Fr. Jeremy Hazuka ~ Pastor

Dear parishioners of Saint Michael's,

Just a quick message to ask for your prayers for this year's Confirmation class. Because of COVID-19 concerns, Father Kubat and I, in consultation with Bishop Conley's office, decided to have one Confirmation Mass on March 21 for both Saint Michael and Saint Cecilia parishes at 3:00 p.m. in Saint Cecilia School gym. This will provide for social distancing while allowing extended family to attend the Mass. We are disappointed that COVID-19 concerns have necessitated this arrangement instead of Confirmation being conferred in the churches proper. However, we believe this arrangement will not require us to limit guests who can attend the Mass. We also are happy that Bishop Conley is able to confer the sacrament this year!

Because Confirmation is at 3:00 p.m. the Lenten Sermon will begin at 5:15 p.m. on March 21.

Some basics about Confession #2

Continuing my thoughts about Confession from last week, I would like to share a couple important points about mortal, or deadly, sin. Like last week, these points are based upon Scripture and passages from the Catechism of the Catholic Church. If you have questions about Confession or these points, you are welcome to visit with me or to talk with your regular confessor.

What is mortal sin?
Mortal sin is a "deadly" sin, a sin that "kills" the life of grace – God's life – dwelling within us.

"Mortal sin destroys charity in the heart of man by a grave violation of God's law; it turns man away from God, who is his ultimate end and his beatitude, by preferring an inferior good to him" (CCC 1855).

"If anyone sees his brother committing a sin that is not a deadly sin, he will ask, and God will give him life for those whose sin is not deadly. There is sin which is deadly; I do not say one is to pray for that. All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin which is not deadly. We know that anyone born of God does not sin, but He who is born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him" (1 John 5:16-18).

What makes a sin a mortal sin?
"For a sin to be mortal, three conditions must together be met: 'Mortal sin is sin whose object is grave matter and which is also committed with full knowledge and deliberate consent'" (CCC 1857).

Grave matter = it's a serious sin
Full knowledge = we know it's wrong
Deliberate consent = we do it anyway.

Next week, I plan to offer some more details about mortal sin.

God bless,
Fr. Jeremy Hazuka

The Answers to last week's Catholic Quiz:

1. In what garden did Jesus pray that this cup may pass from him?
   a) Galilee b) Eden c) Gethsemane

2. True or False – Jesus died on the cross in order to save us from all evils.

   By freeing some individuals from the earthly evils of hunger, injustice, illness and death, Jesus performed messianic signs. Nevertheless he did not come to abolish all evils here below, but to free men from the gravest slavery, sin, which thwarts them in their vocation as God's sons and causes all forms of human bondage. (CCC 549).

3. True or False – Every person's free response to grace is part of God's eternal plan of salvation.

   To God, all moments of time are present in their immediacy. When therefore he establishes his eternal plan of "predestination", he includes in it each person's free response to his grace: "In this city, in fact, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed, to do whatever your hand and your plan had predestined to take place." For the sake of accomplishing his plan of salvation, God permitted the acts that flowed from their blindness. (CCC 600; cf. Acts 4:27-28)

4. Besides baptism by desire and baptism by water, what is another way of baptism?

a) martyrdom b) confirmation c) anointing d) "dry" baptism

The Church does not know of any means other than Baptism that assures entry into eternal beatitude; this is why she takes care not to neglect the mission she has received from the Lord to see that all who can be baptized are "reborn of water and the Spirit." God has bound salvation to the sacrament of Baptism, but he himself is not bound by his sacraments.

The Church has always held the firm conviction that those who suffer death for the sake of the faith without having received Baptism are baptized by their death for and with Christ. This Baptism of blood, like the desire for Baptism, brings about the fruits of Baptism without being a sacrament. (CCC 1257-1258)

5. What are the three levels or degrees of the sacrament of orders?

a) lay person, religious, ordained minister; b) deacon, priest and bishop; c) bishop, cardinal, pope

6. What should be the primary aim of economic life?

a) to increase profit b) to multiply goods c) to serve individuals and the human community
d) to spread equality amongst all people

The development of economic activity and growth in production are meant to provide for the needs of human beings. Economic life is not meant solely to multiply goods produced and increase profit or power; it is ordered first of all to the service of persons, of the whole man, and of the entire human community. Economic activity, conducted according to its own proper methods, is to be exercised within the limits of the moral order, in keeping with social justice so as to correspond to God's plan for man. (CCC 2426)

7. What are the two levels of gravity of sin?

Moral (deadly) sin and venial (lesser) sin

If anyone sees his brother sinning, if the sin is not deadly, he should pray to God and he will give him life. This is only for those whose sin is not deadly. There is such a thing as deadly sin, about which I do not say that you should pray. All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin that is not deadly. (1 John 5:16-17)

8. Who built the first temple of Jerusalem and made of it a house of prayer?

a) Samuel b) David c) Solomon d) Herod

9. What kind of prayer is homage of the mind and respectful silence before God our creator?

a) thanksgiving b) petition c) adoration

Adoration is the first attitude of man acknowledging that he is a creature before his Creator. It exalts the greatness of the Lord who made us and the almighty power of the Savior who sets us free from evil. Adoration is homage of the spirit to the "King of Glory," respectful silence in the presence of the "ever greater" God. Adoration of the thrice-holy and sovereign God of love blends with humility and gives assurance to our supplications. (CCC 2628)

10. Along with her servant Felicity, this saint was martyred at Carthage in 203 by being thrown to the wild beasts. When her father visited her in prison to plead with her to reject the faith, she responds that she could be nothing else but a Christian.

40 Days for Life

We are half way through the 40 Days for Life spring campaign. So far, there have been 189 babies saved that we know of, because of your prayers and fasting for the unborn and their parents.

Continue to pray for the unborn children and especially for their parents. Many women who schedule an abortion are forced to do so because of abusive boyfriends, their own parents, employers or even distraught husbands who are in trouble financially. Your presence in front of abortion centers give hope to women choosing abortion to have a conversion of heart and give their baby life.

A Look at This Sunday's Bible Readings for the Fourth Sunday of Lent

Jesus makes reference in the Gospel of John reading today to a passage in the Book of Numbers where the Israelites are being afflicted by poisonous snakes. Moses is commanded to fashion a pole with a brass snake upon it. Anyone afflicted by snakebite is to look at the image of the snake on the pole and live. This passage from Numbers is the earliest known written description of such an object. The Ancient Greeks would later incorporate the image of two winged serpents onto a scepter as the caduceus, or herald's wand. The messenger of the gods, Hermes, carried the caduceus in Greek legend whenever he was carrying a divine message to mortals.

The caduceus is often erroneously used by some modern doctors or hospitals as a symbol of the medical profession, but this is actually incorrect. The actual Greek mythological symbol for healing is actually the staff of Asclepius. Asclepius was the son of Apollo and was the Greek god of healing. His symbol is identical to the one fashioned by Moses: a rod with a single snake coiled around it. The earliest known temple to Asclepius was built around 630 BC, which is at least 600 years after Moses. We may never know whether the Ancient Greeks appropriated the Biblical image of Moses' staff to their own god, Asclepius, but that particular image of a staff with a coiled serpent was certainly a well known symbol of divine healing to Romans, Greeks, and Jews during the time of Jesus.

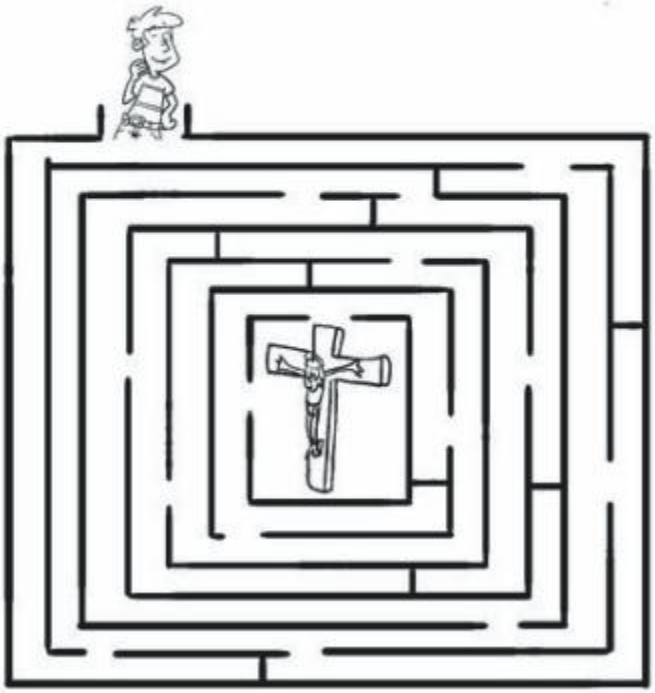
This symbol of healing is the backdrop to what is perhaps one of the most quoted and well-known verses in the entire bible: John 3:16. Jesus is having a conversation with a Pharisee named Nicodemus, who also had a seat on the governing Sanhedrin. Nicodemus is a somewhat mysterious figure, who only appears in John's gospel. Nicodemus may have himself been some sort of healer or physician because he again appears after Jesus' crucifixion, provides the spices for Jesus' embalming, and helps Joseph of Arimathea with Jesus' burial ritual. He may also have been the same Nicodemus who opposed the war with Rome some decades later and is mentioned by the Jewish historian Josephus in his memoirs after the war as a man trying to sue for peace with the Roman Emperor Titus by arguing that both Rome and Jerusalem could both only truly heal by living life together in the light of peace and not the darkness of war-all of which sound exactly like the themes Jesus was discussing with Nicodemus in today's Gospel passage.

The journey of Lent often asks us to be like Nicodemus and take these themes that Jesus talks about to heart and to act on them. Let us on this Fourth Sunday rejoice in the knowledge that Jesus is the great healer who wishes to reconcile the human race, and does that through his solemn passion and death on the cross.

Kid's Corner for the Fourth Sunday of Lent

PUZZLE

Help the boy find Jesus:



GOSPEL

When the Hebrews sinned in the desert, snakes came to bite them. Moses lifted up a metal snake in the desert. If God's people looked at the metal snake, their painful snake bites would be healed. Instead of dying from their snake bites, they would live. Our sins are a lot like those snake bites. Sins turn us away from God, hurt us, and hurt other people. When Jesus was lifted up on the cross, he washed our sins away. Jesus gave us healing and forgiveness. We don't need to die from our sins. We can believe in Jesus, follow God with our whole hearts, and live forever.

PRAYER

God, thank you for sending Jesus to wash away my sins.
