THE MASS TODAY

MASSES ARE NOW CELEBRATED OUTDOORS AGAIN!

We are maintaining the COVID 19 safety protocols established for San Diego:

- Wear masks
- Wash & sanitize hands
- Keep six feet apart from those not in your household, even when in the pews and in line for Communion
- Offerings will be collected inside and outside and can be dropped in the baskets upon arrival or upon departure from the mass

Please do not attend mass if you are not feeling well

If you still do not feel comfortable returning to mass, remember that the Diocese is still continuing to dispense Catholics from attending public Sunday masses, especially for those who are more at risk and may be fearful of returning. So, please know that Sunday masses have not yet been reinstated as days of obligation. The faithful maintain the choice to return according to their own judgement and are not obligated to attend.

Masses will continue to be recorded

We have missed you and we are excited to unite as Brothers and Sisters in the Mass

¡LAS MISAS AHORA SE CELEBRAN AIRE LIBRE OTRA VEZ!

Mantenemos los protocolos de seguridad COVID 19 establecidos para San Diego:

- Usar mascarillas
- Lavar y desinfectar las manos
- Manténgase a seis pies de distancia de los que no están en su hogar, incluso cuando esté en los bancos y en fila para la Comunión
- Las ofrendas se recogerán en el exterior y se pueden dejar en las cestas a la llegada o al salir de la misa.

Por favor, no asista a misa si no se siente bien.

Si aún no se siente cómodo regresando a la misa, recuerde que la Diócesis continúa dispensando a los católicos de asistir a las misas públicas dominicales, especialmente para aquellos que están en mayor riesgo y pueden tener miedo de regresar. Por lo tanto, tenga en cuenta que las misas dominicales aún no se han restablecido como días de obligación. Los fieles mantienen la opción de regresar según su propio juicio y no están obligados a asistir.

Se seguirán registrando misas

Los hemos extrañado y estamos emocionados de unirnos como hermanos y hermanas en la Misa.

PRAYER REQUEST

The foundation of all other forms of Stewardship is prayer - giving back to God a generous portion of our time through a prayerful relationship with Him. Send any prayer requests bhoffman@resurrectionchurch.org or by calling Parish Office (760) 747-2322, Ext. 200

FROM THE PASTOR / DEL PASTOR

FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD —B—

How blessed we are that despite the current situation the Church has given us the reason to celebrate as one community. The series of events about the life of Jesus which we celebrated these past few weeks has truly been such a wonderful manifestation of God abiding presence in our midst. Today we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany, the revelation of the messiah to the gentiles. It is the manifestation of God's plan of salvation for all humankind. The people at the time were a little confused as to what or who the messiah is. As it was then, so it is now. The search continues!

In the Gospel we learned how the magi found the messiah. They searched diligently and they were guided by a star. Let us take our cue from them. If we want to find God then we must be diligent and must be open to the guidance from above. To find God we must go out of our way, leave our comfort zone and endure all the difficulties that may come along our way. After all, once we find him then everything will change for the better.

Similarly, the shepherds found Jesus because they were simple and humble. Hence, they have more time to spend in searching. Complicated and proud people are less likely to find God because they do their search from their own perspective and standard. They never listen to others because they are so full of themselves.

In our current situation, there is a much greater need to find God whom we can ask for help, guidance and protection especially on how to deal with these challenging times where everything is uncertain. When found may we be able to share him with others as well.

Father Ed

FIESTA DE LA EPIFANÍA DEL SEÑOR—B—

Cuán bendecidos somos de que, a pesar de la situación actual, la Iglesia nos ha dado la razón para celebrar como una sola comunidad. La serie de eventos sobre la vida de Jesús que celebramos estas últimas semanas ha sido verdaderamente una manifestación tan maravillosa de la presencia permanente de Dios entre nosotros. Hoy celebramos la Fiesta de la Epifanía, la revelación del mesías a los gentiles. Es la manifestación del plan de salvación de Dios para toda la humanidad. La gente en ese momento estaba un poco confundida sobre qué o quién es el mesías. Como era entonces, es ahora. ¡La búsqueda continúa!

En el Evangelio aprendimos cómo los magos encontraron al mesías. Buscaron diligentemente y fueron guiados por una estrella. Sigamos nuestro ejemplo de ellos. Si queremos encontrar a Dios, debemos ser diligentes y estar abiertos a la guía de arriba. Para encontrar a Dios debemos salir de nuestro camino, salir de nuestra zona de confort y soportar todas las dificultades que puedan surgir en nuestro camino. Después de todo, una vez que lo encontremos, todo cambiará para mejor.

Del mismo modo, los pastores encontraron a Jesús porque eran sencillos y humildes. Por lo tanto, tienen más tiempo para dedicarlo a la búsqueda. Las personas complicadas y orgullosas tienen menos probabilidades de encontrar a Dios porque hacen su búsqueda desde su propia perspectiva y estándar. Nunca escuchan a los demás porque están tan llenos de sí mismos.

En nuestra situación actual, existe una necesidad mucho mayor de encontrar a Dios a quien podamos pedir ayuda, guía y protección, especialmente sobre cómo lidiar con estos tiempos desafiantes donde todo es incierto. Cuando lo encontremos, podremos compartirlo con otros también.

PRAY FOR OUR PRIESTS

Daily Prayer For Priests

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests; For your unfaithful and tepid priests; For your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields. For your tempted priests; For your lonely and desolate priests; For your young priests; For your dying priests; For the souls of your priests in Purgatory. But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me: The priest who baptized me; The priests who absolved me from my sins; The priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; The priests who taught and instructed me; All the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially. . . . . .).

O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart, And bless them abundantly in time and in Eternity. Amen

By St. Therese of Lisieux

GIVING IS A BLESSING:

"They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." (Matthew 2:10-11)

The three magi in today's gospel are seeking out "the new born king of the Jews." These men followed the star all the way to the stable in Bethlehem to find the child Jesus in the manger.

Upon finding him, they respond with deep reverence. They prostrate themselves before this new born baby and offer him expensive gifts.

Their response is noteworthy because it points to their belief about just who this young child is. Jesus is no ordinary baby.

Conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of a virgin, Jesus is the Son of God. Truly, he is King of the Universe. According to scripture, He is the new King of the Jews promised to David whose kingdom will reign forever.

These magi seek a king and find one, THE one. Upon finding Him, they are moved to honor him as kings are honored. They bow down and offer Him these gifts, which all symbolize his role as king.

What do we do when our king comes to meet us? Our Lord and our God is in need of nothing, yet he humbly comes to us as a vulnerable child. Our only appropriate response is worship, giving our lives over to Him entirely. The magi express this by prostrating themselves and offering these gifts. When we approach our Lord our hearts long to worship him and give Him all that we have. This Christmas may we do just that through the Church and among our family and friends.
