The Pastor's Post

FR. VAUGHN WINTERS

Dear Parish Family,

The first weekend of October, I was away participating in the annual meeting of the Knights of the Holy Sepulchre, a centuries-old organization dedicated to supporting the Church in the Holy Land. We are in the area known as the USA Western Lieutenancy that encompasses Southern California, Nevada, Arizona, and Utah, and each year the annual conference takes place in a different city within this region. The Order consists of both lay and clergy members, and Archbishop Gomez is the Grand Prior of the Order in our region. There are hundreds of lay members who are from our Archdiocese. Additionally, several priests and all our Auxiliary Bishops take part as members as well. In addition to supporting the Church and its ministries in the Holy Land, the Order also provides spiritual and social programs throughout the year for the enrichment and formation of its members. Members are asked, within a few years of their joining, to make a spiritual pilgrimage to the Holy Land to see first-hand the work done there by the Knights and Dames of the Order. Our own parishioners Jim and Deana O'Donoghue were inducted into the Order this year, as well as our regional Bishop Alex Alcan, and we are always seeking new members to join us in this work. Below is a brief history of the Order, and if you are really Interested, there is a detailed and accurate article in Wikipedia: "Order of the Holy Sepulchre".

THE EQUESTRIAN ORDER OF THE HOLY SEPULCHRE OF JERUSALEM—PART ONE

The origins of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem are generally thought to date back to the First Crusade, when the Crusade's leader, Godfrey de Bouillon, liberated Jerusalem. As a component of his reorganization of the religious, military and public bodies of the territories newly freed from Muslim control, he founded the Order of Canons of the Holy Sepulchre. According to most accounts of the Crusades, the first King of Jerusalem, Baldwin I, assumed the leadership of this canonical order in 1103, and reserved the right for himself and his successors (as agents of the Patriarch of Jerusalem) to appoint Knights to it, should the Patriarch be absent or unable to do so.

Very soon after the First Crusade the troops, including the Knights of the Order of Canons of the Holy Sepulchre, began to return to their homelands. This led to the creation of priories all over Europe, which were part of the Order as they came under the jurisdiction of the noble knights or prelates who had been invested at the Holy Sepulchre itself and who, although they were no longer in the direct service of the King of Jerusalem, continued to belong to the order of Canons.

In 1949, Pius XII decreed that the Grand Master of the Order should be a Cardinal of the Holy Roman Church and assigned the position of Grand Prior to the Patriarch of Jerusalem. In 1962 Pope John XXIII and, in 1967, Pope Paul VI respectively reorganized and revitalized the Order by adding more specific regulations to the Constitution with the intention of making the Order's activities more coordinated and more effective. In February 1996, Pope John Paul II further enhanced the Order's status. Today it is a Public Association of faithful with a legal canonical and public personality, constituted by the Holy See under Canon Law 312, paragraph 1:1.

I'll follow with more information in Part II next week.

Love in Christ, Your Pastor, Father Vaughn

Have a spooky and safe Halloween With Halloween right around the corner, here are a few tips to keep your holiday safe and fun! Before they go trick-or-treating, talk with your children about safety and set the ground rules. Young children should always trick or treat with an adult. Join up with friends or family and stick to neighborhoods you know, with houses that are lit and ready for trick or treaters. Stay on sidewalks when possible, and if children have a hard time walking between houses, make a game of it — take big steps, or march from house to house. For more information, please visit https://www.catholiccharitiesaz.org/item/140-tips-for-a-treat-filled-halloween.

Mary, Mother of All Peoples

Mary has many titles, but her most recognizable is that of Mother of God. Did you know that the Bible teaches us that Mary is our Mother, too? As Mary and the Apostle John stood at the foot of the Cross, Christ said to them both "Woman behold your son, son behold your mother". From that moment John took Mary into his own home. It was the last gift Jesus gave us before he died.

We are all called to imitate John and bring Mary into our homes, into our hearts and into our spiritual lives. This Saturday we will focus on how this beautiful gift leads us to an every deeper and more rewarding relationship with our loving Savior, Jesus Christ.

We meet Saturday mornings, from 6:30 am until 8:00 am, in the Parish Hall. Whether you're available every Saturday, or you can only join us every now and again, we would like for you to come be with us!

LOOKING FORWARD TO SEEING YOU!

GOSPEL READING

Mark 10:46-52
Jesus restores sight to the blind man, Bartimaeus

Persevere in Prayer, Trust in God to give You what You Need

Today's Gospel offers us a powerful example of faith and persistence in prayer. Those around him rebuked Bartimaeus for his efforts to attract Jesus' attention. When silenced by the crowd, however, Bartimaeus continued to call out. He is persistent and bold in his confidence that Jesus will show mercy on him and do what he asks. His persistence and great confidence that Jesus would help him reminds us of the confidence with which our children br ing to us their needs. In their faith and trust we can find an example of the attitude with which we might approach God in prayer.

When we pray, God wants us to be so confident he will help us that we don't permit anyone to keep us from bringing our needs to God in prayer. Invite family members to identify the things they need most from God. Pray these prayers of petition together as a family, confident that God will hear and answer your prayers. Respond to each petition, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on us." Conclude by praying the Glory Be to the Father.

LIFE TEEN MESSAGE FROM KELLY DUNNAHOO

In today's Gospel Reading, Jesus heals a blind man named Bartimaeus. What makes this healing interesting is how Bartimaeus calls out to Jesus. He says "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me." Bartimaeus didn't just believe that Jesus would heal him simply because he had heard stories of other healings. The term "Son of David" refers to the Messiah – the King who was to come. Bartimaeus had come to believe in who Jesus truly was and not just what Jesus could do for him. In addition, the Jews of this time period believed that infirmities such as blindness were attributed to one's sins (or those of an ancestor), so Bartimaeus was also asking the King to wipe away his sins.

Jesus didn't hesitate – He told Bartimaeus that his faith had saved him and he should go on his way. But we see that Bartimaeus chose to follow Jesus on His way. After all, this man had found the Messiah. Why wouldn't he follow Him? But where was Jesus going? Where was His path leading? If we turn to the next chapter, we see that Jesus was on the way to Jerusalem for the last time. He was on the path that would lead to His Sacrifice on the Cross – the Sacrifice that would reconcile us to God and allow us to enter Heaven. Bartimaeus couldn't have known this – he was just going to follow Jesus no matter where He led him to and it turned out, he was following Jesus to the most loving and sacrificial act this world has ever known.

What about us? Jesus heals us, He blesses us, and He died for us. Yet, are we willing to follow Him no matter where He leads us to? This is not an easy question. We might think that it is obvious – of course we will follow Jesus! But what if He leads us to where we don't want to go? What if things get tough and we want to run from Him? Real life gets messy. Our intention may be to follow Jesus no matter what, but then when push comes to shove, we just can't do it. Jesus may be calling us to something and we run the other way. It is important to remember that we can't follow Jesus on our own. We need God's help. That is why prayer is so important. That is why surrounding ourselves with people who are on the same journey is so important.

Life Teen is a community that helps teenagers stay on the road toward Jesus. Teenagers can help each other, through support and prayer, to be intentional disciples and lead others to Christ. We meet in the classrooms on the second Saturday of the month, with dinner after the 5:30 pm Mass and finishing the night at 8:45 pm.

TEEN LOFT IS OPENING on October 27th!

I personally invite you to join me in the "Loft", Wednesday evenings, from 6:00 pm until 9:00 pm, so as to kick back and enjoy Catholic fellowship with all your peers! The "Teen Loft" is located on the third floor of Slattery Hall, and has a variety of GROOVY amenities, such as: a pool table, karaoke, a Wii, as well as very YUMMY snacks. We begin our evening in the Loft, head to Mass at 7:00 pm, and then return to the Loft to continue the fun! This is your time to enjoy being yourselves, get to know the fabulous Youth Ministry volunteers who will chaperone, and just to have a space that you can consider your own in our Parish. Think of it as a party—a REALLY FUN Church party! We all look forward to seeing you every Wednesday night, or as often as you can attend, in the "Loft".
