First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

We are in the midst of a rising number of COVID cases. We know this variant is spreading pretty quickly. It can concern a number of parishioners who are vulnerable, have loved ones that are vulnerable and other concerns that affect people.

Just a reminder for those who are avoiding large crowds for the time being, we have three options to help respond to the needs of parishioners. Mass online is still available and maybe, for a few weeks, we may choose to pray online with the community. We invite people to pray along with the community, as one can participate in praying with the whole Church throughout the world.

Secondly, we still offer Sunday Communion every Sunday from 9:15 - 10:15 am in our Daily Mass Chapel. Signs and greeters are present at our entrance to guide parishioners to Sunday Communion. We have kept this offering since we started dealing with COVID. It keeps everyone safe. It is a very brief entrance into our building to receive communion, pray at home, and of course view the Mass online. Receiving the Eucharist is central to our faith even during uncertain times.

The third choice is to attend a weekday Mass here or another parish. Monday thru Friday 8:00 am in our church is a safe way to participate in Mass. The entire church is open to sit anywhere in the church, and we usually have 100 people attend weekday Mass. One can be at a very safe distance and receive communion.

For most of us we will get through this variant soon and we can resume attendance if we choose. For others, it will still be a situation of protecting themselves and loved ones and we will still offer these options. Nothing is ideal for now but in the Lord's eyes our efforts to stay close to him in any way possible is pleasing to him.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY MARY PERMODA,
Director of Pastoral Activities

Last weekend was the Diocesan Gospel of Life Appeal and, as you may remember, last Mother's Day we launched the national campaign of Walking with Moms in Need here at the parish. It is with great joy and gratitude to share that the St. Patrick Walking with Moms in Need Ministry is completing their year of service. This past year our ministry team (not just women!) conducted research on the different agencies and services that would be helpful to moms in need. They also were able to tour many of them. The next step for them is to publish their findings and put on our website for easy access when the need arises. WWMN also has partnered with the Knights of Columbus on the baby bottle drive. This is an annual event that raises funds for the Aide to Women Center. Remember to bring back your baby bottles to Mass this weekend! One last shout out, some of our parishioners attended the Diocesan March for Life downtown a few weekends ago.

May we continue to be aware of all life issues from the unborn to natural death and support through our action and prayer. Remember, we have a Respect Life Webpage at stpatcc.org/respectlife where you can explore all Life Issues and find ways to educate, pray, and take action.

Take a look at the photos...

Stewardship

How do I know if the Time, Talent, and Treasure I offer God in grateful return is "enough"? What is the measure?

St. Paul tells us in the Second Reading today — the "measure" is the love that we put into each of these aspects of our lives. "If I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away everything I own and hand my body over so that I may boast but do not have love, I gain nothing." God is not after a particular number. What He wants us to give over to Him is our very selves.

Real love is not a sentiment. Real love is manifested in living a virtuous life. We read later in St. Paul's letter that real love takes strength: it is patient, kind, humble, other-centered, truth-seeking, and long-suffering. Love is the heroic giving of oneself even when it is uncomfortable; especially then. Love looks like Jesus. It lives like Jesus.

Sometimes, living like Jesus is difficult. We see this in the Gospel Reading today where we find Jesus in action, preaching in the synagogue in His hometown. He speaks truth to the people He loves, the ones He grew up with, and shared His early days with. How do they respond? They are filled with fury and run Him out of town, intent on throwing Him from a cliff! Yet Jesus is undeterred. He passes right through them and presses forward with the mission His Father has entrusted to Him.

We are called to live with this same strength and determination, fueled by the power of love and by gratitude for all God has given us.

that the Bible class led by Bible teacher Kevin Saunders meets every Tuesday night in Fenlon Hall from 7:00 - 8:30 pm? Kevin Saunders would love to welcome anyone in the parish to attend a session or two to see if this is the Bible class for you.

Kevin is currently leading a lecture based journey through the Prophet Isaiah. You can join the class any time. You will just need a Bible and a desire to know more about God's Word and wonderful plan of salvation.

There is no risk to trying the Bible class out to see if you like what we are doing each week. We meet in the comfort of Fenlon Hall where there is ample room to spread out among the tables and chairs set up for each session. We always start and end exactly on time. Why not give it a shot? There is no need to register, just show up and be ready to listen as Kevin reads and comments his way through the chapters of Isaiah each week.

Ever felt like a “stranger in a strange land”? Or that you just don’t "fit in"? Virtually every spiritual writer throughout the ages has felt this sense of emptiness and loneliness? Understanding these feelings is a universal quest.

Tasting Heaven: Discovering Our True Desires

In this course you will discover and honor your God-given desires for perfect love, goodness, beauty, truth, and harmony/home. These are known as the “Transcendent Desires" and they are like road signs that point the way to “more”. During this study we will participate in simple prayer experiences, find new meaning in scripture, and dive into the deep significance of Holy Mass in your spiritual journey. There will be opportunities to glean insight from Fr. Robert Spitzer and receive wisdom from the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

INSTITUTE for JUSTICE & ADVOCACY

Throughout the Human Trafficking Awareness Month of January, we focused on the educational pieces in both our bulletin and Connections. This issue affects us all at a local, national, and global level. Besides educating ourselves on this topic, there are also ways to combat and take action.

Shared Hope International (SHI) was founded in 1998 by former U.S. Representative Linda Smith. It is a non-profit, non-governmental, Christian organization that exists to prevent human trafficking and restore and bring justice to women and children who have been victimized through sex trafficking. SHI is part of a worldwide effort to prevent and eradicate human trafficking and slavery.

The organization takes steps towards eradicating human trafficking with a three-pronged approach which can be accessed more in depth at sharedhope.org/what-we-do/

Prevent: Training, awareness, and collaboration.

Restore: Programs, partnerships, and stories of hope.

Bring Justice: State laws, legislative support, campaigns, advocacy action center, and research.

Their website, sharedhope.org, gives a more comprehensive overview of the organization's mission, ways to get involved, terminology, resources, advocacy, training materials, and legislative laws/actions that have been implemented.

WHEN TO STAY HOME

How to slow the spread of COVID: With how quickly Omicron spreads from person to person, it's extremely important that we all stay home when we're sick. That doesn't just mean "throwing-up sick" or "102-degree-fever sick". Even if you have the sniffles, a low fever, or what seems like allergies—stay home if you can, and wear a mask if you must go out. People infected with Omicron can have mild symptoms (think a cough, sore throat, or congestion) that could make going about their daily activities seem reasonable. But remember: even if you don't know you have COVID-19, you could pass it on to someone who is at high risk for more serious illness and complications. Don't risk it; stay home when you have any symptoms.

JERUSALEM...by John Seliga

It was late at night when we arrived at our hotel outside the walls of old Jerusalem. As we approached the city we were planning to play the tape with "Jerusalem, My Destiny...I have fixed my eyes on your hills..." . We could not find the tape, so we played "Jerusalem, Jerusalem...Hosanna in the highest...".

It was just as well. We were all so tired, except for one. He wanted to go right into the old city, having been there before. A few of us got together and decided that he should not go alone.

Our small band of followers went through the Jaffa Gate into the walls of old Jerusalem. It was already dark and the very narrow passageways made it seem even darker. We took a right, then a left, then another right. Our leader seemed to know where he was going. After many zigs and zags we made a sharp right turn, and there it was!

Bright flood lights blazed on the Wall. It was the "West Wall," what remains of the wall that surrounded the old temple area which was destroyed in 68 B.C. It came on us so abruptly that we had to stop and take in the sight.

We could see people down at the base of the wall. Later we found out that they were praying and placing pieces of paper with prayers on them into the wall crevices. In the days that followed we would go to the wall also.

The next day we all went to the Via Dolorosa, the "way of sorrows". It is about a half mile long retracing the steps of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. It starts just inside the Lions' Gate also known as St. Stephen's Gate, near the former Antonia Fortress, and makes its way through the Old City to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

But before Jesus walked the Via Dolorosa, He was on the Mount of Olives looking over the Kidron Valley toward the Golden Gate through which he would go riding on a donkey on what we call Palm Sunday. According to the Gospel of Luke, "As he drew near, he saw the city and wept over it..."

How many, of the thousands of people, upon seeing Jerusalem from afar, had their hearts leap for joy? How many were grabbed by the sad history of the old place?

Jesus wept.

EVERY PERSON HAS A FUNDAMENTAL RIGHT TO LIFE AND A RIGHT TO THOSE THINGS REQUIRED FOR HUMAN DECENCY. CORRESPONDING TO THESE RIGHTS ARE DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES—TO ONE ANOTHER, TO OUR FAMILIES, AND TO THE LARGER SOCIETY.

THE ECONOMY MUST SERVE PEOPLE, NOT THE OTHER WAY AROUND. WORK IS MORE THAN A WAY TO MAKE A LIVING; IT IS A FORM OF CONTINUING PARTICIPATION IN GOD'S CREATION. IF THE DIGNITY OF WORK IS TO BE PROTECTED, THEN THE BASIC RIGHTS OF WORKERS MUST BE RESPECTED.
