don't have to wait until the Easter celebration to do so? These classes have four different units, each one taking about 8 weeks, and the next unit will be starting soon. Please contact the Parish Office, 682-3319, and ask to talk to a member of the RCIA Team for more information!

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Please call 307-682-3319.
