SEMINARIAN UPDATE

I pray that this letter finds you well. March has been a very busy but fruitful month for me. As you may already know, two of my grandparents passed away in the same weekend early in the month. I took a quick trip back to Bismarck to attend both funerals. It was truly a gift that I was able to fly back during these hectic times and be with my family to celebrate the lives of my grandparents. Right after I got back into D.C., myself and three of my brother seminarians took a road trip down to Florida to visit one of their grandmothers for the weekend. Although we spent about half of the weekend in a car, the half that we spent in Florida was well worth it. It gave us a fun story to tell our friends and sunburns that we will always remember! The following weekend was a weekend of recollection with talks given by Msgr. Frontiero, who is the rector at Mount St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, MD. The main theme of his talks was "Responding to the Redeemer" which touched a lot on entering into the passion of our Lord that starts on Holy Thursday. The next weekend, a few of us traveled to Pennsylvania to watch some of the best Sprint Car racing in the world, which was a great time!

School has been going well and we are finally on the downhill stretch of the spring semester! Since we started our spring semester a couple of weeks later than usual, the university decided to not give us any breaks other than Good Friday. The seminary however, strongly encouraged us that we spend the Easter Triduum either back home or at some parish–basically anywhere that is not the seminary. So, as is tradition with the Bismarck guys, the four of us that are in D.C. traveled to Narragansett, Rhode Island to spend the Easter Triduum with a priest that has hosted Bismarck Seminarians from D.C. for Easter in years past.

The main lesson that I have learned from this past month, especially from this Lenten season, is the lesson of being open to receive from the Lord what He is giving me and to place more trust in Him. Msgr. Frontiero had a point in one of his conferences in which he said that if you don't allow God to be a foot-washing God, then your relationship with Him is not going to work very well. In other words, you have to allow the Lord to do things for you, even if they are lowly things like washing someone's feet. Now this might sound like a simple feat, but to achieve this, you have to be open and receptive of the Lord's love and you have to place trust in Him. Growing to place trust in people and things is not something that is easy to accomplish, and the trust that the Lord calls for is not a trust that is half-hearted; He asks all of us for complete, total trust in him. He also asks us to open every aspect of our lives to him, no matter how dirty or shameful that place might be, so that He can wash and cleanse that place. Another consoling fact is that the person who was crucified for you, and would do it again if He had to, is always reaching out to you to help you grow in this relationship with Him, and there is no better time to receive the Lord and all that He desires to do for us than during the Triduum and Easter Season.

Please know of my daily prayers for you and I ask you to continue to pray for me. I also ask you to continue to pray for the repose of the souls of my grandparents Lee Ball and Victor Richter. Have a blessed Easter!

Pax, Joseph Richter Seminarian - College II

Meals for Moms— Saint Anne's is starting a new volunteer ministry called Meals for Moms. Geared towards parishioner families that are expecting a baby or have recently welcomed a newborn (whether through birth, foster care, or adoption), the purpose of this ministry is to help families welcome their newest blessing into the world, whether it is their first child or not.

The first few weeks after bringing home a new baby can be challenging as families learn to settle into a new routine, and this volunteer ministry seeks to walk with families and support them through that transition by bringing a meal.

How does this work? It's all very simple. If a family is expecting a baby or has recently welcomed a baby and would like to receive a meal, all they need to do is call the Parish Office at 223-1549 and request a meal. The Parish Office will then contact the volunteer coordinator who will coordinate a drop-off date and time with the family and take note of the number of immediate family members and any food allergies that the volunteer cook should be aware of.

Volunteers Are Needed—If you would like to sign up as a volunteer for this ministry, please call the Parish Office at 223-1549 to sign up.

I am the bread of life…
Whoever eats this bread will live forever.

The Memorare
Remember,
O Most Gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother, to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.
