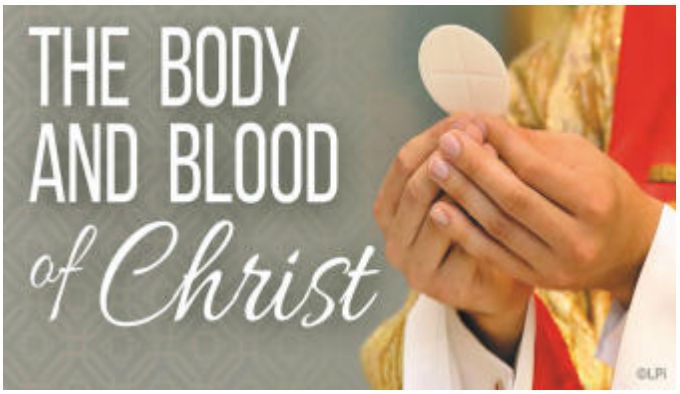
The Most Holy BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many." - Mk 14:24

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ 2021

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Mark 14: 12- 26



These words of Jesus are words that have a special place in our hearts. They connect us to Jesus who connects us to his life giving mission and establishing with us a covenant. These words also model for us a life of glorifying God and remembering Jesus. It was this meal that strengthened Jesus and his followers to march to the Mount of Olives where Jesus would be arrested and the crucifixion would begin.

The Eucharist continues to be a source of strength for us to enter the life-giving mission of Jesus and forming within us a living body of Christ. We live out the sacred meaning that we are the body of Christ: serving God and caring for others.

In John's gospel Jesus places himself on his knees to wash the feet of his disciples. The Eucharistic meaning is seen in caring for others. In Mark's gospel, Jesus offers us a sign. Follow the man who comes within the city who is carrying a jar of water. Follow him and enter into the house where the master of the house will open the large upper room where the feast will take place. These are signs of the sacred meal that calls us to hospitality and the deep faith that God provides for our needs. A man carrying a jar would seem out of place. The carrying and bringing of water was usually the work of women. The coming to the well and associating with other women would be women's work. Here this man is doing servant work. Is his wife ill and cannot do this important job that serves the family. Why is this man not passing this work to someone else. His role of servant is important. The Eucharist that we celebrate calls us to remember, to give thanks, and to find joy in serving others.

How will the Eucharist move us this weekend? What act of service will we do? Will we do it with joy? Peace. Fr Richard Happy Birthday, Deacon Jose de Jesus Lopez.

Solemnidad de la Sangre y El Cuerpo de Cristo 2021

Mientras cenaban, Jesús tomo un pan, pronuncio la bendición, lo partido y se lo dio a sus discípulos, diciendo "Tomen: esto es mi cuerpo". Y tomando en sus manos una copa de vino, pronuncio la acción de gracias, se la dio, todos bebieron y les dijo: "Esta es mi sangre, sangre de la alianza, que se derrama por todos.

Estas palabras de Jesús son palabras que tienen un lugar especial en nuestro corazón. Nos conectan con Jesús que nos conecta con su misión de dar vida y establecer con nosotros una alianza. Estas palabras también modelan para nosotros una vida de glorificar a Dios y recordar a Jesús. Fue esta comida la que fortaleció a Jesús y sus seguidores para marchar hacia el Monte de los Olivos donde Jesús sería arrestado y comenzaría la crucifixión.

La Eucaristía sigue siendo una fuente de fuerza para que entremos en la misión vivificante de Jesús y formemos en nosotros un cuerpo vivo de Cristo. Vivimos el significado sagrado de que somos el cuerpo de Cristo: servir a Dios y cuidar a los demás.

En el evangelio de Juan, Jesús se pone de rodillas para lavar los pies de sus discípulos. El significado eucarístico se ve en el cuidado de los demás. En el evangelio de Marcos, Jesús nos ofrece una señal. Siga al hombre que entra en la ciudad y que lleva una jarra de agua. Síguelo y entra en la casa donde el dueño de la casa abrirá el gran aposento alto donde se llevará a cabo la fiesta. Estos son signos de la comida sagrada que nos llama a la hospitalidad y la fe profunda que Dios provee para nuestras necesidades. Un hombre que lleva un frasco parecería fuera de lugar. Llevar y traer agua solía ser obra de mujeres. Venir al pozo y asociarse con otras mujeres sería un trabajo de mujeres. Aquí este hombre está haciendo trabajo de siervo. ¿Está su esposa enferma y no puede hacer este importante trabajo que sirve a la familia? ¿Por qué este hombre no le pasa este trabajo a otra persona? Su papel de servidor es importante. La Eucaristía que celebramos nos llama a recordar, a dar gracias y a encontrar alegría en el servicio a los demás.

¿Cómo nos moverá la Eucaristía este fin de semana? ¿Qué acto de servicio haremos? ¿Lo haremos con alegría? Paz. P. Richard Feliz cumpleaños, Diácono José de Jesús López.

PATRON SAINTS
Question: Why are some saints honored as "patron saints"?
Answer:
Each person is unique and each of us has different gifts, interests, talents, and, yes, even struggles and areas where we need to grow. This is no less true of those holy women, men, and children who have been canonized or beatified. Because we believe that the saints and blessed are both models of faith and intercessors, Christians have looked to certain holy people as role models and heavenly protectors for occupations, spiritual charisms, and even places. Although the Church sometimes names a person as a patron saint (e.g. Saint Philip Neri as the patron of Rome, Saint Clare of Assisi as the patroness of television, or Saint Aloysius Gonzaga as the patron of youth and young adults), more often it is popular devotion that inspires lay Christians to turn to a particular saint or blessed for heavenly help and support. This is how, for example, Saint Cecilia came to be honored as the patroness of musicians, Saint Toribio Romo as patron of migrants coming into the United States, and Saint Gertrude of Nivelles as patroness of cat lovers. Although there are official and unofficial lists of patron saints, we should always feel free to ask any and all the saints to give us their patronage and protection in whatever it is that we need. ©LPi
