LA CATEDRAL DE LA MAGDALENA

NOTES FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear parishioner,

The Madeleine Choir School first day of school is Tuesday. This is the 25th anniversary year for the school. Long time parishioners will remember the first ten years of the Choir School were in the basement of the Cathedral. The school is Pre-K through eighth grade; there are two classrooms for each grade. There are some grades that have room for more students. Tuition in all the Catholic schools is based on the ability to pay. The Diocese makes a great effort to make Catholic education available to every Catholic family.

Blessings,
Father Martin

NOTICIAS DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Querido feligrés,

El primer día de clase de la Escuela Coral de la Magdalena es el martes. Este es el 25º aniversario de la escuela. Los feligreses de toda la vida recordarán que los primeros diez años de la Escuela Coral estuvieron en el sótano de la Catedral. La escuela es de Pre-K a octavo grado; hay dos salones para cada grado. Hay algunos grados que tienen espacio para más estudiantes. La matrícula en todas las escuelas católicas se basa en la capacidad de pagar. La Diócesis hace un gran esfuerzo para que la educación católica esté al alcance de todas las familias católicas.

Bendiciones,
Padre Martin

CONGRESO PASTORAL 2021

Conocer a Cristo, vivir a Cristo, llevar a otros a Cristo

sábado, 18 de septiembre

El Congreso Pastoral de este año tendrá un formato nuevo y único. Tendrá lugar en cada parroquia utilizando una combinación de tecnología de vídeo, grupos de discusión en persona y almuerzo.

Los feligreses de la catedral se reunirán en Scanlan Hall (*un cambio de lugar) a la 12 mediodía para la sesión en español. Habrá un almuerzo primero, luego la sesión comenzará con un vídeo corto del obispo Oscar Solís, seguido de la oración de la tarde. A continuación, el grupo verá la presentación central grabada por el orador principal, el Fray Sergio Serrano, OP. Se formarán grupos de discusión que contarán con material complementario y preguntas proporcionadas por el Fray Sergio.

El padre Serrano es un sacerdote de la Provincia Dominicana de San Martín de Porres. Es Director del Apostolado Hispano de la Parroquia de San Antonio de Padua en Nueva Orleans, Louisiana. Ha dirigido muchos retiros aquí en la diócesis de Salt Lake City, ayudado con Emaús, y es parte del Instituto Congar.

THE LEGACY OF THE BISHOP'S DINNER:

CREATING WITNESSES FOR THE RESURRECTION

The great legacy of the Diocese of Salt Lake City is without a doubt The Cathedral of the Madeleine. Yes, it's only a building. Still, it represents, welcomes, and embraces the people of God, and proclaims the presence of the living God.

It is both a historic treasure and a vessel for precious aspects of our Catholic faith. Moreover, as the seat of the bishop's power, it gives us confidence to follow Bishop Solis, inspiration to know the Lord more intimately, and the opportunity to immerse ourselves deeper in the devotions of our faith.

It is a place of grace to give thanks to God for all we have and all we are and all we might become as we listen to the Gospel and are nourished with the Eucharist. It's a place that creates and inspires missionary disciples.

Daily the Cathedral captures the heart and imagination of hundreds of visitors of all faiths and beliefs from around the world. It's physical structure must be maintained with extra attention to details, unique materials, careful preservation of priceless works of art, as well as safety.

Exceptional care for The Cathedral of the Madeleine is made possible through The Bishop's Dinner. Now in its 18th year, the generosity of participants from across Utah enables a small staff to provide loving and professional preservation.

Started by Monsignor Joseph Mayo in 2004, the Dinner has honored world-class artisans of the Cathedral like Utah artist Roger (Sam) Wilson who created the Stations of the Cross, Felix B. Lieftuchter, the artist who painted the murals, Monsignor M. Francis Mannion who led the immense work of the renovation in 1993, local philanthropists: Ian M. Cumming, Jon Huntsman, Sr. Irene Sweeney, and Jack Gallivan and more.

At the 2011 Dinner, now Cardinal Blasé Cupich reminded us, "When supporting the cathedral, you're...investing in the work that is done to make sure that people who come from all walks of life leave transformed. You are allowing and enhancing the ministry of your bishop…So keep your cathedral beautiful, for it will attract others to know God. Reach out to those who need to be reminded that they are blessed and not forgotten, through your hospitality, your social ministry, your Good Samaritan program, and be willing to see that what you are doing is creating witnesses for the Resurrection. We must do our part to preserve and nurture this precious gem of our city." (Intermountain Catholic article, Marie Mischel) Knowing there is no chance to renovate a legacy building once it is gone, we invite you to join with us in supporting the Bishop's Dinner this year, September 8. For reservations: Patricia Wesson pwesson@utcotm.org 801-328-8941 ext 108

MOST REVEREND FRANK J. CAGGIANO HONORED SPEAKER FOR BISHOP'S DINNER

The Most Reverend Frank J. Caggiano was installed as Fifth Bishop of Bridgeport on September 19, 2013.

Less than a year later, he convoked the 4th Synod of the Diocese of Bridgeport, the first in 32 years. More than 8,000 faithful attended the Synod Closing Mass.

Under his leadership the diocese launched the Diocesan Leadership Institute, Strategic and Pastoral Planning, and most recently "A Call to Renewal" and a unique "Eucharistic Ambassador" initiative to welcome people back to the Church and revitalize the liturgical and pastoral life of the diocese.

Born in the Gravesend section of Brooklyn, he was admitted to Yale University in 1977, and transferred to Cathedral College of the Immaculate Conception, graduating summa cum laude. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 16, 1987.

A noted catechist, Pope Benedict XVI invited him to deliver World Youth Day talks in Sydney in 2008 and Madrid in 2011. Pope Francis selected him to serve as a catechist at World Youth Day in Rio de Janeiro, 2013, Krakow in 2016 and Panama in 2019. He preached at the Youth 2000 Summer Festival in Tipperary, Ireland. Presently he serves on the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis; the Subcommittee on the Catechism; the Ad Hoc Committee on Racism, the Subcommittee on the Church in Africa, and the Committee on International Justice and Peace.

MOUNT CALVARY CEMETERY:

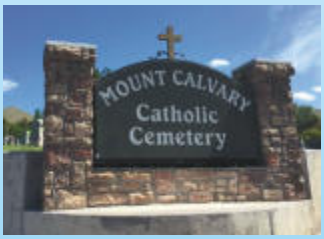
The only Catholic cemetery in Utah

CEMENTERIO DEL CALVARIO:

El único cementerio católico de Utah

The annual special collection for the Mount Calvary Catholic Cemetery will be taken up with the regular collection on Sunday, August 22. The only Catholic cemetery in Utah has been operated by the Diocese of Salt Lake City since 1897.

The reason for the special collection is that many expenses are incurred to maintain the 19.5 acre grounds. Revenue earned through the sale of grave plots, crypts and niches only covers a fraction of the costs. The cemetery is a non-profit entity, that struggles with infrastructure issues, like curbing, water, weeding, and the leveling of headstones and graves.



Mount Calvary Catholic Cemetery belongs to all faithful Catholics in the community, and over the years charitable donations have offset many of its expenses.

Each grave in the Mount Calvary Catholic Cemetery & Mausoleum has a story to tell. There's William A. Turnier, buried in 2004, who worked for Nabisco and created the Oreo cookie before retiring to Utah from New Jersey; his gravestone boasts an Oreo cookie. James McTernay, who died in 1910, was a local bar owner whose patrons took up a collection to memorialize him with the tallest monument in the graveyard. Then there is Sophia Maria DeCurial, AKA Sylvia Douglas, who died in 1908. Her red rock gravestone states that she was believed to be Etta Place, girlfriend of the outlaw Harry Longabaugh, better known as the Sundance Kid. Another site of interest at Mt. Calvary is the grave of John and Mabel Dwyer, which rests under a tree near the far eastern border of the cemetery. They were the parents of Robert J. Dwyer, the first native Utahn ordained to the priesthood. He later became Bishop of Reno and Archbishop of Portland, Oregon. In addition to being an accomplished historian, Bishop Dwyer was an architectural expert. The grave marker, which he designed himself, is a beautifully proportioned Gothic arch upon which are inscribed his parents' names and the simple epitaph "Requiescant" (They Are Resting).

Please consider supporting this important ministry of the diocese.
