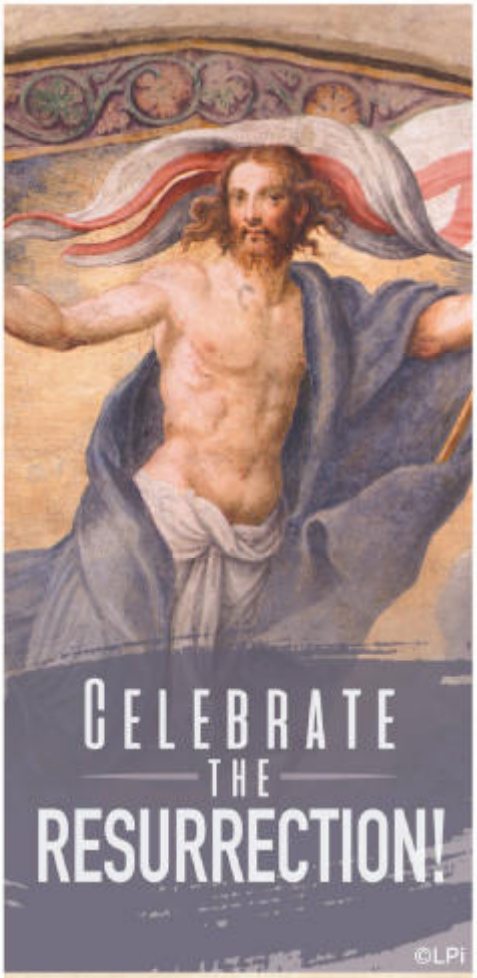
LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Alleluia! Christ is risen! About today's feast, St. Augustine writes: "And he departed from our sight that we might return to our hearts and find him there. For he left us, and behold, he is here." Christ's resurrected presence lives not only in the highest heaven but in the fragile human heart. Christ's life inspires us and moves us to see a future for every human being and discover our true purpose and meaning. Every human being has a desire to live, and this cry can be heard within. There is a longing for a connection with Someone greater than ourselves that gives an import to our existence that we cannot supply. Today, our deepest questions find answers.



Christ is Risen Indeed

Obedience and Humility of Saint Joseph

We continue our reflections on St. Joseph borrowing from the excellent book, Consecration to St. Joseph (Marian Fathers of the Immaculate, 2020). The fact that he was called a "just man" in the Scriptures signifies his excellent character before God and men (Mt. 1:19).

St. Joseph was filled with a sense of his own unworthiness and, at the same time, a deep reverence for God. He feared offending Our Lord and Our Lady so much that he was more than willing to separate himself from the great mysteries surrounding him (Mt. 1:20). He humbly regarded others as greater than himself. He refrained from suspecting others of wrongdoing choosing rather to withhold his own judgment in favor of God's.

St. Joseph joined great humility with great obedience. He promptly obeyed the voice of the Lord when the angel directed him to take Mary into his home. The Scriptures say he, "Did as the angel of the Lord commanded" (Mt. 1:24). St. Joseph teaches us to reserve judgment (even for a long time!) in situations which we cannot comprehend. The Lord will reveal His will for us in His time according to His Word. We have to remain faithful in the face of uncertainty knowing the Lord is fulfilling His will in our trials.

Dear Jr Youth Group (6th-8th grade) Parents,

Lent has been a time to pray, do good works, reflect, and build your trust in God. Although the Lenten season ended with Easter Sunday, the Easter Season continues for fifty days, ending with Pentecost Sunday. Please continue to build family habits of daily prayer, and reflection. Encourage your teens not only to do this as a family, but individually too which is an excellent way to celebrate the Easter season.

Family Challenge: Grab a calendar (we have some at the church too if you need one). Make a note each day on the calendar of what verse you read or a good work you do or any other activity you take part in that brings you closer to God these next fifty days. Turn in the calendar and your family will receive a small treat.

Dear Youth Group (9th-8th) Parents,

Too often we can relegate the miraculous stories in the Bible to the same category as fairy tales or science fiction. The reality is that not only is the power of the Holy Spirit we see in the Bible real, but it is available to each one of us still today. In this session your teens will be discussing this Tuesday the story of Pentecost and learned how the Holy Spirit empowers us, particularly in our witness of the faith.

Here are some of the main points:

•We have access to the same Holy Spirit given to the apostles at Pentecost through the grace of the sacraments and prayer.

•The Holy Spirit empowers us to share our faith, to be bold witnesses.

•"There are only two ways to live your life. One is as though nothing is a miracle. The other is as though everything is a miracle." - Albert Einstein

Family Discussion: After Tuesday Youth Group Consider asking your teen these questions to continue processing what was discussed in their small group:

• What is something from the video or small group time that stood out to you?

• How can we cooperate with the Holy Spirit in our everyday lives?

• God is still working miracles in our world today. Have you or someone you know experienced a miraculous event in their lives? (Parents, this is a great time for you to share as well!)

Commit: This week, the teens committed to ask the Holy Spirit to inspire them to reach out to someone and share their faith. They were also encouraged to ask the Holy Spirit to give them wisdom to know what to say and do and courage to actually do it. (By the way, wisdom and courage are two of the seven gifts of the Spirit.)
