THE MASS TODAY

MASSES ARE NOW CELEBRATED OUTDOORS AGAIN!

We are maintaining the COVID 19 safety protocols established for San Diego:

- Wear masks
- Wash & sanitize hands
- Keep six feet apart from those not in your household, even when in the pews and in line for Communion
- Offerings will be collected inside and outside and can be dropped in the baskets upon arrival or upon departure from the mass

Please do not attend mass if you are not feeling well

If you still do not feel comfortable returning to mass, remember that the Diocese is still continuing to dispense Catholics from attending public Sunday masses, especially for those who are more at risk and may be fearful of returning. So, please know that Sunday masses have not yet been reinstated as days of obligation. The faithful maintain the choice to return according to their own judgement and are not obligated to attend.

Masses will continue to be recorded

We have missed you and we are excited to unite as Brothers and Sisters in the Mass

¡LAS MISAS AHORA SE CELEBRAN AIRE LIBRE OTRA VEZ!

Mantenemos los protocolos de seguridad COVID 19 establecidos para San Diego:

- Usar mascarillas
- Lavar y desinfectar las manos
- Manténgase a seis pies de distancia de los que no están en su hogar, incluso cuando esté en los bancos y en fila para la Comunión
- Las ofrendas se recogerán en el exterior y se pueden dejar en las cestas a la llegada o al salir de la misa.

Por favor, no asista a misa si no se siente bien.

Si aún no se siente cómodo regresando a la misa, recuerde que la Diócesis continúa dispensando a los católicos de asistir a las misas públicas dominicales, especialmente para aquellos que están en mayor riesgo y pueden tener miedo de regresar. Por lo tanto, tenga en cuenta que las misas dominicales aún no se han restablecido como días de obligación. Los fieles mantienen la opción de regresar según su propio juicio y no están obligados a asistir.

Se seguirán registrando misas

Los hemos extrañado y estamos emocionados de unirnos como hermanos y hermanas en la Misa.

FROM THE PASTOR / DEL PASTOR

SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE —A—

Today is the last Sunday in ordinary time and we also celebrate the solemnity of Christ the King. This feast is worth our reflection because there are so many underlying theological insights that are imbedded within it. We may ask why the feast is celebrated on the last Sunday of the liturgical year. First, I would like to believe that this is because Jesus is the center of time. And if we begin and end the season with Jesus, then we can easily understand that he is truly the center of time. The Old Testament ends in Jesus and the new one begins with him as well. What a beautiful reality. We hear from the Sacred Scriptures "he is the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end (Rev 22:13); he who is who was and who is to come (Rev 1:4)." What a beautiful theological reality to behold. With this insight, we can be consoled that even if life ends, it never ends in vain because a well -spent life ends in Jesus.

The Church celebrates the Solemnity of Christ the King every year, but the feast has become even more significant as we celebrate it in this time of unprecedented global pandemic, to give the people the necessary encouragement that despite its devastating impact in the life of the people in general, including the sacramental life of every faith community, we can always turn our gaze on Jesus who is greater and stronger than any virus in the world. He is the King enthroned in our hearts, in our homes and in our Church.

Furthermore, this Sunday's readings inspire us to understand and recognize that the Kingdom of Christ is supreme, spiritual and eternal. And at the end he will come as a judge who will reward the good and punish the wicked.

Father Ed

SOLEMNIDAD DE NUESTRO SEÑOR JESUCRISTO, REY DEL UNIVERSO —A—

Hoy es el último domingo del tiempo ordinario y también celebramos la solemnidad de Cristo Rey. Esta fiesta merece nuestra reflexión porque hay muchas ideas teológicas subyacentes que están incrustadas en ella. Podemos preguntarnos por qué se celebra la fiesta el último domingo del año litúrgico. Primero, me gustaría creer que esto se debe a que Jesús es el centro del tiempo. Y si comenzamos y terminamos la temporada con Jesús, entonces podemos entender fácilmente que él es verdaderamente el centro del tiempo. El Antiguo Testamento termina en Jesús y el nuevo también comienza con él. Qué hermosa realidad. Escuchamos de las Sagradas Escrituras "él es el alfa y el omega, el principio y el fin (Ap 22,13); el que es y el que ha de venir (Apocalipsis 1: 4) ". Qué hermosa realidad teológica para contemplar. Con esta intuición, podemos consolarnos de que incluso si la vida termina, nunca termina en vano porque una vida bien vivida termina en Jesús.

La Iglesia celebra la Solemnidad de Cristo Rey todos los años, pero la fiesta se ha vuelto aún más significativa a medida que la celebramos en este momento de pandemia mundial sin precedentes, para dar a la gente el aliento necesario que, a pesar de su impacto devastador en la vida de la gente En general, incluida la vida sacramental de cada comunidad de fe, siempre podemos volver la mirada hacia Jesús, que es más grande y más fuerte que cualquier virus del mundo. Él es el Rey entronizado en nuestros corazones, en nuestros hogares y en nuestra Iglesia. Además, las lecturas de este domingo nos inspiran a comprender y reconocer que el Reino de Cristo es supremo, espiritual y eterno. Y al final vendrá como un juez que recompensará a los buenos y castigará a los malvados.

Padre Ed

Daily Prayer For Priests

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests; For your unfaithful and tepid priests; For your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields. For your tempted priests; For your lonely and desolate priests; For your young priests; For your dying priests; For the souls of your priests in Purgatory. But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me: The priest who baptized me; The priests who absolved me from my sins; The priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; The priests who taught and instructed me; All the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially. . . . . ).

O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart, And bless them abundantly in time and in Eternity. Amen

By St. Therese of Lisieux

Pray for Priests and Vocations

Daily Prayer for Vocations

Jesus, Lord of the harvest, Look with love on this portion of your vineyard. Bless the Diocese of San Diego with more priests to shepherd your people, Priests with hearts like your own. Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.

GIVING IS A BLESSING:

"'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.'" (Matthew 25:40)

In the Gospel this Sunday, as we hear Christ the King separating the sheep and the goats we are reminded of our deep responsibility to each other.

The measure used to determine where we spend eternity, according to this Gospel, is how much we have done for each other, how much we have done for our community, the people in our lives. We are not tested on how much we know, how successful we have been, how much honor we have gained, or any other lowly human focus.

Once again, it is all about how we have loved. Specifically in this Gospel, it is about how we have loved through service to our fellow brothers and sisters created in God's image and likeness.

Christ does not simply urge us to be good to each other because it is a moral suggestion. He takes it even further and says that all things we have either done or not done for one of the least of our fellow human beings we have done or not done directly for Him.

This is not just a helpful visual that encourages us to treat each other well if we imagine Christ in all others. It is something that is actually and totally true. Jesus Christ, present in the Trinity and present in our hearts through the Holy Spirit, lives within every single person. Therefore, anything that we do for each other is truly done for our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

Let us allow this truth to penetrate our hearts and remember that we enter into eternal life by loving service to our brothers and sisters, to Christ present in His Church, in all people.
