Divine Mercy Sunday

When St. Faustina turned to Jesus in her life, she always asked for an increase in Mercy. In fact, this is more important than all the graces of Jesus. Mercy is the infinite love, forgiveness and peace of God. Mercy is the voice of Jesus saying to the world, "do not be afraid". Now is the hour for us to turn with complete Trust to Jesus.

Father J. Irwin

Pray this prayer daily, often, at all times, from your heart and with a belief that Jesus is the Savior of our souls...Jesus I Trust In You. This Sunday at 3:00pm, we will gather in the church to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet, the Holy Rosary and bring all our needs to Jesus and His Merciful Heart. Join Us in the Church at this time. The prayers will be prayed bilingually. God bless you all!

Domingo de la Divina Misericordia

Cuando Santa Faustina se volvió hacia Jesús en su vida, siempre pidió un aumento en la Misericordia. De hecho, esto es más importante que todas las gracias de Jesús. La misericordia es el amor, el perdón y la paz infinitos de Dios. La misericordia es la voz de Jesús que le dice al mundo "no temas". Ahora es el momento de volvernos con total confianza a Jesús.

Reza esta oración todos los días, a menudo, en todo momento, desde tu corazón y con la creencia de que Jesús es el Salvador de nuestras almas ... Jesús, en ti confío. Este domingo a las 3:00 pm, nos reuniremos en la iglesia para rezar la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia, el Santo Rosario y llevar todas nuestras necesidades a Jesús y Su Corazón Misericordioso. Únase a nosotros en la Iglesia en este momento. Las oraciones se realizarán de forma bilingüe. ¡Dios los bendiga a todos!

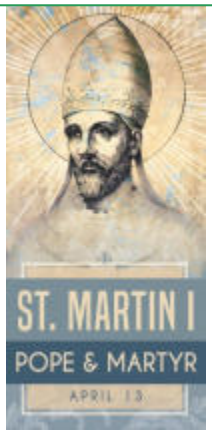
St. Martin I, Pope and Martyr April 13



Martin I lay too sick to fight on a couch in front of the altar when the soldiers burst into the Lateran basilica. But the thought of kidnapping a sick pope from the house of God didn't stop the soldiers from grabbing him.

Elected pope in 649, Martin I had gotten in trouble for refusing to condone silence in the face of wrong. At that time there existed a popular heresy that held that Christ didn't have a human will, only a divine will. The emperor had issued an edict that didn't support Monothelism (as it was known) directly, but simply commanded that no one could discuss Jesus' will at all.

Monothelism was condemned at a council convened by Martin I. The council affirmed, once again, that since Jesus had two natures, human and divine, he had two wills, human and divine.

After he was condemned for treason, he was imprisoned and them, he was exiled to the Crimea. He died two years later in exile in the year 656, a martyr who stood up for the right of the Church to establish doctrine even in the face of imperial power.

Martín I estaba demasiado enfermo para luchar en un diván frente al altar cuando los soldados irrumpieron en la basílica de Letrán. Pero la idea de secuestrar a un papa enfermo de la casa de Dios no impidió que los soldados lo agarraran.

Martin I, elegido Papa en 649, se había metido en problemas por negarse a tolerar el silencio ante el mal. En ese momento existía una herejía popular que sostenía que Cristo no tenía una voluntad humana, solo una voluntad divina. El emperador había emitido un edicto que no apoyaba directamente el monotelismo (como se lo conocía), sino que simplemente ordenaba que nadie pudiera discutir la voluntad de Jesús en absoluto.

El monotelismo fue condenado en un concilio convocado por Martín I. El concilio afirmó, una vez más, que como Jesús tenía dos naturalezas, humana y divina, tenía dos voluntades, humana y divina.

Después de ser condenado por traición, fue encarcelado y luego, exiliado a Crimea, Murió dos años después en el exilio en el año 656, un mártir que defendió el derecho de la Iglesia a establecer la doctrina incluso frente al poder imperial.

Divine Mercy – from the Diary of St. Maria Faustina

(T)he Diary of St. Faustina proclaims the message of God's merciful love as the very heart of the Gospel. It was not a new teaching, of course: just a new expression and a clear focus on the very center of the Catholic Faith: the loving kindness and compassion of God. In private revelations recorded in her diary, Jesus had spoken to her words such as these:

I am love and mercy itself. ... Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. ... My mercy is greater than your sins, and those of the entire world. ... I let My Sacred Heart be pierced with a lance, thus opening wide the source of mercy for you. Come then with trust to draw graces from this fountain. ... The graces of My mercy are drawn by the means of one vessel only, and that is trust. The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive. (entries 1074, 699, 1485, 1578)

My daughter, look into My Merciful Heart and reflect its compassion in your own heart, and in your deeds, so that you who proclaim My mercy to the world may yourself be aflame with it. (entry 1688)

Let the greatest sinners place their trust in My mercy. They have the right before others to trust in the abyss of My mercy. ... Souls that make an appeal to My mercy delight Me. To such souls I grant even more graces than they ask. (entry 1146)

I desire that the first Sunday after Easter be the Feast of Mercy. Ask of my faithful servant [Fr. Sopocko] that on this day, he tell the whole world of My great mercy; that whoever approaches the Fount of Life on this day will be granted complete remission of sins and punishment. Mankind will not have peace until it turns with trust to My mercy. ... My Heart rejoices in this title of Mercy. Proclaim that mercy is the greatest attribute of God. All the works of My hands are crowned with mercy. (entry 300)
