Pentecost Sunday

Begin by taking a moment to calm yourself, focus on your breathing and become aware of the life force that flows through your veins. Center yourself in the words and affections of St. Augustine's Prayer to the Holy Spirit, "Breath in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy. Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy. Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy. Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy." Sanctifying, bringing things to wholeness, blessing, restoring and creating are just some of the fruits of the presence of the Holy Spirit. Being filled with the Holy Spirit is not always about proclaiming loud cries of praise or singing alleluia from a roof top. It is about unfolding and encountering the ordinary in an extraordinary way. Being filled with the Holy Spirit means being filled with the fullness of God's life and in touch with the power and wonder of God's presence. It's about becoming holy.

It is not just for saints or people who have a religious vocation. Holiness is for the ordinary, simple run- of-the-mill person who desires to love God, others, and all of creation. When an ordinary, humble person becomes connected with life and the wondrous power of God's love, they begin to live life more deeply, a bit more reverently, desire a simple fare and find themselves relishing in ordinary beauty. Their senses become attuned to the Author of life and they realize that they are not alone. The Holy Spirit connects all of the dots of human experience and existence, bringing everyone to center on the Divine Presence. The Holy Spirit does not just breathe "on me" but "in me" and is the force behind every breath I take. Take a moment to soak that thought in. There is the Divine Presence of the Holy Spirit in me, right now. When a person becomes in touch with truth, they know that when inspired by the Holy Spirit, his or her actions are not solely their own. They realize that they are moved by Divine Grace and drawn to things not found in secular affairs.

We live in a world where it is hard to discover truth. Real truth is veiled by so many imposters that it is hard to find, especially for those who are young. It is easy to get fooled and duped and often, without full conscious awareness of doing so, we choose to walk down a path of self-absorption and destruction. It is only the Holy Spirit, through the ministry of the church most especially, who guides us to truth and shows us the way to be the graced and holy human beings God made us to be. The wonders and inspirations of today's Feast of Pentecost are necessary to share with both those we love and those who only casually cross our paths. The first disciples, touched by the Holy Spirit, brought the Gospel to the ends of the earth one step at a time. Is it unrealistic to ask that we assist in that same mission by helping people understand who they are and who God is one at a time? Ask the Holy Spirit to alleviate the fear in your heart that prevents you from doing so. ©LPi

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone."
1 Corinthians 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God's plan to work, each must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not called to do the same thing! For God's plan to work you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do.

Why are Catholic and Protestant Bibles different?

Since the earliest days of the Church, Christians used a Greek translation of the Old Testament known as the Septuagint. This collection of the texts of the Hebrew Scriptures included 46 books. At the time of the Protestant Reformation in the 1500s, the Protestant reformers began to create their own translations of the Bible (into local languages) and some began to question why the Jewish Scriptures would have included texts that were written in Greek, because, they assumed, the only valid Jewish Scriptures would have been written in Hebrew. And so, they decided to remove seven books from the Old Testament: Baruch, Sirach, 1 & 2 Maccabees, Tobit, Judith and Wisdom (as well as portions of the Books of Daniel and Esther). This means that the Protestant Old Testament only includes 39 books, while Catholic Bibles continue to include those original 46 books. Both Catholic and Protestant Bibles include 27 books and letters in the New Testament.

Domingo de Pentecostés

Cada año, la Iglesia se engalana y celebra por todo lo alto la Solemnidad de Pentecostés. Es tiempo de pasar del miedo de estar encerrados, a la alegría de recibir el soplo del Espíritu liberador. Todos estamos expectantes para recibir sus siete sagrados dones. La narración del Evangelio nos dice que Jesús se presentó a sus discípulos y les dijo: "¡La paz esté con ustedes! Como el Padre me envió a mí, así los envío yo también". Dicho esto, sopló sobre ellos y les dijo: "Reciban el Espíritu Santo" (Juan 20:21-22). Ahora, el turno es nuestro, es el tiempo de la comunión que nos trae el Espíritu. El deber de la Iglesia, que somos todos los bautizados, es siempre de diálogo y de comunión.
La gran variedad de todos es una fuente de enriquecimiento. El bien común es para todos y el Espíritu Santo está vivo en cada uno de nosotros. No desaprovechemos, más bien demos gracias al Padre por el don del Espíritu Santo a su Iglesia. Este Espíritu es el que nos une en la diversidad de razas y culturas. También, pidamos al Padre que seamos humildes servidores de su Espíritu, especialmente en este tiempo tan complicado, para llevar a cabo su misión. Oremos, para que las familias sean verdaderas Iglesias domésticas, donde se practique la paz y la justicia entre cada uno de sus miembros. En su Homilía en Pentecostés, el Papa Francisco nos ayuda a comprender que: "El Espíritu Santo es la unidad que reúne a la diversidad; y que la Iglesia nació así: nosotros, diversos, unidos por el Espíritu Santo". ¡Ven, Espíritu Santo! ©LPi

La Corresponsabilidad

"Ahora bien, hay diversidad de dones, pero el Espíritu es el mismo. Hay diversidad de ministerios, pero el Señor es el mismo. Hay diversidad de actividades, pero Dios que hace todo en todos, es el mismo." – 1 Corintios 12:4-6

Todos somos bendecidos, independientemente de nuestras circunstancias individuales. Dios ha concedido muchos dones a cada uno de nosotros. La manera en la que utilizamos esos dones es nuestro regalo de vuelta a Dios. para que el plan de Dios funcione, cada uno debe hacer lo que estamos llamados a hacer. ¿Adivine qué? ¡No todos estamos llamados a hacer las mismas cosas! Para que el plan de Dios funciones usted tiene que hacer lo que Dios lo ha llamado a hacer y yo tengo que hacer lo que Dios me llama a hacer a mí.
