THIS WEEK IN OUR PARISH

MINISTRY MEETINGS HAVE BEGUN IN OUR PARISH

THE MASS TODAY

MASSES ARE NOW CELEBRATED INDOORS AGAIN!

We are maintaining the COVID 19 safety protocols established for San Diego:

- Wear masks
- Wash & sanitize hands
- Keep six feet apart from those not in your household, even when in the pews and in line for Communion

Please do not attend mass if you are not feeling well

If you still do not feel comfortable returning to mass, remember that the Diocese is still continuing to dispense Catholics from attending public Sunday masses, especially for those who are more at risk and may be fearful of returning. So, please know that Sunday masses have not yet been reinstated as days of obligation. The faithful maintain the choice to return according to their own judgement and are not obligated to attend.

Masses will continue to be recorded

We have missed you and we are excited to unite as Brothers and Sisters in the Mass

¡LAS MISAS AHORA SE CELEBRAN EN NTERIORES OTRA VEZ!

Mantenemos los protocolos de seguridad COVID 19 establecidos para San Diego:

- Usar cubre bocas
- Lavar y desinfectar las manos
- Manténgase a seis pies de distancia de los que no están en su hogar, incluso cuando esté en los bancos y en fila para la Comunión

Por favor, no asista a misa si no se siente bien.

Si aún no se siente cómodo regresando a la misa, recuerde que la Diócesis continúa dispensando a los católicos de asistir a las misas públicas dominicales, especialmente para aquellos que están en mayor riesgo y pueden tener miedo de regresar. Por lo tanto, tenga en cuenta que las misas dominicales aún no se han restablecido como días de obligación. Los fieles mantienen la opción de regresar según su propio juicio y no están obligados a asistir.

Se seguirán registrando misas

Los hemos extrañado y estamos emocionados de unirnos como hermanos y hermanas en la Misa.

FROM THE PASTOR

11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME —B—

Both my father and my mother came from a family of farmers. I grew up helping them in the farm. Believe me it was not at all easy and it was not my favorite thing especially being under the scorching heat of the sun. However, there is one thing I was fascinated about, something I really enjoyed seeing. It is when the color of the rice field changes from green to yellow which means that the process of growth was complete and the grain will soon be harvested.

This Sunday the liturgy of the Word offers us parables that tell ordinary life of the Israelites. Obviously agriculture was the people's means of livelihood then we hear stories about trees, plants, vineyards and the like. These are simple stories that carry some important life lesson.

In the first reading, Ezekiel consoles his troubled and despairing fellow citizens with the promise of God's Kingdom to come. He compares it with the growth of the cedar tree.

Similarly in the Gospel, we heard the parable of the mustard seed whose growth is compared with the growth of the Kingdom of God. Although the smallest of all the seeds it can grow to become a huge tree where birds can even find refuge in its branches.

Looking back through the Church history we will realize that the church grows in the midst of persecutions. The presence of these adversities did not hinder the church to grow.

At the end of the day we can ask ourselves: have I done enough to let the Kingdom of God grow within me, within my family, or within my community? We must not allow ourselves to be mere listeners of the Word. We need to live it. We must work hard to make the seed grow and bear much fruits.

Father Ed

11 DOMINGO DE ORDINARIO —B—

Tanto mi padre como mi madre procedían de una familia de agricultores. Crecí ayudándolos en la granja. Créame, no fue nada fácil y no era mi cosa favorita, especialmente estar bajo el calor abrasador del sol. Sin embargo, hay una cosa que me fascinó, algo que realmente disfruté ver. Es cuando el color del campo de arroz cambia de verde a amarillo, lo que significa que el proceso de crecimiento se completó y el grano pronto será cosechado.

Este domingo la liturgia de la Palabra nos ofrece parábolas que narran la vida cotidiana de los israelitas. Obviamente, la agricultura era el medio de vida de la gente, entonces escuchamos historias sobre árboles, plantas, viñedos y cosas por el estilo. Estas son historias sencillas que llevan una importante lección de vida.

En la primera lectura, Ezequiel consuela a sus conciudadanos atribulados y desesperados con la promesa del Reino de Dios por venir. Lo compara con el crecimiento del cedro.

De manera similar, en el Evangelio escuchamos la parábola de la semilla de mostaza cuyo crecimiento se compara con el crecimiento del Reino de Dios. Aunque es la más pequeña de todas las semillas, puede crecer hasta convertirse en un árbol enorme donde los pájaros pueden incluso encontrar refugio en sus ramas. Mirando hacia atrás a través de la historia de la Iglesia, nos daremos cuenta de que la iglesia crece en medio de las persecuciones. La presencia de estas adversidades no impidió que la iglesia creciera.

Al final del día podemos preguntarnos: ¿He hecho lo suficiente para que el Reino de Dios crezca dentro de mí, dentro de mi familia o dentro de mi comunidad? No debemos permitirnos ser meros oyentes de la Palabra. Necesitamos vivirlo. Debemos trabajar duro para que la semilla crezca y dé muchos frutos.

Padre Ed

SPIRITUALITY COMMITTEE RETURNS

Spirituality Committee resumes meetings and planning for upcoming events that offer ways to increase parishioners' spirituality. Established by Fr Ken and blessed by Fr Ed, the committee initially held training for Mass ministers, began the 2 minute "Explanation of the Mass" before all masses, and also introduced and helped set up Flocknote for the parish. We invite anyone who is interested in helping this committee to join us. Either apply to join on Flocknote or call Jean Marinelli (English) @ (209) 402-9024.

El Comité de Espiritualidad reanuda las reuniones y la planificación de los próximos eventos que ofrecen formas de aumentar la espiritualidad de los feligreses. Establecido por el Padre Ken y bendecido por el Padre Ed, el comité inicialmente llevó a cabo una capacitación para los ministros de la Misa, comenzó la "Explicación de la Misa" de 2 minutos antes de todas las misas, y también presentó y ayudó a establecer Flocknote para la parroquia. Invitamos a cualquiera que esté interesado en ayudar a este comité a unirse a nosotros. Solicite unirse a Flocknote o llame a Martin Castaneda (Español) al (760) 271-0806.

PRAY FOR OUR PRIESTS

Daily Prayer For Priests

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests; For your unfaithful and tepid priests; For your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields. For your tempted priests; For your lonely and desolate priests; For your young priests; For your dying priests; For the souls of your priests in Purgatory. But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me: The priest who baptized me; The priests who absolved me from my sins; The priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; The priests who taught and instructed me; All the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially. . . . . .).

O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart, And bless them abundantly in time and in Eternity. Amen

By St. Therese of Lisieux

Pray for Priests and Vocations

"Now we ask you to respect those who work hard among you. . . Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work."

(1 Thess. 5:12, 13, NIV)

Daily Prayer for Vocations

Jesus, Lord of the harvest, Look with love on this portion of your vineyard. Bless the Diocese of San Diego with more priests to shepherd your people, Priests with hearts like your own. Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.

GIVING IS A BLESSING:

"This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land ... To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground..."
(Mark 4:26 & 30-31)

In the Gospel this Sunday we are given two different parables from Jesus. In both of these parables Jesus is offering images to understand the Kingdom of God.

Both of these parables are similar. Two important things they share in common are these ideas of planting and growing. Seeds are planted into the ground and they bring forth something much bigger and much greater than before.

God is the sower of the seed. We are the soil. The seed is faith. And finally, the growth is the work of God.

Jesus intends to reveal that God desires to plant the seed of love in our hearts. Then, even more importantly, He desires to cooperate with us through our free will in order to bring good fruit into the world through our lives.

The good news is that it only takes the smallest amount of faith to receive that seed of love from God and begin to let it grow! A mustard seed on it's own is quite insignificant. It can be dropped, lost, stepped on, and forgotten about in seconds. However, it maintains an amazing potential because when it is nurtured, it becomes a grand and mighty tree, stretching exponentially beyond what it once was. And so it is with our faith.

That inkling of truth, love, beauty, goodness, and joy that resides in our hearts, when it is offered to God, can grow into something beyond what we could have ever imagined. Give God your heart today. Let Him take the mustard seed of your faith and cause it to grow so that the Kingdom of God remains in your very soul.
