Special Message from Fr. Brad

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Happy Fifth Sunday in Lent!

Home Prayer Area!

Yesterday, as I was taking a break from shoveling the snow drifts off the back deck, I came across this picture of a prayer area. It is of a little altar that a Catholic family put together. I really like how they explained their area. The little altar has space below for bibles, prayer books, kids bibles and stories of the Saints. They purchased it from Target for less than $200.00. I like the mirror too! The top of the altar/cabinet can display little icons, a Statue of the Blessed Mother, candles, etc. This would really express that you are a Catholic family that takes your faith seriously. This year, I would also include a copy of the Gospel of Mark commentary by Mary Healy.

I really like my private chapel at home which gives me great peace and I visit it often.

Also, my personal thanks to all who assisted with snow removal this past weekend, keeping our church open, sidewalks cleared and parking lot cleared! You all did a great job! Copies of last weekend's bulletin are available in our gathering space!

Have a blessed rest of Lent!

Fr. Brad

Another spring storm came through last weekend...shutting down roads, highways and making travel almost impossible.
Thank you to Tim Underwood for working hard all weekend to keep snow to a minimum in OLP's parking lot and walkways!

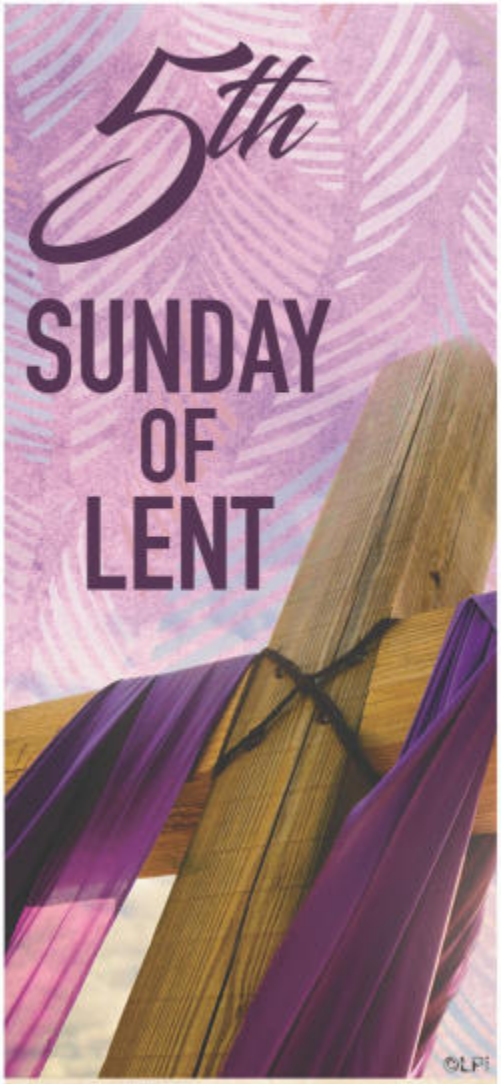
LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

How do we convince people that God's law is written upon their hearts? God is wedded to God's people. This is a simple and fundamental fact of life. Yet, many ignore this truth and carry on as if they, or humanity as a whole, are the center of the universe. As a grain of wheat has to fall to the ground and die in order to become what it really is, we too must die to our secular images and ideas of ourselves so that we can become who God really made us to be. If all of us kept our focus on God's deep bonded love with human beings, indeed with our very self, then there would be no need to teach others this fundamental life lesson. They would simply know this truth, as Jeremiah tells us. Somehow, perhaps through original and personal sin, we have lost sight of this reality. We have lost our way and our axis. It is time to find our way back, to learn the virtue of obedience, to pay attention to what God is saying and become aware of the Divine Love that is the reason for all creation. Then, even in our darkest hour when all may seem to be lost, we can say as did Jesus, the model of obedience, "Father, glorify your name," By this perseverance, people can come to know the Lord and what God has done.



"Bloom where you are planted."

Blessing of the First Meal (Easter Meal)

The custom of blessing the food for Easter arose from the discipline of fasting throughout Lent and the special Easter fast during the Easter Triduum. Easter was the first day when meat, eggs, and other foods could again be eaten. Although not of obligation, the special fast during the Triduum may still be observed as well as the tradition of blessing food for the first meal of Easter.

On April 3rd, Holy Saturday, there will be a Blessing of the First Meal (Easter Meal), at 10:00 am in the church.
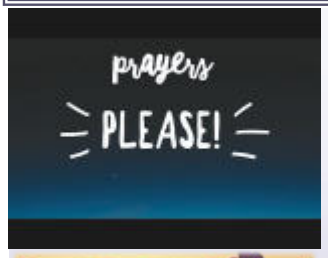
All are invited to bring a basket with a serving of one or more food items to be blessed by Fr. Brad.



Please pray for our Becoming Catholic Catechumens and Candidates as they continue their journey to full communion with the Catholic Church in the Spring of 2021.
Your prayers of support and words of encouragement are invaluable!
