The Most Holy Trinity

Let God be who God is. This is often one of the hardest things to do. Rather than allowing the mystery of being created in the image and likeness of God unfold and take root in our lives, we change the dynamic. We want to be the creators who want to make God into the image and likeness we need God to be. We have a hard-enough time letting the people in our lives be who they are. We struggle even more so with God. It is almost as if we want God to be our imaginary friend who is not only with us whenever we need but becomes the Being we need God to be. Who is it that we want God to be today? A protector, disciplinarian, champion for justice, healer, advocate for our cause, grantor of prayers, guardian of my life, or the avenger? Our prayers tell an interesting story. When you pray, what does God look like?

Recently, a young woman who was feeling invisible, overlooked, ignored, and misunderstood by her husband struggled to make her feelings known and get his attention. Finally, she screamed, "Listen to me!" Thus, birth was given to a renewed and healthier relationship. We spend so much time storming heaven with our agenda and trying to make God into a "god" of our desires that we do not hear God saying, "Listen to me!" God is desperately trying to get our attention. God is saying, I am here among you as not one but three, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Many people seldom notice God's presence because they are so caught up with other spiritual cares and concerns. And, when the "god" they fashion and create doesn't produce as they desire, they shake the dust from their feet and move on. "I tried," they exclaim, "but God didn't listen."

Healthy relationships aren't built on making someone be who we need them to be. Healthy relationships are built on encounters of persons and the development of an appreciation of someone solely for who they are. Deeper relationships can even be found with two people marveling at each other and almost experiencing a childlike joy and giddiness when they see the other coming. Do you ever have these feelings about God? Believe it or not, God does for you! There is a joyful laughter that gives rise to and connects all three members of the Holy Trinity. It is this laughter, flowing from the very depths of the Godhead that not only keeps the Trinity in joyful unity but spills over into the creation of all beings and things. It is an expression of Divine Delight! Have you ever taken time away from your agenda to experience the Divine Joyfulness of God?

We can reach a connection of Presence wherein even the smallest of creatures suddenly radiate the fullness of God: the wonderful creation of their being, the innocence and playfulness of their movements, and the sustaining life breath that flows through their veins. The same God who created the heavens and the earth is the same God who wants you to call him 'Dad' and the same God who preserves your life and has all things in His care.

La Santísima Trinidad

Gracias Señor, por estar con nosotros siempre. Aunque por nuestra ceguera no nos demos cuenta que tú siempre has estado ahí. Presente en cada acontecimiento de la historia, guerras, pandemias, y catástrofes. Tú, siempre presente como nos lo prometiste. "Yo estoy con ustedes todos los días hasta el fin del mundo" (Mateo 28:20). Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad. Presencia de Dios Trino desde la creación del mundo, hasta nuestros días. Gracias Padre, por revelarnos tu amor por medio de Tu Hijo Jesucristo, gracias por tener vida en ti a través del Espíritu Santo.

En la Liturgia de cada Domingo, celebramos lo que creemos, y la Iglesia hoy nos recuerda lo fundamental: Dios Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. Fuimos bautizados en su nombre, nos santiguamos cada día al comenzar las actividades en el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. La gran mayoría de nuestras oraciones comienzan o terminan en nombre de la Trinidad. ¡Misterio de unidad y armonía! Somos Trinitarios, somos uno en Dios. Es decir, relación, comunión y comunicación. Somos una comunidad de creyentes, siguiendo el legado de comunión y amor que Jesús enseñó a sus discípulos. "Vayan, pues, y hagan que todos los pueblos sean mis discípulos. Bautícenlos en el Nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo, y enséñenles a cumplir todo lo que yo les he encomendado a ustedes" (Mateo 28:19). Cumplir con el amor y la justicia es urgencia de la sociedad actual. ¿Crees esto? El reto es empezar ahora mismo a relacionarnos en comunidad, aceptándonos con caridad unos a otros.

God Doesn't Take a Break

An acquaintance who works in church ministry once told me a story about one of the students she had in Faith Formation. This student informed my friend that his family doesn't come to Mass in summer. "God takes a break in summer, and so do we," he said.

There's a lot to unpack here. First, it's tragic to think of anyone voluntarily missing out on the Eucharist for so long. It's also a real problem in the church today that a lot of our folks don't understand the beauty of the Sunday obligation. But if I had to dissect this situation and pinpoint the thing I find most troubling, it's the idea of God taking a break.

I hope it's starting to look like summer where you are. We've still got a few weeks left before it's official, but the school year should be winding up for most kids, the birds should be chirping a little louder, and hopefully your lawn is starting to green up nicely. You're probably daydreaming about the annual cabin getaway weekend or waterskiing on the Fourth of July.

All in all, summer is going to be a nice break, even if — like typical Americans — our break is full of productive work.

Thank God — literally — that He doesn't take a break, even if we do. Can we try to remember that, even in the midst of our many wonderful distractions? Let's enjoy this summer. Let's live it to the full. But let's see it for the gift that it is — and remember the thanks we owe the Giver.

Diocesan Guidelines by Bishop Rojas

Effective April 17, parishes increased seating capacity to a maximum of 50% of total seating which means 100 people total in the building, with three feet distancing between seats. No distancing if needed for parishioners attending from the same immediate household.

Assuming that we make continued progress, my hope is to be able to announce 100% full church capacity reopening effective June 15, consistent with the announced full reopening of our State.

Of course, all other protocols of mandatory masks and regular sanitizing of high traffic areas, The Parish office is open by appointment only.

Guías Diocesanas del Obispo Rojas

A partir del 17 de abril, las parroquias pueden aumentar su cupo a un máximo del 50% del total, en nuestro caso son 100 personas máximo, con una distancia de tres pies entre los asientos. No es necesario distanciar a feligreses de la misma familia inmediata.

Suponiendo que las cosas sigan mejorando, tengo la esperanza de poder anunciar la reapertura de las Iglesias a plena capacidad, el 100% a partir del 15 de junio, lo cual coincide con la total reapertura de nuestro estado, según se ha anunciado.

Por supuesto, el resto de los protocolos continua: el uso obligatorio de cubre bocas, la desinfección periódica de todas las áreas de alta circulación. La oficina parroquial está abierta por cita solamente.

Dios No Toma Descansos

Una conocida que trabaja en el ministerio de la iglesia una vez me contó una historia sobre uno de los estudiantes que tenía en Formación de Fe. Este estudiante le informó a mi amiga que su familia no va a misa en verano. Dijo, "Dios toma un descanso en el verano, y nosotros también."

Hay mucho que desempacar aquí. En primer lugar, es trágico pensar en alguien que se haya perdido voluntariamente la Eucaristía durante tanto tiempo. También es un problema real en la iglesia de hoy que mucha de nuestra gente no entienda la belleza de la obligación dominical. Pero si tuviera que analizar esta situación y señalar lo que me preocupa más, es la idea de que Dios se tome un descanso.

Espero que esté empezando a parecer verano donde estás. A nosotros todavía nos quedan algunas semanas antes de que sea oficial, pero el año escolar debería estar terminando para la mayoría de los niños, los pájaros deben estar piando un poco más fuerte y, ojalá que tu césped este comenzando a ponerse muy verde. Probablemente estés soñando despierto con el fin de semana anual de escapadas a la cabaña o con el esquí acuático el 4 de julio.

En general, el verano va a ser un buen descanso, incluso si, como los estadounidenses típicos, nuestro descanso está lleno de trabajo productivo.

Gracias a Dios, literalmente, que no se toma un descanso, incluso si nosotros si lo hacemos. ¿Podemos tratar de recordar eso, incluso en medio de nuestras maravillosas distracciones? Disfrutemos este verano. Vivámoslo al máximo. Pero veámoslo por el regalo que es, y recordemos el agradecimiento que le debemos al Dador.
