Tithing the Tithe-March 2, 2026
St. Patrick's Society of St. Vincent de Paul
This week's St. Patrick's tithing donation of $2,000 is for the St. Patrick Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Each month they receive an average of 75 requests for assistance from individuals and families facing hardships. The team members take time to listen and provide support through prayer, encouragement and when needed, visit with them in their homes to assist with financial aid.

SECOND WEEK OF LENT
Empowering Growth in Ghana
By supporting CRS Rice Bowl, you help parents and caregivers in Ghana to receive training in health, nutrition and early childhood development. That means, young children in these communities are better able to thrive and meet critical milestones in their growth. Visit crsricebowl.org/week-2 to read this week's Story of Hope.

St. Patrick Weather Policy....

St. Patrick Catholic Church will follow D-11 and D-20 on inclement weather days. If either district has a delay, we will have a delay, offices will be open at 10:30am. Adoration will also follow the office delays except that Adoration will begin at 10:00am. If either district has a closure, offices will be closed and Adoration will be canceled. Mass will always take place. Ministries may follow their own schedule so please check your email for that information. We will post delays and closures through TV networks, on our website and through a Flocknote.

AROUND ST. PATRICK

(Taken from Father Roger Landry, Catholic chaplain at Columbia University and "National Eucharistic Preacher")

Live a Eucharistic Lent: Since Jesus in the Eucharist is the source and summit, the root and center of the Christian life, Lent, too, should draw its life from the Eucharistic Jesus and lead us to Him. Lent is about going spiritually to the state of the desert, about uniting ourselves to, and imitating, Jesus' fasting, praying and charity. It's a time to repent and believe. it's a period of mercy and conversion, of grace and holiness that we're supposed to receive fruitfully and not in vain. It's important, therefore, to look at our major Lenten practices through a Eucharistic lens.

The first theme is fasting. Jesus wants our fasting to bring into communion the parts of our llife that are not yet united to Him. Through Isaiah, God tells us that fasting is ultimately to learn to hunger for God and for what He hungers.

A second major Lenten theme is the desert. Each Lent, the same Holy Spirit whom St. Luke tells us led Jesus into the desert wants to guide us into the desert with Him, so that we, apart from distractions, in sacred silence, can prayerfully focus on who we are and on our relationship with God and others. In the state of the desert, spending time with Jesus in prayerful adoration, we learn how to prioritize Him, to unite all parts of life to Him, and to ensure that He alone is our God. That's why Eucharistic adoration is so important in Lent and life.

A third Lenten practice is almsgiving. Giving himself to us in the Eucharist, Jesus seeks to transform us to live truly Eucharistic lives, giving ourselves out of love for others. Our contact with Jesus in the Holy Eucharist is meant to impel our charity. St. Teresa of Calcutta used to stress that the same Jesus who says, "This is my body, "tells us, "I was hungry and you fed me."

A final Lenten theme is the spiritual work of mercy of sharing the faith. Lent is a time in which the Lord Jesus wants to renew us not just in holiness but Christian mission. Lent is a time to recommit ourselves to these essential Eucharistic dimensions of Christian existence, as we fast to hunger for Christ in the Mass, go into the desert to adore Him outside of Mass, are impelled by Him toward Eucharistic charity, and are commissioned by Him to proclaim His presence by word and life."

Matthew 11:28: "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Participate in Adoration, a direct and intimate encounter with Christ in the Eucharist, to deepen your relationship with Him. His presence will help refocus and order your mind on what is true, good, and beautiful. In reality, His presence is exactly what we need to get through each day.

Our Lady of Knock Adoration Chapel, located opposite the Parish offices, is open each weekday from 8AM to 7PM. All are welcome! Come and see (and be with our Lord)! If you are interested in volunteering for a specific hour of Adoration each week, please contact Jim Pierson (719-964-6792) or Katie Levensailor (719-331-4933).

THE OUTSIDE STATIONS OF THE CROSS ARE FIXED!

Thanks to members of the St Patrick Knights of Columbus Council 9993, we are now able to pray the Stations of the Cross. The Knights replaced the two Stations that had fallen and cleaned up the area around Grotto of Mary by Station 4.

And if you do not know about
go to the lower parking lot on the south side of St Patrick. Look for the sign and follow the path to the field. It is a wonderful way to spend one of those clear Colorado days, praying the Stations alone or with a group of friends and families.

AROUND ST. PATRICK

The Nursery at St. Patrick is looking for a new employee. The job would be every Sunday from 9:15am to 1:00pm. There could be other days the Nursery is open for special occasions. Please contact the front office for more information and to pick up an application at 719-598-3595.

Our next Baptismal Class for parents and god-parents is on Sunday, March 15 at 1:00pm in the Pastoral Offices. Please call Deacon Rudy Gonzales at 719-649-3122 or email him at rgonzales@stpatscs.org You MUST RSVP and watch the Reborn Videos on our website under Sacraments at stpatscs.org BEFORE coming to the class. Please bring your answers to the homework to the class. You may also call the front office to RSVP

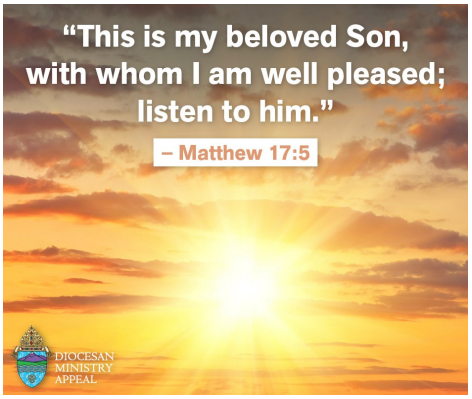
We will have our next Vocations Mass & Holy Hour on Saturday, March 7 in the church. Please come and celebrate Mass with us and pray for vocations to our diocese and those of the whole world!

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

When the disciples drop their nets to follow Jesus to accompany him in his ministry, they first call him "teacher" and "rabbi." Gradually, their perception of him begins to change, and they see him as others see him–as a prophet. Then this understanding deepens further; they recognize Jesus as the Messiah the world has been waiting for. All along, Christ has been revealing his divinity to his disciples, teaching them that their discipleship comes with a cost, and preparing them for his coming suffering and death.

For Peter, James, and John, the Transfiguration is "proof positive" that Jesus is the fulfillment of what the prophets have been promising. If Jesus' face shining like the sun and his clothes becoming white as light is not telling enough, the voice of the Father clearly states, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." Talk about a teachable moment!

Light dispels darkness. The hope of the resurrection is stronger than the pain of the Passion. Initiatives like the Diocesan Ministry Appeal make tangible God's light and love and give hope to those in our community who need it the most. Please prayerfully consider if this is one way you can share the promise of the resurrection by making a gift today.



To submit bulletin information: email Christine McIntyre at cmcintyre@stpatscs.org with "Bulletin" in the subject line by Monday at 12pm. To submit Mass announcements: email Cindy Martinez at cmartinez@stpatscs.org with "Mass Announcement" in the subject line by Monday, 12pm.
