REFLECT

First Reading

Today's reading presents wisdom and prudence as life's most precious gifts. Why do you think these virtues were held in such high regard by ancient Israel?

Second Reading

Hebrews connects the power of the word of God with divine judgement — one day we must all "render an account" of our lives before the Lord. How often do you think about your own judgement day?

Gospel Reading

Jesus teaches the rich man and the disciples that while wealth can often hinder one from entering the kingdom of God, self-sacrifice and discipleship can earn eternal life. How well do you balance these realities in your life?

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

The man in today's Gospel reading thought he was pretty good. He had been careful to obey most of God's rules. But he forgot the most important rule of all-love God with all your heart, mind, soul and strength. When Jesus asked the man to give away all he owned, the man went away sad. He loved money more than he loved God.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Dear God, help me to love you more than all the gifts you have given to me. Amen.

Help this child find Jesus.

FALL BREAK FUN IN PAYSON

Our teens joined up with Queen of Peace youth group this past Monday of fall break for a hike at Water Wheel in Payson. Our hike landed on the feast of St. Francis of Assisi, which was so fitting for the occasion. We celebrated Mass beside the waterfall with Fr. Gabe, who was ordained last summer. A few of our All Saints teens were brave enough to plunge into the freezing-cold water; they were even able to convince Lindsay to jump in. We had the best time and look forward to taking a similar trip the next chance we get!

Just the ladies :)

Trying a fresh prickly pear for the first time!

Passing out both on the drive up and back.

THE JOVI-AL Journey

A reflection from Fr. Jovi

Football season is well underway, and everyone has a prediction on which team is the greatest and who will make the Super Bowl. It's difficult to get universal agreement on who's the best. When it comes to politics, it's even more difficult to get universal agreement on who is best. In fact, there aren't too many things we can all agree upon. One however is that all of us want to be happy. We want happiness for ourselves, our children, and our country.

Jesus showed us that true happiness comes from making others happy. He lived his life that way. He invited the young man in the gospel story today to do the same, when he told him to take his money and help the poor. Then he would experience great happiness, not only in the next life but now, here in this life. That is the great message of Jesus. He invites us to be happy NOW, not later in the kingdom of heaven. He wants us to experience this happiness in this life. The commandments given to us from God are not sacrifices or painful rules to endure but secrets to happiness. When I have so much respect for God, church, people, life, my body, and the bodies of others. When I have such great respect for others property and their reputation, I don't experience sadness and restrictions on my freedom but a happiness that is freeing. What a wonderful blueprint for happiness, so simple, direct, and given from God's heart.

Jesus knows us well. He knows we want to be happy, all of us. He also knows that it is not easy to live in love. He uses the example of a camel passing through the eye of a needle. I have often wondered about this story. There must have been more to it. At the outset of a village was usually a doorway that was narrow and not very tall. A camel could not enter unless it got down on its knees and crawled. How difficult. Perhaps the suggestion for us to get on our knees to worship the Lord today in this Eucharist and to ask the Lord for the strength to love as Jesus loves. To take Jesus into our bodies and souls and to rely on His grace. To call upon the wonderful God in our prayer to be ONE with us. It is in this spirit that we receive what we need to follow the Lord.

Our pursuit of happiness will find the Lord and we will experience a joy and happiness that lasts forever.

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

WHY ARE CATHOLICS REQUIRED TO GET MARRIED IN A CHURCH AND NOT OUTSIDE OR AT A DIFFERENT VENUE?

Because the sacrament of marriage is a sacred covenant between the husband and wife, the celebration of the sacrament of matrimony is much more than simply a social or family event. So, the rule that the sacrament be celebrated in a church is a way to help reinforce the deeper meaning of Christian marriage.

To help make this clearer, the Church's tradition also normally includes the celebration of the Mass when the marriage is being celebrated between two Catholics, and so a church or chapel is the ideal setting.

For special reasons — which vary from diocese to diocese — the local bishop can give permission for the marriage to be celebrated in another suitable place.
